Samuel M. Palmer.

Samuel M. Palmer, one of the most respected officials of Burrell township for many years, died at this home in Josephine, Sunday night at 11 o'clock. The funeral services will be conducted at this late home on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock and interment will be made in the Barr cemetery.

Samuel M. Palmer was a son of David and Jane Bell Palmer and was born March 23, 1839. After working with his father until he reached manhood, he began farming for himself, buying a farm of 101 acres in West Wheatfield township. At last, when his father needed his care, he sold the place and returned to the home of his boyhood. There he remained following general agricultural pursuits until 1891, when he sold out and moved to Blacklick, engaging in the mercantile business. After two years in the that line, however, he had to give it up on account of his health, and he removed to what is now the town of Josephine, where he bought the little farm which he had made his home.

He served a number of years as supervisor and assessor of his native township. He was also a member of the election board. In 1897, he was elected justice of the peace of Burrell township and that office for five years during which time there was not a single appeal from one of his decisions. He had always been a Democrat and a staunch supporter of the principles of his party; though he supported the Union during the Civil War. In August 1864, he enlisted in Company H, 211th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, under Capt. V. B. Harding and Col. C. L. Dodds. He continued in

Written by Helen Louise "Kunkle" Kindle

Grandma was a lovely, caring person. I remember when we went to Homer City from Greensburg, by train, I always made a bee line for the cellar to see what kind of cakes, pies, cookies etc., were in the screened-in-cupboard. She made goodyummies. After dinner we would all get around the "huge" diningroom table and play cards like "PIG".

According to the 1880 census, Effie was living with her grandparents, Robert and Margaret

He married Mildred Grace Colwell on Apr 11, 1925 in Beech Bottom, Brooke County, West Virginia. She was born on Dec 01, 1906 in Freeport, Armstrong County, Pennsylvania. She died on Dec 05, 2000 in Santa Ana, Orange County, California.

Notes for Thomas Clair Milliron:

Not sure if Tom was born in Blairsville or Cokeville. His birth certificate says Blairsville, but he may have obtained that later in life when he needed identification.

When his father insisted he quit school at about age 12 to work in the mines, Tom was helped by an "Uncle Jimmy Dick," who got him a start in railroad engineering. That uncle may have been James A. Dick of Morrellville, Cambria County.

Thomas Clair was a train engineer in the Vandergrift mill, and my grandmother lived in Vandergrift, where they met. I'm not sure where he lived at the time. He was one of the few people of his age who owned a car, so he was pretty mobile, he could have lived anywhere within a 25-mile or so radius. He left home and lived with Jimmy Dick's family from about 1910 until he married in 1925. As you might recall, his "Uncle Jimmy Dick" saved him from the mines and helped him get established as a train man. (From T. Chapman)

Generation 6 (con't)

Draft registration, 1918, registered at PO Box in Apollo. Oral history relates that he was called for active duty, and while at the train station in Pittsburgh waiting to be transferred to boot camp, the word came that the war was over. There were large number of recruits there, and none of them had any transportation. So an officer in charge commandeered a truck and drove all over Western PA dropping off the boys at their homes.

Tom and Mildred eloped in West Virginia. They started out in Vandergrift, and then Apollo, before settling in rural "Orchard Hills." During that time they also tried to relocate to Colorado during the Depression. There they briefly lived with Tom's sister Minerva and her husband on a ranch, but returned after a short while to Apollo. Later they settled in "Orchard Hills" just northeast of Apollo, where they lived about 35 years until 1970. Then they retired in St. Petersburg, Florida, and lived in a mobile home park. They moved to Orange, California in 1974, living near the family of daughter Elizabeth.

According to the 1930 Census, Thomas and his family were living in Vandergrift, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Alfred Bruce Clawson:

The one story that I like to use about my grandpap Clawson is that he was disabled by two different work related accidents. In one, he lost three fingers on his right hand (occurred before 1918 according to a draft registration card) and he had only his thumb and pointer finger. He had the other arm amputated above the elbow in another work related accident when his shirt sleeve got caught in some machinery. When he was in his sixties and seventies, he was the manager at a Western Auto store in Seward, Pennsylvania. One day, a young guy came in and pulled a gun on him and tried to rob him. I guess he figured he would be an easy prey since he was old and disabled. My grandfather reached under the counter and pulled out the gun (A 38, I believe) that he always had at the store with him and told the guy that if he didn't leave the store in five seconds that he was going to shoot him. This guy didn't expect this and he hightailed out the store without ever trying to take my grandfather on. They caught this guy later on. My grandfather could be downright stern when he needed to be but he was still a fun person to be around. Also with his disabilities, he drove a standard shift automobile most of his life. (Told by Keith Clawson)

As told by Bruce A. Clawson, when A. Bruce Clawson was growing up, he lived with his parents near the Pennsylvania Railroad main tracks near Bolivar. When walking the tracks such as to go into Bolivar, he would carry a loaded pistol. This was due to number of hobos who would ride the freight trains that passed through. The hobos were known to attack and sometimes kill people that they would encounter along the tracks.

Another story told by Bruce A. was that A. Bruce and his brother Bobby (Ralph Davis Clawson) were going through Oak Grove (north of Ligonier) in an automobile one time. A. Bruce was driving the automobile. Someone ran from the side of the road and hopped on the running boards of the automobile. A. Bruce told his brother to get the man off the car and Bobby pushed him off the car. Bobby then proceeded to fire a few shots from a pistol at this person's feet to make sure he ran away and left them alone.

According to the 1930 census, Bruce and his family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Florence Hannah Miller:

Florence was called Nana by all of her grandchildren. She did not want to be called grandmother.
