Notes for Nicholas Lute:

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 4, Ed. 1, Tree #2324, Date of Import: Jan 19, 1999]

NICHOLAS LUTE came into the wilderness of western Pennsylvania in march of 1772. He settled in what became Fairfield Township in Westmoreland County. County was formed in 1773 from a part of Bedford County.

Nicholas came from Chester County, Pennsylvania to Fairfield Township, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

He established a plantation of 422 acres, and he called it Lutesburg. This was started in 1772. This land is now believed to be part of the Mellon estate in this area.

Nicholas had 3 wives, all of whom were named Mary. His third wife was Mary Catherine Good, a widow, who had a son, David. Mrs. Good's maiden name is not known, nor are the maiden names of the first two wives. His first four children were to his first two wives, the rest were to Mary Catherine Good.

Nicholas died in April of 1802 and Mary Catherine died in 1804.

The children sold their shares of Lutesburg Plantation to a wealthy neighbor named Robert Huston.

Other Information

Nicholas's sons, Andrew and Jacob are the only children known to have remained in Pennsylvania.

At present, the parents of Nicholas are not known. But it is believed that he was a Palatinate German (Pennsylvania Dutch). Nicholas has been listed to have been born in Germany.

Generation 2 (con't)

From Mona Woods:

Nicholas Lute and Wife Mary came into Westmoreland Co from Chester Co, Pa

Nicholas lived in Chester Co. in 1769

Nicholas began improvements on his Westmoreland Plantation of 422 acres, 155 Perches in 1772.

It was Surveyed in 1785 and Patented to him in Under warrant #77 in 1788.

The land lay in the Ligonier Valley, Fairfield Twp of Westmoreland Co, Pa.

In a will made in 1802 on record in Greensburg Pa., they had 11 Children, oldest Martha, youngest Barbara.

Two sons who married Brendlinger sisters, Andrew married Magdelene Brendlinger, Jacob married Elisabeth Brendlinger.

Martha and her husband Jeremiah Bradley

George and wife, Elisabeth Wallace

Catherine and husband Robert I

Barbara and her husband and Henry Visner

At this time, this is all I have tracked.

Copied from Records Of Ira Lute of Denver, Colorado in 1936:

My belief is that the Lute family is Welsh for I have Records oh that they were called Luters (Those who played the Lute), when King Edward I made them take surnames. They became Lute. (This is probably not correct, they were probably German).

I have records of John, Philip (b: 1537), James (b: 1542), Christopher (clothes worker) (b: 1578) and Ann, daughter of John, Baptized 1564 from a book on English and Welsh names.

I have no information on Nicholas Lute BACK of Chester, Co. Pa. in 1769.

George. Lute, who I believe was his father, paid Taxes in Chester Co. from 1769 to 1771 on 100 acres of land, 3 horses, 2 cattle, and 4 sheep.

George LUTE father of Thomas Jefferson LUTE was the third child born to Robert and Sarah LUTE. I was told also by another source that his middle name was Washington not William. George was born November 3, 1838 in Adams County, Ohio. He married Louisa Ella MOXLEY December 31, 1857 in Putnam County, Missouri. Louisa was the daughter of Hardy MOXLEY and Lorraine FREEMAN. Louisa was born July 31, 1839 in Missouri. She had one sister named Sarah that I know of.

George and Louisa had the following children.

James William, born November 18, 1858 in Missouri who married Catharine REID; Sarah Ellen born October 6, 1860; Viola Vernice born December 1862; Marion C. born December 1863; Martha Helen born April 4, 1866 in Iowa; Melissa A. born November 7, 1868 in Iowa; John Wesley born May 3, 1871 in Nebraska who married Leticia; Dollie Leila born February 5, 1873 in Nebraska who married H. N. HASTINGS in Wayne County, Nebraska; Thomas Jefferson (our ancestor) born May 6, 1875 in Herman, Nebraska and died August 11, 1959 in Wayne, Nebraska who married Georgianna "Anna" CRAIG who was born about 1880 in Nebraska. They married March 5, 1902; Lorenzo Delano born July 17, 1877 in Herman, Nebraska; Edda born 1878 in Nebraska; Zenobia Carol "Cassie" born February 5, 1880 in Herman, Nebraska and lastly Ida Belle born April 24, 1882 in Herman, Nebraska.

George moved to Missouri with his parents. He first married a Rosanna R. who died and then married Louisa E. MOXLEY in Missouri. Sometime after 1860 George, his wife and two eldest children moved to Iowa as did his parents and many siblings. In 1869 they moved to the New England Community of Washington County, Nebraska, and homesteaded just west of Herman. Sometime after his wife's death he moved to the Boulder area of Colorado. It is thought several of his children had previously moved to the area. He died Nov. 5, 1930 in Boulder, Colorado at the age of 92 and is buried in Crown Hill Cemetery at Denver. Many of his siblings and parents are buried near Herman in an old cemetery. Their grave stones are still visible there.

Robert Huston LUTE (father of George LUTE, grandfather of Thomas Jefferson LUTE) was born in

Generation 3 (con't)

1815 in Pennsylvania. He is the son of George LUTE born 1780 at LUTESBURG Plantation in Pennsylvania and Elizabeth WALLACE born 1782 in Ireland. Both George and Elizabeth died in Adams County, Ohio.

Robert married Sarah Elizabeth MCCALL about 1835 in Pennsylvania. Sarah died and is buried in Herman, Nebraska. Sarah was born in Wales in 1815. Robert and Sarah had 13 children.

Elizabeth Jane was born 1834 in Fairfield Township, West Moreland County, Pennsylvania. She died in 1877. She married John ST. CLAIR in 1852 in Scioto County, Ohio. Granville Debow was born 1836 in Fairfield Township, West Moreland County, Pennsylvania and died 1909 it is thought in Nebraska. He married Elmira Belinda LINCOLN. They had a child Sybil. *(See notes below-Linda BERGAN, researcher is descended from this line). George William (see above); Nancy Ann born 1841 in Adams County, Ohio died 1877 married Moses MANTZ in 1865 in Sigourney, Iowa. Mary Emily was born in 1844 in Scioto County, Ohio and married Marvin REYNOLDS. Michael David was born in in Scioto County, Ohio. He died 1926. He married Saritha Jane AKERS. Jane Vernice was born 1846 in Scioto County, Ohio; John Huston was born 1846 in Scioto County, Ohio and married Lutitia MOORE; Sarah Margaret was born in 1849 in Scioto County, Ohio and married James L. HARVEY. Alexander Jacob was born in 1853 in Scioto County, Ohio and married Anna STEINSPRING. Robert Andrew was born 1853 and married Rose Mary HARVEY (sister of James L. Harvey). Daniel Warren was born in 1855 in Union Township, Missouri and married Caroline H. MAXWELL and lastly Alice Josephine was born in 1859 in Union Township, Missouri and married John COMBS.

Robert HUSTON was named for a good friend, who eventually bought Lutesburg Plantation from the heirs. According to a source the HUSTON family is still very prominent in the area. George didn't sell his share until quite a few years after his father's death which is why Robert HUSTON's eldest children were born there.

Robert Huston LUTE died from a fall off a roof in South Dakota in 1890 or 1900, a 10 year difference in dates. I found Robert's obituary in Adams County where there are many well-documented MCCALLs at that time. They even started a town down on the Ohio River. It is thought Robert was helping family in South Dakota at the time of his death.

The LUTE's were a member of the Methodist Church. Robert and all his children were taught to read and write. He was a farmer and a carpenter.

George LUTE was born 1780 at Lutesburg Plantation, Pennsylvania. He is the son of Nicolas LUTE and Mary ?. He was a printer and is thought to be German (Pennsylvania Dutch). It is thought George may have been born in England while his parents were traveling from Germany. This is all speculation as far as I know. George married Elizabeth WALLACE before 1809. Elizabeth was born in 1782 and may have been born in Ireland. It is said she was Scots-Irish. Her father is thought to be Daniel Wallace and she had one sister and a brother named Daniel.

I found the George LUTE reference in the 1780 PA census index. He was in Chester Co., Charlestown. In 1800 Nicholas was in Westmoreland, Charles was in Berks Co, EL Twp. and George was in Cumberland, EP Twp.

There is an undocumented family legend that Elizabeth was mulatto or part Native American. Also, one of Elizabeth's sisters supposedly married a Black man. Because of this George became so upset that he moved the family to Ohio. One reason I don't buy the legend is that Elizabeth was born in Ireland. The possibility that her sister married a Black man is more likely to be true but many were migrating to Ohio during this time. It makes an interesting story though. There is the possibility that Elizabeth was living with her son John in Scioto County, Ohio at the time of her death.

George and Elizabeth has the following children.
Andrew George who married Rebecca Brannon; Jacob Nicholas married Tabitha SKIDMORE;

Generation 3 (con't)

Mary Vernice who married William HARRIS, than Andrew MCLARY or MCCLARY; Margaret Helen born about 1810 in Pennsylvania married John MULLENS in 1828; Daniel Wallace born 1810 married Elizabeth ARNOLD (Daniel is thought to be the eldest child but it is speculation); John H. born 1812 married Susanna NICHOLS. Robert HUSTON married Sarah Elizabeth MCCALL.

Much about Nicholas is speculation.

Nicholas LUTE was born 1752 in the Palatinate (Swiss region), Germany. This is not documented at all and is debated as he lived in Pennsylvania is a primarily Scots-Irish region. He moved to western Pennsylvania about 1772. As to whether he served in the Revolutionary War is unknown at this time. Nicolas married three women named Mary the last being Mary Catharine who went by Catharine. It is not known which is the mother of which or all his children. So, Nicholas and Mary had the following children: These are thought to be children from the last Mary Catharine. He had, it is thought, about 13 children. Christian and Martha twins born 1776, Charles born about 1778 and George born 1780. Nicholas died in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania in 1802. We descend from George.

The following are correspondances I have received on the LUTE family.

The religion of the LUTE family is also speculation- Family notes (?) say the family roots were in Maryland before Pennsylvania and from Germany before that. They also could mean that some family went to Maryland, some went to Pennsylvania. (If some of the family were Catholic this would make since as Maryland was a Catholic colony and Pennsylvania predominately a mixture of religions. Maryland was tolerant of other religions as well. LUTE was also a Jewish name which gives pause to other ideas.) They were in Westmoreland Co by 1783 I think it was. They may have been there earlier. Their land was surveyed in that year just like Nicholas had his land surveyed one or two years before even though he had it years before then. Ed STUMP, Hawaii (researching Margaret LUTE HINES thought to be a sister or niece of Nicolas LUTE).

"Nicolas he was a very wealthy landowner. It is believed by other researchers that he was buried on his own property which was strip mined so the grave is probably lost. LUTE researchers from the area have searched for the grave...There is an old fort in the vicinity which has many headstones that have the carving entirely worn away. We most likely will never know." Keith LUTE, PA

"The most knowledgeable and well-documented LUTE genealogist that I've come across is Keith LUTE in Pennsylvania. His address was until recently RD #1, Box 239, Rochester Mills, PA 15771. I think he wrote my sister that it had recently changed although he hadn't moved. We were out there a few years ago and he showed us farms, took us to graves and showed us approximately where Lutesburg Plantation was. It's impossible to pinpoint it exactly because the whole area was stripmined. Old Nicholas was sitting on a fortune if he but knew it!" Linda BERGAN

"According to our information, Nickles or Nicholas LUTE arrived in western PA in March 1772 and died there in 1802. He is believed to be the only German pioneer in that area, the rest being Scots Irish. His land in the Ligonier Valley was surveyed and dated in Dec. of 1785. He left ten children and one stepson by three wives, all named Mary. His third wife went by the name of Catherine. His eldest son, George, whom I am descended from, was married to Elizabeth WALLACE and migrated to Adams Co., Ohio. I am descended from his son, Robert Huston LUTE." Linda BERGAN.

*Linda is a relative descended from Granville, Robert HUSTON's brother. I received much information from her. LUTE researchers may contact her or myself. Her email address is LBergan@excite.com. Mine email is kgrone@yahoo.com. Linda has been in contact with other LUTE researchers as well.

HARVEY S. LUTE carries on general farming in Green township, Indiana county, but is especially interested in the growing of potatoes, in which he has been notably successful. The farm he owns and lives upon by himself and his immediate ancestors for the better part of a century, his grandfather, Jacob Lute, having settled there many years ago. The Lute family is of German origin, and has been settled in America for about two hundred years. It has long been established in Westmoreland county, where Jacob Lute was born. Coming to Indiana county he bought a farm in Green township, where he and his son Frederick, the father of Harvey S. Lute, built a log house at first. This was replaced in time by the substantial house Mr. Harvey S. Lute occupies, which was erected in 1862. Jacob Lute continued to live on this place until his death which took place in the house now occupied by his grandson.

FREDERICK LUTE, son of Jacob Lute, was born Feb. 2, 1817, in Westmoreland county, Pa., came to Indiana county with his father, and died here July 23, 1904. He married Amelia Karlinsey, who was born in Cambria county, Pa., daughter of Daniel Karlinsey, a native of Germany who came to America and made his home in Cambria county, Pa., where his wife, Sarah died; he died at the battle of Fredericksburg, while serving in the Civil war. Mrs. Lute died March 10, 1881. Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Lute, namely: Harry F., who lives in Idaho; Lottie, wife of Bruce Lute, of Indiana county; Daniel, deceased; Blanche, wife of Archie F. Westover, of Cambria county; and Harvey S. Harvey S. Lute was born March 17, 1879, in Green township, and received his education in the public schools there. When a boy he began farming, and after the death of his father became the owner of the home place, where he has ever since engaged in general agricultural pursuits. He is one of the largest growers of potatoes in Indiana county, having raised three thousand, four hundred bushels in 1911, off thirteen acres. This branch of his work has been thoroughly systematized, and he makes a business of wholesaling and retailing, not selling through commissioned men.

On July 6, 1903, Mr. Lute was married to Elizabeth H. Walker, who is a native of Venango county, Pa., daughter of Robert and Jane (Williams) Walker, both of whom are deceased. J Walker was extensively engaged in the manufacture of brushes at Franklin, Pa. He died Aug. 28, 1903; his wife had passed away Feb. 28, 1886. They were the parents of nine children, of whom Susan, the eldest, is deceased; one died in infancy; Elizabeth M. is the wife of Harvey S. Lute; Robert is a resident of Franklin, Pa.; F. D. lives in Wheeling, W. Va.; Emily is the wife of E. G. Coe, formerly of Edison, Ohio, now living in Florida; Jennie died in infancy; another child, not named, died in infancy; May is the wife of H. Ross Reynolds, formerly of Edison, Ohio, now living in Cleve land, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lute are members of the Nebo Presbyterian Church in Green township, near their residence.

Notes for Elizabeth Jane Lute:

According to her granddaughter, Maude St. Clair Veatch, Elizabeth had brothers named George and Alexander plus another brother she thought but whose name she could not remember. One of the brothers went to Nome, Alaska, and/or California. A sister, Mary, married Marvin Reynolds and lived in Iowa. She may have also lived in Alaska.

It is interesting to note that the John Kellenberger family with whom Elizabeth lived in 1850 had three sons: William, ten; Alexander, six; and George, three. There were also two daughters, Emily, six, and Emma, one. Elizabeth's relationship, if any, to the family is not known.

Elizabeth was attending school at the time of the census in 1850. John Kellenberger's wife, the former Elizabeth Bishop, whom he married January 14, 1844, was born in 1826, nine years after her husband.

Two other persons with the Lute surname were found in Ross County about the same time. one was Martha Lute, who on Oct.20, 1846 married George Leter. In the census of 1850 there was a Samuel Lutes (census spelling). There were also a number of persons with the name of Lutz.

Notes for Alfred Bruce Clawson:

The one story that I like to use about my grandpap Clawson is that he was disabled by two different work related accidents. In one, he lost three fingers on his right hand (occurred before 1918 according to a draft registration card) and he had only his thumb and pointer finger. He had the other arm amputated above the elbow in another work related accident when his shirt sleeve got caught in some machinery. When he was in his sixties and seventies, he was the manager at a Western Auto store in Seward, Pennsylvania. One day, a young guy came in and pulled a gun on him and tried to rob him. I guess he figured he would be an easy prey since he was old and disabled. My grandfather reached under the counter and pulled out the gun (A 38, I believe) that he always had at the store with him and told the guy that if he didn't leave the store in five seconds that he was going to shoot him. This guy didn't expect this and he hightailed out the store without ever trying to take my grandfather on. They caught this guy later on. My grandfather could be downright stern when he needed to be but he was still a fun person to be around. Also with his disabilities, he drove a standard shift automobile most of his life. (Told by Keith Clawson)

As told by Bruce A. Clawson, when A. Bruce Clawson was growing up, he lived with his parents near the Pennsylvania Railroad main tracks near Bolivar. When walking the tracks such as to go into Bolivar, he would carry a loaded pistol. This was due to number of hobos who would ride the freight trains that passed through. The hobos were known to attack and sometimes kill people that they would encounter along the tracks.

Generation 6 (con't)

Another story told by Bruce A. was that A. Bruce and his brother Bobby (Ralph Davis Clawson) were going through Oak Grove (north of Ligonier) in an automobile one time. A. Bruce was driving the automobile. Someone ran from the side of the road and hopped on the running boards of the automobile. A. Bruce told his brother to get the man off the car and Bobby pushed him off the car. Bobby then proceeded to fire a few shots from a pistol at this person's feet to make sure he ran away and left them alone.

According to the 1930 census, Bruce and his family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Florence Hannah Miller:

Florence was called Nana by all of her grandchildren. She did not want to be called grandmother.

Notes for George Philip St. Clair:

George Philip St. Clair, 79, who loved hunting and fishing, died of cancer at his home in Shelton Wednesday, March 1. He had lived in Shelton since 1996. He was born December 7, 1920 in Callao, Missouri, to John and Eva Lena (Hentis) St. Clair. A heart murmur prevented him from serving in the military during World War 11, but he worked during the war setting up assembly lines for the manufacturing of aircraft engine parts. He married Betty J. Seamanon, August 4, 1951 in West Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. St. Clair worked in Des Moines, Iowa, as a truck driver hauling freight before moving to Eugene, Oregon, in 1952. He resided in Eugene until 1977 and in Underwood until 1996. He worked for Barker Willamette Lumber Company in Eugene, and for SDS Lumber Company in Bingen from 1977 until he retired at age 75 in 1995. As a younger man, he boxed in Golden Gloves competition. He also played semipro baseball for Eugene's Dexter Emeralds team. Hunting and fishing were his life, said Brenda Howard, one of his two daughters, who added, "He out fished anybody." He was a fishing derby winner, she added, and he learned to hunt as a youngster. His grandchildren were very important to him and Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair moved to Shelton to be near him Mrs. Howard said. He was a member of the Northside Baptist Church and a former member of the Grace Baptist Church in White Salmon and First Baptist Church in Eugene. He was also a member of the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation and White Salmon Steelheaders. His wife, Betty Jo St. Clair of Shelton; daughters Brenda Howard of Shelton and Sandra Gumaer of San Jose, California; son John Paul St. Clair of San Jose, California; 18 grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews survive Mr. St. Clair. No services are planned. Burial was at Lane Memorial Gardens in Eugene.

"Oct. 14, 1989 was a miracle day for us. That day Philip on his way home from a fishing trip was stopped due to two fires caused by the railroad. There were two ambulance crews out. A couple notice something wrong and alerted emergency crew. They revived Philip and flew him to Emmanuel Hospital in Portland, Oregon where he was stabilized and heart checked. It showed less than 20% of heart opened. On Oct 21, 1989 open heart surgery for a 4 by-pass was performed. On Oct. 28 nieces and nephew Rosemary Burnett (Norma's girl), Jimmy Jr. Burnett (Norma's oldest) and his wife Mary brought us home from the hospital. Philip was released Dec 28, 1989 to return to work. Which he is still working. He doesn't go fishing as much as he used to do.

On Oct 14, 1989, he did catch a fish (steelhead). The first words he said to me when they removed the respirator was "What did you do with my fish?" Which now he doesn't remember anything about the fish!!

Generation 7 (con't)

It was a true miracle that he has no memory loss only just those few days--from Sat to Monday of the 14-16th. When he came out of open-heart surgery. John was there and he asked him to sing "Come Quickly Lord", John sang a few lines and then said w/o music he couldn't remember words to which Philip gave him the words--after a couple more lines-John choked up not realizing his Dad has been learning the words. -- BETTY JO (6/27/1992)"

Notes for Katherine Bertha Rosencrans:

Katherine was born on March 30, 1914 to Dot and Rance Rosencrans. Her parents were divorced before she was born and Dot married George Clooten whose name Katherine went by as a child. Katherine was delivered by Mrs. Trolley the fifth child of her mother. Dot, whose real name was Violet Dot, had given away Margaret, the oldest, and Myrtle, James had died as a baby, and Samuel Daniels was the only child she kept of her previous marriages. George Clooten didn't like the name Sam as it was Dot's fathers name so he changed it to Tom. They kept Tom because he could work the fields. Dot was going to give Katherine away to a family, but George said no they could use her to work the farm also. The Clooten farm was northeast of Bismarck near Arnold which was a small town marked by a grain elevator. Dot was thirteen when she had Margaret and was now twenty-eight at the birth of Katherine.

Katherine was milking cows at age six and plowing at nine. There was always work to be done. Soon more children followed. George, Jr, Emma who arrived at twelve noon, Josephine delivered by Josephine Ludeen, Benny delivered by Delia Clooten, and finally in 1931 Odessa, the only child to be born in a hospital and she was stillborn.

Generation 7 (con't)

When Katherine was three a flu epidemic hit the family. All were sick except George who was pretending to be so he wouldn't get drafted into the war. The doctor knew he was faking and told him to get out of bed. When they were sick with colds they used skunk and castor oil as a remedy.

The farm was three miles east of Arnold near the road. The kitchen was a log cabin and the bedroom was framed. The roof over the kitchen sloped. There was a barn and a chicken coop. There was a windmill that pumped up water from the deep well and a dam that created a pond. The pond was seven feet deep. The walls of the house were newspaper and cardboard with flour paste in the cracks. Later Emma would claim that she had to tie herself to the windmill to save herself from the stampeding cattle.

When Katherine was four she was told to watch George and baby Emma while cooking a dinner of sauerkraut on the stove. George tipped the whole pot over himself and when her stepdad got home she got a licking. Katherine was baking bread by the time Josie was born when she was seven. On the fourth of July they got watermelon and lemons otherwise they never ate fruit. They got 40 cents a pound for the butter that they made and they made 70 pounds a week, but they had none for themselves and used lard on the table. Dot sold the butter in town to her customers. They were allowed some milk and they kept it sweet by putting it in the well. They did make jelly from wild plums and berries but Dot never canned anything. They also picked wild grapes by pulling the vines from the trees, Bull and Buffalo berries, Chokecherries which really made you pucker if they were not ripe, but they made good jam, and Juneberries which came on slender loaded bushes and were black. These were also sold in town. They sold beets and cabbage also. They grew corn to feed the hogs and they also hung seed corn and popcorn on the windmill for it to dry. They never ate pork or beef they raised. They had goose for Christmas and Katherine remembers that at one time there was no food so they had bread and burnt flour gravy to eat. Every Saturday George and Dot took the eggs, milk, butter, chicken and garden vegetables to sell. One time Katherine came home to find they were eating skunk meat. They grew wheat and millets and sugar cane for the cows to give sweeter milk. In the fall they bought a box of raisins and prunes and sometimes apples for the winter to store in the root cellar and this was the only fruit they had.

One time Aunt Gay and Aunt Minnie came to visit and her Aunt Gay taught Katherine how to make Lemon pie. Her Grandma Eliza Minor came to visit with her son Sam who was eighteen at the time. She visited only twice and on one time she gave Katherine her gold and turquoise bracelet which Katherine kept for years. Katherine never met her Grandpa Minor as he was drug to death by a horse when Tom was a baby. The story that Grandma told about Ma was that when Dot was born she weighed two and a half pounds and her dad put her in a shoebox for a bed. Dot always called her daughter Katherine but the kids called her Kat. Grandma brought oranges on her first trip and they were the first the kids had ever tasted and Katherine could always remember how good they were.

Dot and George used to fight all the time and call each other every name under the sun. Katherine was blamed for everything that went wrong. They even said that it was her fault Oddessa died. Katherine was picking potato bugs and putting them in a can of kerosene when Tom started to wrestle her and tore her dress. Dot whipped her with a big stick when she got done and came in for tearing her dress. They never bought clothes for Dot would bring home used ones from her customers. One morning the coffee was hot and George burnt his lip and threw it so Dot broke all the dishes on the table and in the house and they ate on pie tins for a while. The fights would end with them not talking for weeks to each other.

The also raised turkeys and her stepdad told her to put them in and she did, but when he got home he saw the neighbors turkeys and without even asking her he whipped her and she never forgave him for that. He also came and whipped her without asking when Emma had reported that Katherine was in the outhouse with a boy at school but never asked if it was true. Her mother said, "It must be true cause Emma don't lie." Emma didn't lie all the time.

Katherine dug a man out of the snow once and got twenty-five cents and her mother took it to buy kerosene. They would cut wood for the winter and her stepdad gave her on purpose the broken tongued wagon and spooky horse and when a car went by it scared the horse and the tongue broke and they went in the ditch but didn't wreck. Another time they were going up a steep hill and the horse wouldn't go up for her stepdad but Katherine got him to and the stepdad was mad. When she was nine and her Ma was outside her brother George wouldn't get out of bed so she could make it. He got mad and was going to kill her and Josie, but the gun fell when he shot it and went into the floor.
