1. JAMES¹ MCFEATERS¹⁻² was born about 1752 in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania². He died in 1828 in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania³. He married (1) MARY ARMSTRONG, daughter of John Armstrong and Eleanor Wallace, about 1776 in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania²⁻³. She was born about 1753 in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania². Notes for James McFeaters:

Information from manuscript of Mr. Harold McPheeters of Atlanta, GA. 1987 (Indiana County. Historical Society)

The McPheeters are reported to have originally come to the Pennsylvania Colony from Londonderry County of Northern Ireland and settled around Chester and Lancaster Counties around 1726-1730. From there they moved down the Great Valley Road of the Shenandoah Valley into Virginia and North Carolina.

The ancestors of the McFeaters of Western Pennsylvania were apparently James McFeaters (McFeeters) of Tell Twp. of Huntingdon County, PA and his wife Martha. From early census and township records it is apparent that this James McFeaters (& various spellings) had located in Huntingdon County by 1790. We do not know where he came from or who his parents were, but it is most likely that he came from southeastern Pennsylvania because that was the typical migration pattern of the Scotch-Irish into the central portions of Pennsylvania.

James McFeaters (McFeeters) was at various times a town commissioner and overseer of the poor in Huntingdon County. He named son, Samuel as executor of the will - probably because he was the only son still residing in Huntingdon Co. in 1828.

From Sara Gredlers' web page:

Listed on Militia Roll in 1786 & 1788 for Huntingdon County, PA. In 1791 he was living in Tuscarora Valley and was a Supervisor for Dublin Township, Huntingdon County, PA. In 1798 he was Overseer of the Poor for the same township. In 1796 he warranted 215 acres and in 1808 another 92.77 acres in Huntingdon County. In 1821 he was Supervisor for Tell Township, Huntingdon County.

He served in the 5th Company, Captain Andrew Farrier, 7th Battalion Cumberland County Militia on May 1, 1780 and May 1, 1781. He served a tour of active duty August 1, 1780.

It appears almost certain that John, William, and James migrated to Indiana Co. from their early homes in Huntingdon, Mifflin, and Juniata counties in the Tuscarora Valley. Notes for Nathaniel Bryan:
The Bryan Family Story as Related To The McFeaters
By Ron McCausland

The Bryan family presented here first settled in New Castle, Delaware where the first Nathaniel Bryan had a family of seven children. Not much is known of this family other than a son Charles went early to the Western Frontier and a son Nathaniel II emigrated into what was then Cumberland County, PA. We first find Nathaniel I and II in New Castle County, Delaware tax lists in 1775. We then find Nathaniel I and II in the Fannett Twp., Cumberland Co. tax list of 1778. Nathaniel II married Hannah Steel and farmed a large tract in Fannett Twp. known locally as the Pyat plantation. They had two sons Nathaniel III born September 1776 and Charles born about 1786. Charles became a school teacher and had a school in Birmingham, PA. Nathaniel III married Jane Taylor a daughter of Samuel Taylor of Path Valley, Franklin Co., PA about 1796. They immediately emigrated to Wheatfield Twp., then Westmoreland Co., now Indiana Co., PA where they settled near the old McCartney Fort. Nathaniel II and Nathaniel III were recorded in the 1800 US Census in Wheatfield Twp. Nathaniel II returned to Fannett Twp. Franklin Co. where he died in 1818. His will left money for the care of his wife Hannah, for the family of McCurdys that he was living with and for who are believed to be his nieces and nephews. The will did not mention his sons.

Within a year of emigrating to Indiana Co., Nathaniel III and Jane took out title for a 450 acre tract of land adjacent to the Joseph McCartney lands. By 1804 they had sold that property and purchased the old Stewart farm in Wheatfield Twp. There they raised a family of eight children. Several others died in infancy. They were farmers and Nathaniel III was the riding constable for Wheatfield Twp. He was also appointed a Justice of the Peace for many years. Jane died about 1855. The youngest son Joseph T. took over the farm for a time and it was sold about 1858 when Joseph T. moved to the state of Indiana with his family and his father.

Nathaniel IV, son of Nathaniel III and Jane, was born August 4, 1814 and was apprenticed when he was 15 years old as a carpenter to a Mr. Gallagher in Indiana, PA. One of his first jobs was to shingle the domed roof of the Lutheran Church in Indiana. Mr. Gallaghers retirement cut short the apprenticeship and young Nathaniel IV was skilled enough to hire out as a carpenter in the Indiana area. He worked around the area as a carpenter for a few years and on January 24, 1833 married Hannah McFeaters daughter of John and Hannah McFeaters of then Green Twp. They rented and moved about as Nathaniel now worked for himself in carpentry trade and they farmed a bit. They bought their first farm, the old Sweazy place, about 1835. While living there he built the first schoolhouse in Center Twp. In 1840 they bought a 214 acre farm that had been part of the original

Generation 3 (con't)

450 acre tract that forty years before this had been his fathers land. Here they stayed 12 years primarily farming with occasional carpentry work. During this time, Nathaniel was elected constable several times, was elected captain of the local militia called the Washington Guards, served as school director for four years and was an elder in the church. In 1852 Nathaniel purchased one half of the John McLuen farm located on the Armstrong/Indiana County line. His half lay on the Armstrong side in Cowanshannock Twp. There he was elected school director and served for 12 years. During the diphtheria outbreak of 1861, two of their young daughters were stricken and died. Nathaniel said that he could never feel at home in that place again.

After the end of the War of the Rebellion, Nathaniel and Hanna visited their daughter Anna Maria in Kansas and visited Nathaniels two brothers living in the state of Indiana. They decided that they liked Indiana and sold their farm in 1864. Moving west they bought a hardware and livery establishment in Lebanon, Indiana. Farming and carpentry work was behind them now and Nathaniel became a very successful businessman. He expanded the hardware and began to import into the area plasterers materials and the first coal sold in Lebanon. He was appointed the local railway express agent in the town. He then sold the hardware store and began buying and selling corn and grain. This new venture also became a success.

About the year 1870 things began to fall apart. First, his younger brother Joseph T. died early that fall. The last time that wife Hannah walked was from their house to the buggy to go to Josephs funeral. After a debilitating illness Hannah died in January of 1873. Within a week Nathaniels brother Charles, then living in Greensburg, Indiana died. Two months later Nathaniel V, son of Nathaniel and Hannah died. He had never fully recovered from an illness that began while he served in the Army.

A crushing blow was to follow as Nathaniel assumed the obligations of debt incurred by the husband of his daughter Mattie. She had married Albert Parks Stephenson of Lebanon. Stephenson had attempted to set up in business and had failed, what was not obvious were the large gambling debts also due. For whatever reason Nathaniel had for assuming the debts, he paid dearly and ended up nearly broke.

One positive event occurred during this time. Nathaniel visited Greensburg, Indiana after yet another death in the family, his granddaughter Nancy, the oldest daughter of Eliza Jane. There Nathaniel met Mrs. Lydia F. Wilkenson-Woodbury the widow of Wm. Woodbury who lost his life at the siege of Vicksburg. She had been raising her family of four children in Greensburg. She had a small shop where she worked as a milliner and dressmaker. After several meetings they married on July 2, 1873. Lydia's two oldest daughters were previously married. The youngest daughter and a son were teenagers who moved with Nathaniel and Lydia to Lebanon.

As a result of the Stephenson affair, Nathaniel had lost nearly all of his property. To continue in the grain business it was necessary for him to take on a partner. He made a poor judgment of character and ability of the man he chose. However, the business continued to prosper for a time and they built a new grain elevator. On February 9, 1878 with the elevator full of corn and grain it burnt to the ground. Nathaniels partner had grossly underinsured the business and it failed. Nathaniel continued with his coal business and was elected as Justice of the Peace that year. During the next year, the mayor of Lebanon resigned and the city council unanimously elected Nathaniel to fill out the remainder of the term. He declined on some legal grounds but the council named him city administrator effectively filling the office of mayor. He then took on another partner to rebuild the grain elevator. Again poor judgment of character cost him in the end. After some unethical dealings in grain by the partner, Nathaniel was pushed out of the business and lost his investment.

Nathaniel and Lydia had taken an excursion to Kansas to visit his daughter Anna Maria, and a daughter of Lydias. Nathaniel decided then in 1885 at age 71 to start over in Winfield, Kansas. This was not to be. He had no money to start a new business and was too old to farm. They struggled on there for a few years subsisting mainly on Lydias work as hat and dressmaker. After the urging of their children they returned to Indiana County, PA to live with Nathaniels daughter Mary McCausland in the winters and with his son John in the summers. On arriving in PA they had remaining a total of twenty seven cents. They were living there yet when Nathaniel wrote his

According to the 1920 Census, Gertrude and her family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

This write-up was believed to be written by Ruth (Warfel) Robertson:

Andrew and Hannah Pittman were parents of three children, Alphoretta, a baby girl who died at the age of four months and seventeen days. Harry contracted pneumonia and died at the age of nineteen. The four of them are buried in a small cemetery located on Cemetery Road, off route 259N, near the town of Brush Valley, Pa.

Gertrude Pittman, the surviving child of Andrew and Hannah (Pittman) Pittman, Hannah no relation to Andrew, lived on a farm outside of Brush Valley with her parents. The farm was large and today route 259N goes through the "cow pasture" that belonged to the farm. The farm house is still standing with a few changes and the barn is also there in fair condition, When Andrew and Hannah sold their farm they moved into the town of Brush Valley. The house is located along the main highway and directly across from a small gas station-grocery store. After Hannah died in 1928, Andrew sold the house and went to Homewood, Pa. to live with his daughter Gertrude.

Matthew Anderson Miller, son of Michael and Susan (Lapool) Miller, lived about two miles past the Pittman's farm. Michael Miller ran a grist mill on his farm, his other children were John Shields, Golden, Gladys, and Annie.

When Gertrude Pittman married Matthew Miller they moved to Bolivar, Pa., where Matthew worked at Hammonds grist mill and lived in the house beside it. The grist mill was located across the creek from the old Bolivar ball field, near the railroad arch, where the creek flows into the Conemaugh River. His brother John Shields also worked with him. Florence (1899) and Cora (1902) Miller were born in this house. From here the family moved to the corner of Second and Shaffer Street, this house was later known as the Moose Lodge Home.

Andrew Pittman bought a parcel of land on Shaffer Street in Bolivar for his daughter Gertrude, and Matthew built the family home and his own flour mill. Edna (1904) and Gladys (1910) Miller were born here. The local farmers brought their corn and other grains to the mill to be ground and Matthew also made flour and sold to other customers in town.

At the beginning of every summer the Pittman Grandparent's would arrive at the home of Gertrude and Matthew in their horse and buggy, which had a seat in back of the driver's seat, and take Florence and Cora to the farm to spend the summer. This was about a four hour trip which started after lunch. Edna was not well enough to stay and Gladys was too young, but they did visit the farm with their mother at other times. Florence and Cora did small house jobs for their grand mother and would ride in the horse and buggy with their grandpap to take milk, butter and cheese into Indiana (Pa.) to sell on Saturdays.

When work was slow at the grist mill Matthew started working for Ridgeview Coal Company. While working outside doing heavy lifting he was injured and died within two days at the age of 50. He is buried in West View Cemetary, Bolivar, Pa. One of Cora's fond memories of her dad was his taking Florence and her on Sunday visits to the Modesto (Mose) Bernabo farm, who sold milk to the local town people. The farm was located half way up the ridge above the West Bolivar bridge. Also after the girls grandmother Miller died, their grandfather Michael Miller came to live with them until his death in 1912. He always sat in a chair beside the coal stove and slept a lot. About eight years after Matthew died Gertrude married a former boyfriend who had lived in Brush Valley, Daniel Donahey, and they moved to Homewood, Pa. Daniel worked for the post office. Florence, Cora and Edna were married but Gladys was not and was living with her mother and step-father. Gertrude had asthma most of her life and was ill a lot of the time. She contacted pneumonia and died in 1930. Against the girls wishes, she was buried in Homewood Cemetary. Her daughter Edna Mae Miller Wunschell is also buried there. Four years after Gertrude's death Daniel committed suicide using a small hand revolver and is buried beside Gertrude in Homewood (Pa.) Cemetary.

The following is from a clipping found at the Historical Society files in Indiana, Pa.

Harry Pittman, a son of Andrew Pittman, of Brushvalley township died on Saturday of pneumonia after an illness of a week. He was aged 19 yrs-6mo. The funeral was held on Saturday.

Notes for Alfred Bruce Clawson:

The one story that I like to use about my grandpap Clawson is that he was disabled by two different work related accidents. In one, he lost three fingers on his right hand (occurred before 1918 according to a draft registration card) and he had only his thumb and pointer finger. He had the other arm amputated above the elbow in another work related accident when his shirt sleeve got caught in some machinery. When he was in his sixties and seventies, he was the manager at a Western Auto store in Seward, Pennsylvania. One day, a young guy came in and pulled a gun on him and tried to rob him. I guess he figured he would be an easy prey since he was old and disabled. My grandfather reached under the counter and pulled out the gun (A 38, I believe) that he always had at the store with him and told the guy that if he didn't leave the store in five seconds that he was going to shoot him. This guy didn't expect this and he hightailed out the store without ever trying to take my grandfather on. They caught this guy later on. My grandfather could be downright stern when he needed to be but he was still a fun person to be around. Also with his disabilities, he drove a standard shift automobile most of his life. (Told by Keith Clawson)

As told by Bruce A. Clawson, when A. Bruce Clawson was growing up, he lived with his parents near the Pennsylvania Railroad main tracks near Bolivar. When walking the tracks such as to go into Bolivar, he would carry a loaded pistol. This was due to number of hobos who would ride the freight trains that passed through. The hobos were known to attack and sometimes kill people that they would encounter along the tracks.

Another story told by Bruce A. was that A. Bruce and his brother Bobby (Ralph Davis Clawson) were going through Oak Grove (north of Ligonier) in an automobile one time. A. Bruce was driving the automobile. Someone ran from the side of the road and hopped on the running boards of the automobile. A. Bruce told his brother to get the man off the car and Bobby pushed him off the car. Bobby then proceeded to fire a few shots from a pistol at this person's feet to make sure he ran away and left them alone.

According to the 1930 census, Bruce and his family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.
