According to the 1900 Census, John and his family were living in West Wheatfield Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

In 1910, John and Evelin were living in Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

This article came from the book, Indiana County, Pennsylvania, Her People, Past and Present" by Prof. J. T. Stewart.

JOHN HENRY CLINE is one of the notable successful men of his section, engaged in farming, lumbering, milling, dealing, in timber land and general real estate transactions, and though he has now relinquished arduous labor he retains many important interests and continues his business activities. Mr. Cline belongs to an old family of West Wheatfield township, founded here almost a century ago by his grandfather, Samuel Cline, who was born in York county, Pa., where he passed the first part of his life, his family being born there. Moving to is now West Wheatfield Indiana County, Pa., he lived there among the pioneers for a number of years, later moving to Greenville, Ohio, where he died. His children were: Andrew, Henry, Samuel, and Kate, who married George Fulcomber and had children, George, Samuel, (who followed farming in West Wheatfield township all his life) and John.

Andrew Cline, son of Samuel, was born in 1806, in York County, Pa., and came to West Wheatfield township with his parents in the year 1820. After working with his father for some time he rented a farm and began on his own account, this being the place owned by grandfather Sides. He was a tenant there until he bought the property, which consisted of over 238 acres, part of which he cleared and all of which he improved, in addition to general farming carrying on stock raising, making a specialty of hogs and fine horses. Mr. Cline was a man of good education, in both German and English, and he also had exceptional business ability, which, combined with his thrifty and industrious habits, brought him unusual success. His methodical management and intelligent care made his farm one of the best-kept in the vicinity. Mr. Cline married Elizabeth Sides, who was a daughter of Adam Sides, and four children were born to them: (1) Samuel, born May 18, 1830, died March 2, 1908, On September 27, 1860, he married Lydia Walbeck, who was born December 19, 1830, and died July 30, 1885. Their children were: Armenta Elizabeth, born July 16, 1861, married John Mabon; Anna Theresa, born September 27, 1862, married Joseph M. Mack; Andrew Curtis, born March 29, 1865, died April 6, 1866; Sarah Matilda, born October 15, 1867, married Harry H. Mack, Nora Eveline, born March 29, 1870, married John F. St.Clair, of West Wheatfield township, who is employed as pure food inspector by the State of Pennsylvania. (2) William died in infancy. (3) Anna, married Harry Penrose, of West Wheatfield township, and their children are: Andrew, Mary, John, Elizabeth, Joseph, Lloyd, Albert, Emory, and Charles. (4) John Henry is mentioned below. The father of this family died May 30, 1876, the mother died in 1886. He was one of the founders of the German Lutheran Church in West Wheatfield township, served that congregation as elder for many years and was always a liberal contributor to its support. He and his wife are buried in the Lutheran cemetery there. They were held in affectionate regards by all who know them.

John Henry Cline was born Juno 29, 1839, in West Wheatfield township, and there attended the Lynn school. But his educational advantages were somewhat limited, for he began helping his father, farming and lumbering, at an early age. After attaining his majority he "cropped" on his father's farm for five years, and then bought the Jacob Sides farm of 173 acres (which he later sold to his son Harry A. Cline). Buying the Robinson gristmill in West Wheatfield he also operated that for a time, and then bought eight hundred acres of timber land, embarking in the lumber business quite extensively in his own and surrounding townships. During this time he made his home wherever it was convenient, mostly in Burrell and West Wheatfield townships. He has continued to deal in timber lands ever since, buying the land, cutting off the timber, and reselling, and has also dealt largely in other real estate, being a notable shrewd buyer. He assisted in laying out the borough of Farrell, in Hickory township, Mercer County, Pa., built many houses there and had his own home there for awhile, but he preferred his native township. and in 1890 returned to West Wheatfield township, buying a fain of 135 acres where he resumed agricultural pursuits. He still manages the cultivation of that place in addition to looking after his real estate and timber interests. There are two rich veins of coal underlying this property. Mr. Cline is a self-made man, and all the success that has come to him is well deserved, for he has worked hard to make his ventures profitable, and all his advancement is due to his own efforts.

On April 26, 1866, Cline was married to Evelin Livengood, who was born September 20, 1848, daughter of Henry and Mary Ann (Willits) Livengood, of Derry township, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, and they have had a family of twelve children, namely: (1) Clark, born February 7, 1868, now in the lumber business in West Wheatfield township, married Myrtle Robinson and they have a son, Clark. (2) Harry A. is mentioned below. (3) Joseph Wilmer, born July 29, 1871, was killed with a shotgun November 4, 1907, in West Wheatfield township, and his body was not found until five days afterward. He was in the lumber business and ran several sawmills, and having just sold his sawmill to his brother Harry had a large amount of money with him when murdered. His slayer, Emanuel Betz, was convicted and is now serving a twenty years' term. Mr. Cline was one of the well known young business men of his section. (4) Annie, born May 9 1873, married Charles Rashon, an optician, of Johnstown, Pa., and has three children, Russell, Allen, and Hazel. (5) Frank, born August 9, 1875, is working at home on the farm. (6) Alice, born April 29, 1277, married Andrew J. Riddle, and died in 1899, and is buried in the Lutheran cemetery in West Wheatfield township. (7) John, born March 28, 1879, died in 1898. (8) Garfield, born September 24 1880, now: residing in St.Clair township., Westmoreland County, where he conducts a sawmill, married Sarah George. (9) Charles, born October 21, 1884, married Ida Pickles and resides at Bolivar, Westmoreland County, where he superintends the planning mill of his brother Harry A. Cline. (10) Daisy, born October 26, 1887, is at home. (11) Jessie Hazel, born March 3, 1892, married Robert Black and resides at Strangford, Indiana County. (12) George Homer, born October 31, 1889, living at home is engaged in the lumber business and also owns a sawmill.

Mr. Cline is a member of the Lutheran Church, which he serves as trustee. In politics he was originally a Whig, but long ago joined the ranks of a Republican party, though he is independent in supporting whatever men or measures he most approves.

Harry A. Cline, second son of John Harry Cline, was born July 13, 1869, in West Wheatfield township, and there attended common school. Working with his parents until he reached his majority, he then bought his father's farm of 173 acres, and far a time devoted himself entirely to farming. Then he became interested in the lumber business, also running three steam sawmills, and he has continued to enlarge the volume and scope of his various interests until he now has one hundred men in his employ. He owns and operates several up-to-date threshing machines, has over forty horses and does teaming, and is also successful merchant, owning a large general store at Bolivar. He has continued his speculations in timber lands, of which he has become an excellent judge, and the system with which the different interests are managed shows him to be a versatile and thorough business man, alive to the possibilities of the various lines he has entered and capable of developing them.

Mr. Cline was married May 20, 1894, to Elizabeth Griffith, daughter of James L. and Phebe (Myers) Griffith, of New Florence, Pa. They have had children as follows: John Lewis, Phebe Eveline, Myrtle Armeta, Theresa Virginia, Andrew Scott, Lillie Marie, Harry Curtis, and Ida Elizabeth.

According to the 1900 census, John and his family were living in West Wheatfield Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

WAYLAID AND SLAIN
William Cline of Bolivar, Pa., Victim of Atrocious Murder and Robbery
BATTERED CORPSE LAY IN FIELD, Where It Was Found After Search of Several Days - Victim Had Sold Sawmill for Cash and Was Returning Home With the Money.
Johnstown, Pa., Nov 11. - Badly mutilated and showing evidence of having been shot repeatedly and terribly beaten, the body of William Cline of Bolivar, Westmoreland county, was found a short distance from that town in a field. He had been murdered and robbed of a large sum of money.
Two weeks ago Cline sold a large sawmill he operated about three miles from Bolivar, obtaining the price in cash. He started at once to walk to the residence of relatives in Bolivar with the cash in his pockets and that was the last that he was seen alive. Although a vigorous search had been prosecated for the man it was unsuccessful notwithstanding that the remains lay in a field near a public highway during that time.
When found the condition of the ground gave signs of a terrible struggle. The earth was torn up over a space of a quarter of an acre and the doomed man had evidently made a terrific struggle for his life. It is not known what sum of Cline received for his sawmill, but it doubtless was large and someone who knew that the transaction would be closed that day lay in wait for the man, murdered him and made off with the coin.
Cline was quite well to do and was a prominent citizen of Bolivar. There is no clue to the murderer.

REWARD IS OFFERED FOR CLINE'S SLAYER
Father of Bolivar Lumbermen Will Aid in Search for Murderer
DETECTIVE NEAL AT INQUEST
County Detective Josiah Neal returned yesterday from near Bolivar, where he had attended the inquest held over the body of Joseph Wilmore Cline, who was shot down on Nov. 4. The authorities have no clue to the murderer, although a man of questionable reputation in that section is being watched.

John H. Cline, father of the dead man, has offered a reward of $50 for the arrest of the murderer. He is a well-known lumberman and says he will assist financially in running down the main who waylaid his son. Detective Neal will present the facts in the murder to the County Commissioners and they may offer a reward.

One of the chief witnesses heard at the inquest held on Monday by Squire John Houston in the German schoolhouse, was Mrs. Robert Mack, of West Wheatfield township. From her home overlooking the valley, she testified on the forenoon of Nov. 4 she had heard at least seven or eight shots fired in fairly rapid succession. Upon hearing the first shot, she looked in the direction of the sound and saw two men fighting. Later she observed one of the men attack the other with stones. When she told Mr. Mack of the strange happenings he said several hunter had evidently quarreled, and the subject was dropped.

William Felton, of Pitcairn, was another witness. He was visiting relatives in that section last week and on Friday went hunting in one of the Cline Farms. He told the jury of his party discovering a badly mutilated body in an open field under a locust tree and their recognizing the remains as those of Joseph Cline, a neighbor. The father was then notified. Up to that time he believed his son was in South Sharon as he had left home on Nov. 4 saying he intended looking after business interests there.

The dead man was aged 34 years and was regarded as one of the most prominent residents of that section. Some weeks ago he sold a sawmill near there and it is thought by the officers that the man who committed the murder had robbery as a motive. The dead man had a large sum in his possession when he was waylaid and this is missing. Cline was a powerful man and from indications put up a terrific struggle before the murderer shot him to pieces.

Cline is survived by five brothers and three sisters, besides his father already named.

Chain of Evidence About Betts Caused His Arrest for Murder

Garfield Youth Mixed Up in Disappearance of Broken Shot Gun, Placed in Jail to Answer fro Wm. Cline's Death

One of the promised arrests in the William Cline murder was made at Garfield on Friday, the prisoner being Emanuel Betts, a robust youth aged nineteen, who is a brother of an ex-constable in West Wheatfield township. Betts was brought to Indiana Friday night by County Detective Josiah Neal and Officer Stiffler, of town, and a detective from Pittsburg, the accused being handcuffed to the local officers during the ride from Bolivar to Indiana.

The arrest of Betts had been expected for some days and is the result of the public's having heard of a dispute Betts is alleged to have had with a brother. Betts was arrested Friday forenoon and during the remainder of the day the excitement ran high in Bolivar. When the party left there platforms in the vicinity of the depot were thronged with people. The trip to and arrival at Indiana were uneventful.

A few persons were attracted to the office of Squire James A. Crossman, when they saw the quartette going there. An information charging murder was read to Betts and he was asked if he wished to have or to waive a preliminary hearing. He replied that he desired an early hearing, but had nothing further to say. Sheriff Wettling was then given custody of the prisoner and told to present him at a hearing at the Justice s office on Dec. 19.

The murder of William Cline occurred on the Cline farm, near Germany church, on the forenoon of Nov. 4. Cline had sold a sawmill and was making the rounds of his brothers preparatory to starting on a business trip to Sharon that day. While passing a bit of woodland he was shot several times from ambush. Although desperately wooded, Cline did not fall at once but rushed toward the man who had attacked him.

A hand-to-hand struggle followed, Cline being killed by blows over the head from stones or other blunt instrument. His body was found a week later by John Felton and Clint Wakefield, who were hunting. As Cline had carried about $300 the day he was murdered, his near relatives, all of whom are well-to-do, decided that robbery had been the motive.

In working out this line, detectives from the G. B. Perkins agency, of Pittsburg, who were employed by Cline's father, John Cline, soon invaded the township and looked into the habits of a number of young men.

Three or four who seemed to have suddenly secured a surplus of funds were watched, and rumors of probable arrests became general. One of these suspects was Emanuel Betts, who had recently quit a job on the railroad.

The search for Betts' possible part in the Cline murder soon developed that on the day of Cline's disappearance, Emanuel Betts had borrowed a shot gun from his brother, Robert, announcing that he was going hunting. The next day Emanuel did not return the gun, and upon being asked about it by his brother, first said he had left it at home. Then he admitted that the gun was broken, saying he had fallen with it. This story reached the detectives through a cousin of Cline, who had learned it from Robert Betts.

The Perkins men also found that Emanuel Betts had taken the broken gun to the works at the pumping station at Roaring Run, near Garfield, and there trace of the weapon was lost. It is believed, however, that the gun was later thrown in the Conemaugh river.

That Betts had spent the night of Nov. 4 at the pumping station was evident from the fact that he and his brother Jesse went from there to Bolivar on the forenoon of Nov. 5, election day. The officers say that if Emanuel killed Cline, he tramped over the hills of Chestnut Ridge all that afternoon to the pumping station on the West Penn tracks.

Following the arrest of Emanuel Betts, Robert Betts and Mrs. Jesse Betts were apprehended. Jessie Betts was taken into custody on stepping off the evening train on his way up from the water works. Jesse Betts and wife and also Robert Betts were given a hearing before Justice McHale, of Bolivar, and were warned to hold themselves in readiness to appear as witnesses. Jesse was discharged on the count of being an accessory to the crime. Daniel Betts, father of the suspected youth, is a Civil War veteran and resides in Bolivar.

Detective Neal returned to Bolivar today to secure additional witnesses. One of those who will appear against Betts is Mrs. Robert Mack, who testified at an inquest that on Nov. 4 had observed a quarrel between two men near the scene of the Cline murder.

DIS-INTERRED CLINE□S BODY

Coroner Gates Performed Post Mortem on Murdered Man.

Coroner W. D. Gates is in Bolivar today holding a post-mortem on the body of William Cline, who was murdered on Nov. 4. The coroner is dong this so as to secure evidence desired by District Attorney Feit, and Judge Telford on Tuesday issued an order permitting the dis-interment of Cline□s body.

It will be remembered that Cline□s body was not found until a week after his death. At an inquest held by □Squire Houston, of Garfield, acting for Coroner Gates, witnesses testified that Cline had been shot a number of times and had also been struck on the temple with a blunt instrument.

District Attorney Feit in order to present his case against Emanuel Betts, now in jail here charged with Cline□s murder, decided he should know more about these wounds. He also wished to learn whether the gunshot wounds came from a rifle, revolver or shotgun.

COMPLICATES CLINE CASE

Since He Was Shot by a Revolver Prosecution Needs Evidence.

Coroner W. D. Gates found at his post-mortem examination of the body of William Cline at Bolivar on Wednesday that the murdered man had been shot with both a revolver and shot gun.. The bullet from the revolver entered Cline□s head near the left eye

It will be remembered that the chief clue connecting Emanuel Betts with the Cline murder rests on the alleged disappearance of broken shot gun.

BETTS HEARING GOES ONER UNTIL TUESDAY

Interested Attorneys Desired More Time in Order to Prepare Their Evidence
REVOLVER AND GUN FIGURE

□Squire James A. Crossman has postponed the hearing in the murder case against Emanuel Betts from today until next Tuesday, the postponement being made in order to allow District Attorney Feit and Attorneys J. N. and William Banks, counsel for Betts, more time in which to secure evidence as the barristers have kept busy at court during the past few days.

According to interested parties no more arrests are expected as the prosecution believes it has a strong case against the young Betts. Their charges are built around a revolver found in Betts□ possession when he was arrested and a broken shot gun said to have been thrown into the Conemaugh river shortly after Cline□s death on Nov. 4.

The post-mortem held by Coroner Gates last Wednesday revealed that Cline had been shot in the left eye with a 32 caliber revolver, this being the kind of weapon found on Betts, and that Cline had also received a charge of buckshot in his back. It is presumed the dead lumber dealer was first shot in the back and then when wounded was shot in with the revolver. As the scene of the murder indicated that a struggle had occurred and as Cline had been felled through the use of some blunt instrument it is figured that a shot gun was used to beat the wounded man.

Jesse Betts, Emanuel□s younger brother, is out under bail as a witness, it being charged that he advised Emanuel to dispose of the broken fowlingpiece.

Damaging Testimony Against Young Betts
Man Accused of Cline Murder Near Bolivar Was Given a Hearing Before Justice Crossman Today.

Before a crowd that filled the room, Justice James A. Crossman this afternoon head damaging testimony against young Emanuel Betts, the alleged slayer of William Cline, of Bolivar. One of the chief witnesses was Robert Betts, a brother of the defendant.

The hearing was for the purpose of deciding whether Betts should be held for court. District Attorney Feit conducted the investigation. He was assisted by Attorney Samuel Cunningham. Attorney John N. Banks was counsel for Betts, being assisted by his son, William Banks, Esq. The latter objected to a number of Mr. Feit□s questions but was frequently overruled by the justice. He continually said Mr. Feit was conducting a □pumping expedition.□

Coroner W. D. Gates, who held a postmortem over the remains of Cline, was the first witness. He said Cline had received a blow over the temple from some blunt instrument, which he believes was not a stone. Cline had been shot at close range with a revolver, probably of 32 caliber. The bullet entered the right eye, passed through the head and came out below the left ear, the course of the bullet indicating that the man who shot Cline stood above him when he fired the pistol.

Dr. Gates said a blow from the butt of a gun would have felled Cline, but would not have rendered him unconscious at once. Asked if it would have caused death, he replied in the affirmative, unless the patient had been removed to a hospital and had received excellent care.

Regarding the shot found in all parts of Cline□s back and legs, the witness said they came from a shot gun fired some distance away. He said the charges of shoe would not have caused death. Witness also believed several shots have been fired.

William Felton, of Pitcairn, and his cousins, J. C. and H. C. Wakefield, were hunting on Harry Cline□s farm in West Wheatfield township on Nov. 9, when Felton found the body or William Cline, a brother of Harry. The remains were about 600 yards from the Cline home and twenty feet from a lane leading to it. The body was lying covered in elder bushes and golden rod and would not have been seen from the lane.

Felton helped carry the body to the Cline home and was also there the next day. He said probably 250 No. 6 shot were lodged in Cline□s body and that it took two or three loads to produce this result. Loose shot rolled from Cline□s shoes when they were removed.

Robert Betts was the next witness. The young man was affected his being called as a witness and took some time in giving his answers. His testimony is summed as follows:

On Nov. 1 Emanuel Betts asked the witness for the use of his gun. Later the witness□s wife said Emanuel had secured the gun. One week later Robert met Emanuel on the streets in Garfield and asked for the gun. Emanuel said the weapon was at the pump house, one mile from Garfield. Emanuel promised to return the fowling piece, but failed to do so and some days later Robert went to the pump house. The gun was not there and witness could not locate it in the cupboard or other such places.

Upon returning to Garfield, Robert Betts met Emanuel at Fisher□s store and was again told the gun was at the pumping station. The witness replied, □It was, like the devil.□ Emanuel then said that if witness would accompany him home he would secure the gun there. On the way to Emanuel□s home he told Robert he had fallen on the gun and had broken it. Clarence Johns was with him at the time. He said the pieces were at the pump house.

Two days later Robert again went to the pump house to □See whether his brother Jesse, who works there, had the gun.□ This time it was found lying on a bench. The stock was broken near where the connection is made back of the barrel. New scars and scratches were noted on the stock and something that Jesse pronounced blood was visible near the outer end of the barrel. The witness said he believed the marks near the sight came from new mud. As the gun was no longer of use he left it at the pump house.

During this evidence Robert also said the gun had previously been broken a the stock but the he had fastened it together. On cross examination Robert told Attorney Banks that Emanuel was careless during his hunting trips and had fallen and broken two other guns. To District Attorney Feit, the witness then said the fowling piece could also have been broken if it had been used to strike a blow.

Just previous to this the prosecuting attorneys played one of their best cards when they finally induced Robert to say that Emanuel had given him something equivalent to the value of the gun.. This was a revolver and the exhibit presented by Detective Miller, of the Perkins Agency, Pittsburg, caused the witness to state that it was at least just like the one he received from his brother, Emanuel.

Before leaving the stand District Attorney Feit secured from him a statement that Jesse had thrown the broken gun into the Conemaugh river. Robert said he did not care as the weapon could not have been repaired.

County Detective Josiah Neal was called. Mr. Neal had several conversations with Emanuel Betts, both in the jail here and in Bolivar. He said Betts had told different stories. But the last one relating to his movements Nov. 4, the probable day Cline was shot, showed that he had toured the vicinity of the crime. According to Detective Neal, Betts left the pump-house early in the morning and then went to Muir□s sawmill, but returned at noon. While hunting he fell and broke the gun. It was then put away. Some nights later, □Upon the advice of interested parties,□ Betts threw the weapon into the river.

Other witnesses and their testimony were:

John Cline, father of William, told of meeting his son on Harry□s farm at 10:15 a. m. the day of the shooting.

Mrs. Robert Betts corroborated the statements of her husband and examined the revolver alleged by the prosecution to be the one given her husband by Emanuel.

Mrs. J. B. Mack told of seeing two men quarrel on the Cline farm and of hearing shots.

L. H. Taylor said he spent the forenoon of November 4 at the pump-house and that Emanuel was not there.

Justice Crossman then decided that Emanuel should be held for court. The prisoner was returned to jail by Sheriff Wettling.

Emanuel Betts Will Soon Be On Trial for Cline Death

Large Array of Legal Talent Spent the First Day in Securing Jurors, the Examination of Talesman Being Especially Severe --- Accused Man May Plead Self-Defense.

What promises to be the most interesting murder trial heard in the courts of Indiana county for may years opened this morning with Judge S. J. Telford on the bench.

The defendant, Emanuel Betts, or Robinson, this county, is charged with the murder of Wilbur Cline, a wealthy lumberman. The crime occurred on one of the Cline farms in the forenoon of Nov. 4, 1907 and the motive was robbery.
The prosecution is expected to produce what is said to be a confession made by Betts while a prisoner in the jail her. This statement it is said was made to Former District Attorney George J. Feit, Detective Miller, of the Perkins Agency, Pittsburgh, and Miss Annie E. Vogel, a stenographer.
As publicity had been given to this statement, it is understood the defense will make a plea that Betts was defending himself when Cline received the wounds that produced death.
Betts has taken on some weight since committed to jail four months ago, and presented a neat appearance when brought into court. He is a fair-complexioned youth, aged about nineteen, and bears up well under the ordeal of hearing the attorneys use the words □murder□ and □death□ in the questioning of prospective jurors.
His brother, Jesse, sits at this side at the counsel table. Attorney John N. Banks is senior counsel for the defendant. He is being assisted by his son, William Banks, and James W. Mack. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Betts are also here.
John Cline, the wealthy Bolivar lumberman, is her aiding in the prosecution of Betts. He is the father of Wilbur Cline, the murdered man. Harry Cline, a brother, of the deceased, is also present. District Attorney Elkin is being assisted by Former District Attorney Feit and Attorneys Cunningham & Fisher.
Each side is allowed 20 peremptory challenges. Three men have already been discharged by the court and several challenges for causes have been recognized. Out of 21 jurors examined during the forenoon six were accepted.
After being sworn each talesman is quizzed as to his acquaintanceship with the Betts and Cline families: as to his occupation, age, father□s name, religion, vocation, and opinion regarding capital punishment; he is then asked concerning his knowledge of the crime and as to whether what he had read caused him to form an opinion and as to how far said opinion could be moved by evidence.
R. C. Cunningham was excused because he is the nephew of the Attorney Samuel Cunningham. John R. Smith was dismissed because of slight trouble in hearing. Lewis Conway did not understand question propounded by the attorneys and was allowed to return to the audience. Fred Downs, who is of German birth, does not fully understand all English phrases and was likewise excused by the court.
The jurors not accepted by either one side or the other because they had opinions regarding the crime and punishment follow: J. E. Smith, George Adams, John Malcolm, Charles Conner, J. A. Bogley, Dennis Peddicord, W. L. Barrett, A. R. Fyock, J. K. Altimus, J. F. Donahue, Cornelius Rowley, S. M. Cribbs, S. A Douglass, G. W. Colgan, R. W. Langham, John Huffman.
With the court being crowded, scores of women being in the assembly, a special venire for 20 jurors was issued early in the afternoon.
After 51 make men had been examined, the twelfth juror was secured at 3:15 p. m. Six jurors were taken during the afternoon. Two minutes later District Attorney Elkin opened for the commonwealth.
These men were found unsatisfactory to the interested attorneys at the second session; Wallace Irvin, C. A. Ginter, R. B. Calhoun, James Neal, Joseph H. Elkin, C. R. Piper, James Speedy, E. T. Anderson, John Shank, Isaac Billings, John Gamble, R. E. Coleman, Ben Jamison and James Barclay.
Thomas Hart, J. D. Thompson, and J. A. Cripps were excused by the court because of illness.
The Jurors Accepted.

Cline□s Kin Chief Witnesses Heard in the Trial of Betts
Father of the Murdered Man Was on the Stand for Two Hours, and a Younger Brother Was Under Fire Almost as Long □ Dr. Gates Described the Wounds.
Following District Attorney W. F. Elkin□s address to the jury late Thursday afternoon, at which time he explained a map drawn by County Surveyor D. L. Moorhead in which all places connected with the Cline murder are shown, the Commonwealth opened its case against Emanuel Betts. The chief witness heard that afternoon was William (should be John) Cline, the father of Joseph Wilbur Cline, the murdered man.
William Cline (should be John) stated that his son left home the morning of Nov. 4 last, intending to call at his brother□s farm nearby and then go to Bolivar, where he would leave for Sharon. The father related details concerning his son□s business as manager of a sawmill and told of this mill having been sold during the last week in October to another son, Harry Cline.
Details were given regarding the clothes worn by Wilbur Cline and, before the witness left the stand, he identified a rain coat, sack coat, trousers and lumberman□s shoes as part of the apparel worn by his son when he bade the home folks goodbye the forenoon previous to this death. It is also declared that Wilbur Cline then had a large sum of money in his possession.
William Felton, of Pitcairn, took the stand to tell how he and his cousins, J. C. and H. C. Wakefield, happened across the body of Wilbur Cline lying in a small thicket while hunting on the Cline farm the afternoon of Nov. 9, 1907. After notifying the elder Mr. Cline and his sons, Mr. Felton went to Bolivar and secured Undertaker J. L. Vann. Mr. Felton was at the Harry Cline home when the remains were carried to the house, some 600 yards from where they were found. He remained while the body was prepared for burial, and described at length the wounds on the deceased. Wilbur Cline had received several charges of buckshot in this back, the shot extending from head to feet. A scalp wound was noticed on the back of the head an a contusion was noted on the forehead. A revolver bullet had entered his left eye and had passed out the right ear. Loose shot were found in Cline□s heavy shoes and small leaden pellets dropped from the clothes when they were removed. Although the Cline farm was □posted□ against hunter, the Wakefield boys had shot a rabbit before they met the senior Mr. Cline. The witness had found several of the four empty shells that are supposed to have held the shot sent into Cline□s body.
George Cline, a younger brother of the deceased, was heard this morning, after his father had been recalled to answer a few questions. George told many things related by his father and introduced a few new incidents connected to the case. One of these related to a strange rabbit dog he and his mother had noticed the day Wilbur Cline left home. This dog belongs to a Mr. West of Garfield and will figure in the trial.
Much of the testimony given by Mr. Felton was repeated by Undertaker J. L. Vann who had charge of the burial. He also related his part in the examination Fr. Gates made of the body two months after burial. The remains were exhumed and Dr. Gates, assisted by Detective Miller, traced the course of the bullet wound in the head and made a study of the blows on the skull. This post-mortem was conducted in a summer kitchen on the Lichenfels farm.
It is the opinion of Coroner W. D. Gates, as the result of this examination, that the blow on the head was received first and that the pistol shot followed while Cline was on the ground. Marks on the right hand of the deceased indicate that he had struggled valiantly for his life. Powder marks on the body show that the weapon was discharged at short range.

To the belief of Dr. Gates the blow on the head was inflicted with some blunt instrument, such as the butt of a gun or a very smooth stone. He said the revolver used was probably of .32 caliber.
Interest was a fever heat in the Betts murder trial this afternoon when, in the presence of a crowd that filled practically every available nook in the court room, Robert Betts took the stand to relate particulars concerning the shot gun Emanuel Betts borrowed from him bur failed to return. Robert Betts is but a year or so older than the defendant and is of a retiring disposition.
The shot gun episode related by Robert Betts started with his meeting Emanuel several days before Nov. 4 and granting him permission to use his gun. The weapon was secured by Emanuel but was never returned, the latter saying he had left it at the pump house with Jesse Betts, another brother.
In the interim between the death of Wilbur Cline and the finding of his body, Nov. 9, Robert grew impatient over the delay in securing the gun.
He therefore went to the water station, but although he looked in the place designated, could not find the gun. Later Emanuel said he had fallen while out hunting and had broken the gun. He also said the pieced were no longer of any use.
Following this Robert one day met Emanuel in Garfield and was told by him that he would give him a revolver to replace the weapon lost. A .32 caliber revolver was secured at the Betts family home and was turned over to Robert. The pistol was shown by Attorney Feit and was partially identified.

BETTS CASE IS AT CRITICAL POINT.
Detective Miller Testified Regarding Prisoner□s Contradictory Statements.
ATTORNEYS QUITE ACTIVE
Exceptions Follow Objections and the Court Reporter□s Task is Increased
MRS. MACK SAW ENCOUNTER
After proving a crime on Friday, the prosecution today, in the case against Emanuel Betts produced a witness to show that young Betts did not give a clear account of his travels on Nov. 4 and that he is implicated in the death of Wilbur Cline. That he alone committed the act has not yet been stated by the commonwealth, but the full extent of their case is yet to be shown.
T. N. Miller, a field operator for the Perkins Detective Agency, of Pittsburg, is the party who testified regarding Betts□ alleged connection with death of the former Bolivar lumberman. Detective Miller was engaged by the Cline family on Nov. 16 and on Dec. 8 he assisted in the arrest of Betts.
Previous to that he had visited the Cline farms several times and had found shells, stones and the □four end iron piece□ from a Remington gun. All these exhibits were admitted after much parleying and figure in the case.
When Betts was arrested on Dec. 8 he was taken to the Bolivar station and kept in that vicinity for some hours. In the presence of Detective Miller, Detective Neal, and Officer Stiffler he is said to have told the first of a series of contradictory stories relating to his movements on Nov. 4.
One of these was that the prisoner spent the forenoon at the pump house with Jesse and that they played checkers. The second version was that Emanuel had been hunting on the day in question and that wile chasing a rabbit he fell on a stone. He received several bruises on his chest and hands that were attended by a physician. During this expedition Emanuel broke his gun. He changed this story by saying he had been hunting on Wednesday, Nov. 6.
The third story was secured two days after the prisoner was placed in jail here. Detectives Miller and White, of the Perkins Agency, and Detective Neal, were present. It was alleged by the defendant□s counsel that Miller had asked Sheriff Wettling to keep others away from Betts and not offer him counsel, thus securing this latest information under duress. After plenty of argument by both sides Miller was allowed to tell what was learned.
Upon this occasion Betts said he had hunted in the vicinity of Muir□s saw mil the forenoon of Nov. 4.

Detective Miller□s story was not altered in the least during the three hours Attorney Banks quizzed him. Many of the witnesses returned home this evening and will return for a forenoon session Monday.
Detective Neal with another Betts confession will then be the star witness.
Mrs. John H. Cline, the mother of Wilbur Cline, was the last witness heard Friday afternoon. Although still bearing signs of the suffering she experienced, Mrs. Cline readily answered the questions propounded by Attorney Samuel Cunningham. Her testimony related principally to the departure of Wilbur Cline on the morning of Nov. 4. She said that at that time her son had a roll of money as he had shown it when he gave here some money that day.
Mrs. Cline was given a brief cross examination when court opened this morning.
That Cline and his assailant struggled before the dead man lost the unequal battle was shown through testimony of Mrs. J. B. Mack, who lives about one-half mile from the Harry Cline home. Shortly after 10 o□clock on the forenoon of Nov. 4, she was in her front yard when she heard several rounds that seemed to come from the discharge of a shot gun. She heard four of these shots and upon looking in the direction of the sounds, saw two men.
They were about 2,200 feet from her home, but she could follow their movements because they were on higher ground. Later one man seemed to stoop over and the other hit him with a club and then threw three stones toward him. Mrs. Mack heard a number of moans at that time. The witness then re-entered her house and when she re-appeared outside a few minutes later she heard a pistol shot. That noon Mrs. Mack told her husband of hearing the shots and seeing the quarrel, but no investigation was made as the Macks though the parties engaged in the fight were strange hunters. Mrs. Mack is distant relative of the Clines.
Mrs. West, of Garfield, was heard. She formerly owned the white rabbit dog with black spots that is said to have been borrowed by Harry Betts, brother of the defendant, at 6 o□clock on the morning of Nov. 4, 1907. Witnesses □Knew it was one of the Betts boys when she received this early caller and was told later it was Harry Betts who borrowed the fog.□ The canine wandered home late the same afternoon. Mrs. West said Harry Betts worked at the McGraw home that day.
Asked how she fixed the date, witness said two of her children had been vaccinated on Nov. 4 and she presented a certificate from Dr. Alexander to better prove the date.
J. C. and H. C. Wakefield, cousins of William Felton, told of their hunting expedition on Nov. 9 and of the finding of Wilbur Cline□s body. Much of their testimony had already been given by Mr. Felton.
One of the first persons to reach the scene after the finding of Cline□s body was John F. St. Clair. He related incidents connected with the taking of Cline□s remains to Harry Cline□s house. Mr. St. Clair described at length the wounds received by Cline, his evidence corroborating testimony given by Coroner Gates and others.
J. A. Walbeck, one of the well-known Walbeck twins and a distant relative of the Clines, was summoned to Harry Cline□s home the evening of Nov. 9. After the clothes were removed from the deceased, Walbeck instituted a search. He found a small package of tobacco. Several pockets were turned inside out.
County Surveyor D. L. Moorhead identified the map he had made of the Cline land and the scene of the murder.
J. B. McCartney, a Bolivar barber, stated that he had shaved Wilbur Cline the day previous to his disappearance and that at that time the deceased appeared to have plenty of money.

Plea of Self-Defense for Betts; Commonwealth Closed at Noon
Defense Claims the Accused After He Was Attacked by Cline, Who Had Ordered Him from the Place
In the opening address to the jury this afternoon, Attorney William Banks, of counsel for Emanuel Betts, stated that his client has killed Wilbur Cline, but the tragedy had been committed in self defense. Mr. Banks spent a half hour in explaining the testimony the defense would introduce. The crowd is larger than at any time since the trial started.

The defense hopes to show that Betts was hunting on the Cline farm on Nov. 4 and that he was ordered off by Wilbur Cline; that because Betts would not go readily Cline calling him some vile names: that Cline pursued Betts and then threw stones at him; that Betts discharged his shot gun; that other stones were hurled; that Betts again shot Cline; that Betts a mere boy was defending himself from a powerful man when Cline received the wounds that caused his death, and there was no robbery as Cline had but a few dollars.
Preliminary testimony was introduced to show that Harry Betts was not with Emanuel on Nov. 4. Conductor James L. Horton, of Derry, stated that Harry worked for him that day. Timekeeper E. H. Cassidy, of Pittsburg, identified reports showing that Betts was on the road Nov. 4.
Harry Betts appeared and said that it was Oct. 25 when he borrowed the West dogs and that on Nov. 4 he was in Derry, taking his breakfast that morning with John Betts, another brother.
Emanuel Betts took the witness stand on his own behalf about three o□clock. In direct examination he admitted the killing of Cline, claiming it was done in self-defense. He denied that he had robbed the body of his victim. He is still on the stand as this report closes.

Stories related by Betts figured largely in the testimony presented by the Commonwealth this morning. The accused showed that he laid many pitfalls for himself by his freedom of speech, as four witnesses appeared who told of damaging statements they had heard Betts utter.
Constable Findley Barr, of town, had a brief conversation with Betts early in January, that was introduced. Here is the way Barr repeated the conversation.
Mr. Barr said, □What are you in for, young man?□
For the killing of Cline,□ said Emanuel Betts.
□You didn□t do that, did you?□ asked Barr.
□Yes, I did: I had to□□ was the reply.
□He would have killed me had I not shot him□ said Betts.
□Did you use the shot gun or revolver first?□ inquired Barr.
□With the shot gun□ said Betts.
Asked whether any others were present at the time, Betts said no one was □near or handy.□ Barr stuck to his story on cross examination.
John Williams, a young man from Smith Station, made six visits to Indiana for the purpose of interviewing Betts and then secured interviews with the accused. He said that Betts at one time had said he had killed Cline and that he secured $4,300. At another time Betts stated that $2,200 was the amount taken from Cline□s pockets.
According to Williams, Betts had given a part of this money to his sister living in Johnstown, had handed $1,500 over to his mother, and had presented his brother, Jesse, with a portion. Young Betts had also taken a Bolivar to Johnstown and they had spent money rather freely there.
The watch found on Cline□s person was sold for $8, according to Williams. During one his six visits Williams was asked by Betts to bring a saw and a revolver with him on his next trip. Williams replied that Sheriff Wettling would not allow.
County Detective Josiah Neal testified regarding another Betts confession. His story is similar to that given by Barr.
Charles W. Hammond, of Bolivar, and Detective John Williams, both of whom worked under Detective Miller, told of articles found at the scene of the murder. Hammond also presented the revolver he had secured at the residence of Robert Betts. This is the weapon Emanuel gave Robert after he broke the shotgun.
The commonwealth closed it case a few minutes previous to the noon hour today when Robert Boyle and Amos Bossinger were called. These men work on the Conemaugh Division and were employed in the vicinity of the pump house, below Garfield, on Nov. 4 and Nov. 16.
Shortly after 1 o□clock on the afternoon of the first named day they saw Jesse and Emanuel Betts walking on the opposite track. Emanuel was showing Jesse some money and was fingering a few bills. On Nov. 16 the witnesses saw the Betts brothers again, and upon this occasion, Emanuel carried a shot gun that seemed to be wrapped with a shoe lace.

Mr. Boyle also learned that early in November Jesse Betts made a trip to Pittsburg. This was one or two days after he had seen the brothers with the money.

From Indiana Evening Gazette, Indiana Pennsylvania (March 21, 1908)

Emanuel Betts, on Trial for His Life, Relates His Version of the Fatal Quarrel with Wilbur Cline

STATE STRONG IN REBUTTAL.

Endeavored to Show that the Murdered Man was Incapable of Throwing Stones Because of Physical Infirmities, Arguments by the attorneys this afternoon and Judge Telford□s charge will bring the Betts murder trial to a close by night.

The twelve jurors, who have been on duty since Thursday afternoon, will hardly complete their work before tomorrow.

As the Commonwealth closed its taking of testimony in rebuttal at noon, the opening hours this afternoon were devoted to addresses by counsel.

James W. Mack discussed the points of law as they should apply to Betts□ case and Samuel Cunningham reviewed the statutes for the Cline side.

Former District Attorney George J. Feit spent an hour in delivering an able review of the case the Commonwealth had woven around Betts.

William Banks spoke on Betts□ behalf, his contention being that the accused acted in self defense and that he had not robbed Cline.

Messrs. Mack and Cunningham will also further address the jury before the Court□s charge is delivered.

Following the testimony of Jesse Betts the defense rested at 10 o□clock this morning. As the defendant, Jesse and his mother, had related incidents to show that Emanuel was injured in his encounter with Cline, thus endeavoring to establish the self defense theory, the Commonwealth on rebuttal started out to explode this testimony.

It was shown that some eight years ago Wilbur Cline was injured in a sawmill accident and that he had since been slightly muscle-bound in the right fore-arm. Three months previous to the death of Wilbur Cline he was burned on the right hand and some weeks later and the forefinger on his hand amputated. This wound was almost healed at the time of his death. Cline was a right handed man and, it was claimed, was not able to pick up small object or throw a stone more than a few feet.

Those heard regarding Cline□s injured hand are, John H. Cline, Harry Cline, George Cline, J. A. Walbeck, and Dr. Updegraff.

Squire James McHail, of Bolivar, was heard and was asked to identify statements made by Jesse Betts in which alleged contradictions regarding Emanuel□s hurts were set forth in writing.

Miss Annie Vogel and County Detective Josiah Neal, of town, and Perkins Detective W. J. White, of Pittsburg, were the last witnesses called. They spoke concerning confessions made by Betts. This closed the testimony.

Several members of the Betts family testified today. Mrs. Carolyn Betts, mother of the defendant, who was called Monday afternoon, stated that shortly after Nov. 4 she gave Emanuel some salve to apply locally to bruises he received while out hunting.

Jesse Betts told that Emanuel had described his bruises to him at length and that he had dressed them. This was not until after Cline□s body had been found. Jesse told the assembly that Emanuel had informed him that the broken gun had been thrown in the river. John Betts, of Derry, another brother, stated that on Nov. 4 Harry Betts was at his home.

The only other testimony introduced by the defense was that Emanuel Betts had borrowed a hunting dog from Russell McLain, who testified to that effect.

Emanuel Betts was on the stand three hours during Monday afternoon. He confessed practically everything shown by the prosecution, either stating that the testimony against him had been correct or that he was so confused when visited by detectives and others that he could not remember what he said. The only witness he flatly contradicted was John Williams, who □sprung□ the $4,300 story.

Betts□ voice was weak in direct examination and Attorney James W. Mack had (unreadable) the boy to express himself. When Attorney Samuel Cunningham took up the cross examination, the defendant deliberated before making his answers and usually said he did not remember the full details of any special incident when asked to make matters plain.
Despite a number or questions propounded by the opposing counsel, Betts did not at any time tell where he had secreted the broken shot gun that is said to have been used over Cline□s head. Betts said any injuries on Cline□s head came from the deceased being kicked when they were fighting. Another denial made by Betts was that he had ever tried to purchase a Remington gun in order to replace the one borrowed from his brother, Robert.
In brief Betts□ story is as follows:
Last month the defendant was nineteen years old. On Nov. 4 he took Robert□s shot gun and his revolver and went to the pump house. Leaving there at 7:30 a. m. Betts hunted through the Jenkins, Henderson, and other fields and finally reached Harry Cline□s. After being there 15 minutes, he saw Wilbur Cline on the road.
The accused knew the deceased by sight, but did not speak to him as he was in the field and probably 100 feet distance from Cline. Wilbur Cline said □Get off this land you --- (here Betts repeated the vile name is said to have uttered). Or I will kill you.□ The defendant stated that his reply was, □I□ll get off.□
Cline picked up three or four stones, each about as large as a tennis ball, and began throwing them at Betts. One missile hit Betts on the neck. Betts then drew his shot gun and shot at Cline□s feet, Cline turning his side and throwing his arm in front of his face in order to shield it.
More swearing by Cline, some additional stone throwing and another shot from Betts followed. This time young Betts also aimed at Cline□s feet.
Cline had gained on Betts by this time and the defendant was making for the top of the hill. Cline again threw a stone and it struck Betts on the back. For the third time Betts turned and shot at Cline, this time aiming at his hips. Cline was still able to run and Betts turned again, but the gun would not go off and Cline caught up to Betts.
Although Cline had received at least three charges of buckshot in his back, according to Betts, he was able to fight and pulled the gun from the latter□s hands. While they were tussling for the weapon, both went down, Cline securing the gun. Cline struck at Betts with the gun, but hit the ground instead, breaking it at the breech. Owing to numerous wounds, Cline was not able to pursue him, but he still had sufficient strength to rise. While Cline was standing below him Betts fired the revolver in Cline□s face. Cline then fell to the road and Betts hurried away.
He went to the pump house and spent an hour with Jesse. Shortly after the noon hour the brothers started to Garfield. On the railroad Jesse asked Emanuel for a loan, saying he was intending going to Pittsburg. Emanuel was showing his money, about $15 that remained from October pay as a brakeman on the Conemaugh Division, when they passed Boyle and Bossinger. Seeing that Emanuel□s funds were not large, Jesse did not negotiate the loan.
For two days following the encounter with Cline, Emanuel remained at his home. He never told any of his people that he had killed a man and he did not explain why he desired some ointment for his bruises. He never at any time explained the disappearance of the gun, and did not make any confession whatever until after the preliminary hearing at Crossman□s the last week of December. Betts also said he had not searched Cline□s pockets and knew nothing concerning his watch and money.

GENERAL PUBLIC EXCITEMENT
Wide-Spread Discussion of the Finding of the Jurors --- No New Trial is Anticipated
□Guilty of murder in the second degree,□ was the verdict of the jury in the Betts murder trial. The jury went out at 9:30 o□clock, last night and returned at 9 o□clock this morning.

The jurors took the first ballot shortly after midnight and the final one at daylight. For six hours two jurors stood out for a first degree verdict.

Betts was overjoyed when he learned the death penalty would not be inflicted and he shook hands with his attorneys and then turned to receive the relatives who were present. The aged father and mother, whose plight had been noted by many and who were greatly pitied, were not present.

Mr. and Mrs., John H. Cline, George and Harry Cline, Mrs. J. H. Mack, William Felton, the Wakefield boys and several others were present. An audience of several score was in attendance.

Betts□ punishment for the killing of Wilbur Cline may be twenty years in the penitentiary, that being the maximum penalty.

Discussion of the verdict was heard in all quarters about town today. Those who argue that the jury should have found Betts guilty of murder in the first degree, and they are many, believe there was a robbery and that Betts was the aggressor in the fight. Others, however, claim that robbery was not proved and that the commonwealth did not show that the shooting was premeditated. These persons state that the only possible verdict would be the one returned.

In round figures the Cline case has already cost over $2,000. The 35 witnesses presented by the commonwealth were here from five to seven days and received $744 from the county. The pay of the jurors was $210. Then add to this the salaries of the court officials, district attorney and county detective. The Betts family must meet the expenses of the eight witnesses they provided.

John H. Cline engaged the Perkins Detective N. B. Miller and three assistants for some weeks and expended a large sum in addition to clear up the mystery of his son□s death. The body of Wilbur Cline was found Nov. and Miller was engaged Nov. 14. He worked on the case almost constantly until the arrest of Betts late in December, and made four visits to Indiana after the prisoner was placed in jail.

After the jury was excused today, Judge Telford ordered Court Crier Youngblood to adjourn the court until next Monday afternoon when the Smith cases from Glen Campbell will be heard. The trial of Dimity Dorasehoof, an Ernest foreigner, accused of murder, is postponed until June.

Attorney Samuel Cunningham addressed the jury Tuesday night. He spoke for eighty minutes and his excellent review of the case against young Betts was heard by a large and attentive audience. He claimed that any boy who could play checkers an hour after he left a person dying in a field could commit deliberate murder.

In the mind of Mr. Cunningham, the fact that Cline was literally filled with buckshot, was shot in the head with a pistol and had received a fractured skull, showed that he was murdered for a purpose. That motive, said Mr. Cunningham, was robbery, as the deceased had on his person when he met death a roll of money and a watch that were not found.

The charge delivered by Judge Telford lasted an hour. He reviewed the testimony at length and stated that it was for the jury to decide where contradictions occurred. He stated that the burden of proof rested on the commonwealth.

It was his opinion that the motive should be ascertained by the jury and that if all reasonable doubts were cleared away and a willful murder had been committed, the defendant was guilty of murder in the first degree.

The Court outlined the law regarding the rights of a man to act in self-defense saying that when a person was in danger of losing his own life and had tried every possible means of escape, the defendant has a right to check the aggressor. Under these circumstances the defendant should be acquitted. The grade of crime recognized as second degree and the statutes recognizing man-slaughter were also outlined.

Jesse Betts told a Gazette reporter that he was taking treatment for trouble in his nose from a Pittsburg specialist during November and December and that he visited the doctor on Nov. 5, the day brought out by the prosecution the he spent in Pittsburg.

She died on Jul 22, 1893 in Nineveh, Indiana County, Pennsylvania[51-52]. She married Thomas Dillon Dias, son of James D. Dias and Mary Anne Foust, on Sep 03, 1869[2, 7]. He was born on Dec 25, 1846 in Brush Valley, Indiana County, Pennsylvania[51]. He died on Dec 31, 1931 in Seward, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania[2].

Notes for Thomas Dillon Dias:
[Janice Dias]

At a young age he and a friend started off to Pittsburgh to enlist, but his father either got word or was suspicious and showed up before they could join. A few months later, in 1863, he slipped off again to Greenburg and enlisted when not quite seventeen. He got into the thick of the fight very soon; first as a guard at Washington, where he saw President Lincoln every day going to the hospitals for his regular visits.

Under the command of Col. Dick Coulter, he was ordered to take care of the Weldon Railroad. This command was part of the big effort to take Richmond. He was in the four day battle of the Wilderness and later Spotsyvania and Cold Harbor. He was shot through both legs, but not with the same bullet or at the same time, he attempted to crawl out of harm's way and was shot in the other leg.

He was a large man, more than six feet tall and built in proportion, and over the years he had sympathy and good-will to men.

Operated a boarding house for McMinnie & Simms when they built the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad from Pittsburgh to Altoona. Also ran the Central Hotel at Seward, PA.

According to his military pension file, marriage of Thomas & Edith didn't last, even though they did not divorce. It appears as though Edith brought with her a son from her previous marriage to live with her & Thomas. Thomas apparently considered him to be a deadbeat who did not want to work and maybe threw him out. Edith got mad and moved out, then filed a claim with the government for half of his military pension on the grounds that he abandoned her. She lost.

Thomas was in car wreck and had a heart attack and then pneumonia at son's home in Seward while recuperating. This led to his death.

From 'Last Johnstown Flood Survivor Dies at 108, Indiana Gazette March 21, 1997, by Randy Wells, Gazette Staff Writer

Frank Shomo, the Indiana County man who made it into the record books as the last survivor of the Johnstown [Cambria County] Flood of 1889, died Thursday [March 20, 1997] at Blattenberger□s Personal Care Home in Black Lick.

He was 108 years old. In recent years Shomo had also been recognized as the oldest registered Republican in Indiana County, the oldest member of Zion Lutheran (now Faith Lutheran) Church in Robinson, and one of the oldest Master Masons in Pennsylvania.

Asked several years ago for the secret of his longevity, he replied, 'Put good cement in the foundation, tend to your own business, and treat others right.'

Shomo was three months old on May 31, 1889 - the night the South Fork Dam on the Little Conemaugh River broke, sending a wall of water crashing into neighborhoods downstream, killing more than 2,200 people.

The Shomo family home along the former Main Line Canal in Lockport, Westmoreland County, was on ground high enough to escape the flood, and Shomp□s father often recounted for his son the terror of that night, and how their home became a haven for flood survivors.

Shomo once said his father kidded him and his brother about dipping their feet in the water, so they could say they survived the flood.

The family later moved to Pack Saddle, between Blairsville and Robinson, and at age 14 Shomo went to work at the James Gardner Brick Retort Works in Blairsville, making retorts that converted coal into gas. He also worked 45 years for the Pennsylvania Railroad, 38 years as a foreman. I had the best gang of men on the railroad,: he once said.

He helped repair rail lines following Johnstown□s second great flood in 1936. That storm washed the earth away from underneath the tracks, leaving them suspended in air like a big clothes line, he said.

At age 70 he took up a new hobby -- leather-working. In his workshop on the enclosed porch of his home he fashioned leather purses and wallets.

God has been good to me, he said in an interview a few years ago. Twice I□ve been bitten by a snake, and once I was in a coal mine where the whole roof caved in.

Shomo never owned a car, and at age 100 was still keeping in shape by riding an excercise bike in his home each day.

'I□ve ridden 700 miles and never left this room', he said.

Last year he was recognized as the oldest registered Republican voter in Indiana County, but said Democrat Woodrow Wilson was his favorite president. Woodrow Wilson did a lot for the working man, Shomo said.

On his 104th birthday, he was asked if he felt that old, and Shomo jokingly replied, 'No, 200.'

His explanation then for his long life: I eat solid grub. That means lots of pot pies and cabbage and potatoes.

Shomo lived longer than his two wives and a daughter. He died Thursday without learning more details about his only son, Curtis, who mysteriously disappeared after World War II.

'He used to keep me posted by sending me a card from different cities.' Shomo said in 1993. 'But I haven□t heard from him in quite some time. I□ve tried everything (to find him.)'

Blairsville Dispatch (November 5, 2003)

SEWARD--Russell "Jake" Lichtenfels, 86, of East Wheatfield Township and Melvin Shearer, 80, of New Florence consider themselves lucky men.

They're still alive to mark Veterans' Day next Thursday. But for the chance assignment to a particular mission or the unpredictable outcome of exchanged weapons fire, these World War II Army veterans might have joined comrades who fell on the battlefields of western Europe and the South Pacific 60 years ago.

Shearer, a native of Seward, was drafted into the Army in September 1943 and was sent to the war's Pacific Theater.

There, in January 1945, he joined 120 fellow Army Rangers in a daring raid behind Japanese lines in the Philippines. They liberated 513 American and British prisoners of war, including survivors of the Bataan Death March three years earlier.

Good planning and the assistance of Filipino guerrillas helped Shearer's 6th Ranger Battalion surprise the Japanese at Camp Cabanatuan, about 60 miles inland from Manila.

But Shearer feels good fortune also came into play: "We were glad that we only lost two men; we could've all been wiped out....We lucked out."

There were far fewer happy endings among fellow Rangers who drew a different assignment, he noted. "They sent some of them to Italy, where they got wiped out."

Lichtenfels, who grew up in Robinson, witnessed such decimation all around him. His 110th Infantry, 28th Division suffered heavy casualties during the Normandy invasion and subsequent drive into Germany during the latter half of 1945.

"We came out of Normandy with one officer left out of seven," Lichtenfels said. Contributing to that toll was a quick succession of a dozen or more commanders for his Co. L, in which many local men served.

"The turnover was so great because of the casualties," Lichtenfels said. "We got new men every day" to fill the gaps.

After Germany's final counter-offensive, the Battle of the Bulge, the company had been reduced from 185 men to just 24. Whether through the work of a guardian angel or simple fate, Lichtenfels was the sole survivor of the original contingent which had landed at Normandy.

Lichtenfels originally joined the Blairsville National Guard unit early in 1941, before the United States entered World War II.

When the unit was activated, he said, "We were going to put in a year's service and then be discharged. But then Pearl Harbor broke out and that changed."

A sergeant, Lichtenfels was not among the first waves of troops which made the initial landing at Normandy on June 6, 1944. His division followed about six days later.

He explained his unit had been held in reserve because of the training it had completed in amphibious operations: "If the initial beachhead failed, then we were to go in."

Witness to the success of the hard-fought nding were the swollen, blackened bodies of German casualties Lichtenfels encountered.

Once on land, he turned his attention to his primary role: directly supervising the transport of food and material.

"My job was to see that ammunition and supplies were delivered to the front," he explained, adding, "We did all the motorized patrols. It was a risky job."

Lichtenfels selected drivers for his small convoy of two jeeps, a kitchen truck and trailer.

He noted, "You always buddied up with somebody who would lay their life on the line for you."

During trips to the front, he manned a machine gun mounted on the back of one of the jeeps.

The worst point in the war for Lichtenfels came in November 1944, when they were pitted against the Germans in the Hurtgen Forest, southwest of Cologne.

Overall action in that region resulted in 33,000 American casualties over two months, as a series of divisions were decimated in the difficult terrain.

"I spent 15 days in the Hurtgen Forest, and that was enough," Lichtenfels said. "It was more of a trap than anything."

While his company established a forward communications center at a former resort at the bottom of a valley, Lichtenfels noted U.S. troops were hampered by muddy ground and were harassed by Germans on surrounding hills.

"There were acres of evergreens on two sides of the hill," he said.

At least once each day, Lichtenfels directed his convoy down the valley to supply the communications center.

"It was two miles down over the hill," he recalled of the muddy terrain. "It was surely a mess. You had to have chains on the tires; you'd get down in and then you couldn't get out.

"I'd go down in there every night, and I held my breath and prayed."

Military officials tried other measures besides chains to tackle the mucky ground.

Lichtenfels recalled, "They brought in a 'weasel,' a miniature tank with tracks on it."

Luckily for Lichtenfels, he was not chosen to take part in the weasel's initial trip down.

He said, "That first night, the Germans shot it up and captured the (driver). A mess sergeant who was with him made a break for it."

Lichtenfels argues that it was a mistake for Allied military planners to advance into the Hurtgen Forest: "They should have bypassed it."

That's a sentiment many modern historians share, including Cecil B. Currey, a professor of military history, who penned a book about the Hurtgen Forest. Titled Follow Me And Die: The Destruction of an American Division, two copies of the book were given to Lichtenfels by a friend and former comrade, in Co. L, William Short of Hillside.

After surviving Hurtgen Forest, Lichtenfels tempted fate when he agreed to ignore orders to return stateside.

Said Lichtenfels, "When orders came for me to go home, the company commander, Stanley Jones, told me two brothers had come into our outfit, George and Sherman Tuck from Tennessee, but the oldest one got killed in Normandy.

"He said, 'How about sending the other boy home? It's up to you.' "

"I said, 'Send him home in my place.' "

The hazards for Lichtenfels and his fellow soldiers came in many forms.

While camped in a Wales woods, preparing for D-Day, they could see German bombs being dropped on an airport a few miles away--actually a dummy installation meant to draw enemy fire from real targets. "It looked like the Fourth of July," Lichtenfels recalled of the fire-bombing.

But that was nothing compared to the V-1 buzz bombs, which the Germans lobbed at civilians in England.

Lichtenfels' unit happened upon a launch site for the bombs near a German camp at Elsenborn, Belgium.

He said, "We saw them fire off the V-1 rockets, and we fired on them with our 50 mm guns. When one of them was hit, it exploded and the trees were all torn off for an acre around it."

According to Lichtenfels, such attacks on the rockets were called off for fear an explosion could wipe out Allied troops in the area.

Mortar fire was another frequent hazard for the G.I.s. as they advanced into enemy territory.

In the wee hours of the morning, under the cover of darkness, Lichtenfels made a convoy run to bring supplies to soldiers facing the Siegfried Line: a thick band of concrete tank barriers on Germany's western front.

Lines of pillboxes were the first German structures to be seized, providing the American soldiers some welcome shelter as they continued efforts to break through.

"We kept within a couple hundred yards of the front continually," Lichtenfels said of that supply detail.

"The mess sergeant would walk ahead of me with a piece of white cloth on his back so I could see where to drive" through the darkness, he explained.

But once, both the sergeant and Lichtenfels missed spotting a large hole left by a mortar explosion--and Lichtenfels' jeep slid right into the pit. "It was almost standing up on end," he said.

Risking being mistaken and shot as an enemy scout, the mess sergeant crept over to an American tank and asked for "a little pull out" from the shell hole.

On another occasion, in Normandy, a mortar landed near a neighboring soldier's fox hole, just yards away from Lichtenfels.

The concussion knocked Lichtenfels out. He noted, "The medics had come in and picked up the other guy before I came to."

Enemy mines presented another constant danger.

According to Lichtenfels, the infantry troops were accompanied by an engineer unit, which used a mine sweeper to check for the booby traps.

But, he noted, "They made plastic mines that you couldn't find with a metal detector"and "small mines that would blow up with trip wires. That's the chance you took."

He recalled a graphic example of the force the hidden devices could unleash: "A jeep ran over a mine, and it blew it up on top of a big tree."

Fate intervened to keep Lichtenfels from being captured in the Battle of the Bulge.

He noted gis unit had taken shelter in local farmhouses in the border town of Consthum, Luxembourg, where the residents were sympathetic to the Allied cause.

Said Lichtenfels, "The civilians were friendly. They didn't want the war; it was destroying them."

But, "They told us the Germans would be back for Christmas, and they were."

At one old house being used as a forward outpost, Lichtenfels said, "You could look across the Our River and see the Germans." For a while there was an unspoken agreement between the combatants: "Don't fire on us and we won't fire on you."

But they heard ominous sounds of moving tanks on the other side of the river.

On a fateful December morning, Lichtenfels said, "It was my turn to take a patrol out to the outpost but we were having hotcakes for breakfast.

"My driver, Joel Olson from Illinois, said, 'Eat your breakfast, I'll take the patrol out.' "

But Olson and his men soon found themselves trapped in the outpost, surrounded by Germans.

Lichtenfels learned of the details after the war, when he received a letter from Olson: "They held out for three days, and then the Germans burned the house down to get them out and take them prisoner. They marched them to Poland and the coal mines."

Two miles away, Lichtenfels and the rest of the unit began to retreat.

"We never got an official order, but our company commander said, 'It's everyone for himself,' " while firing at a tank with a bazooka.

"All we had was infantry guns and the Germans had tanks and all kinds of equipment," Lichtenfels said. "We pulled back about five miles, but (not) orderly."

Stragglers met at an old schoolhouse.

Luckily, after an initial aerial attack on the structure, Lichtenfels said, "We were down over a bank lying in a ditch" when German jets returned to bomb it more thoroughly.

"That was the first time I'd seen a German jet plane," he said.

After a much-deserved break the battered division in the spring of 1945 was assigned their last major action in the war: clearing an area of German resistance known as the Colmar Pocket. It bulged 30 miles into the Alsace region of France.

There Lichtenfels had a surprising encounter with some unusual allies: the Goums.

Hailing from Morocco, these turban-topped troops were a strange mix of the 20th century and tribal custom.

When they captured a town, they appropriated chickens, pigs and goats to feed their men.

He also was taken aback when he realized what at first appeared to be figs hanging on their tanks were actually the ears of conquered Germans.

In sharp contrast, he added, "I met one of their commanders, and he had graduated from Harvard ."

While serving in Europe, Lichtenfels noted, the American soldiers didn't fare too badly when it came to food and refreshment.

Army rations went down easier with a swig of schnapps prepared from local potatoes.

What many troops lacked were proper uniforms during the winter of 1944-45.

"When they sent replacement troops up to us, they didn't even have overcoats."

With foresight, in September, Lichtenfels had sent home asking for felt shoes.

Then, when snow packs (winter boots with leather bottoms and rubber tops) were issued, and size 10 was the smallest available, Lichtenfels discovered the felt shoes fit perfectly, providing extra insulation and padding inside the oversized boots.

Lichtenfels mementos from the war include a bronze star for valor.

He also received two minor shrapnel wounds--scratches, he terms them. "It looked like a million razor blades all glued together," he said, describing the shrapnel.

"I got a first aid man to put a Band-Aid on it," he said. "If you were sent back for treatment, you would never get sent to the same company again, so I just ignored it."

Fortunately, "It was a clean cut and it healed right up."

Shearer's wound, from friendly fire, ended his war in February 1945.

While still in the Philippines, he said, "Me and another guy were coming off guard duty and his gun went off and hit me in the right knee."

Shearer was shipped back to an Army hospital and was discharged in September 1945.

For years, he could hardly bend the knee and it caused him chronic pain. Finally he had the knee replaced about a decade ago.

Another aftereffect of his participation in the Philippines raid was malaria.

"They gave us these yellow pills, but they didn't stop you from getting the disease, they just kept it dormant."

Back in America, he stopped taking the pills. But, a few years later, the symptoms hit him full force--severe fevers and chills--until he was treated with quinine.

In January 1945, at 20, Shearer was one of the youngest members of the Ranger unit which won acclaim with its liberation of the POWs at Cabanatuan.

The inspiring episode has been documented in at least three books: Hour of Redemption and Raid on Cabanatuan by Forrest Bryant Johnson and Ghost Soldiers by Hampton Sides.

Before they were ready for action, the newly formed 6th Ranger Battalion underwent six months of training in New Guinea.

Shearer recalled, "It was pretty hot and humid. It rained every afternoon.

"We would run two miles before breakfast, take target practice for half a day and then do calisthenics."

It was physically demanding, but, "I was still young then, so it didn't bother me."

Shipments of cookies from his mother provided a touch of home. Shearer said, "I made my mind up I wasn't going to be homesick. I just figured I was going to be away from home for the rest of the war and there was nothing I could do about it."

Departing for the Philippines on Oct. 17, 1944, the Rangers were given the initial task of seizing Dinagat, an island where the Japanese were thought to be manning large coastal guns.

He said, "We found the guns, but there were no Japanese there."

Due to the need for secrecy, Shearer and the other men didn't know the nature of their mission at Cabanatuan when they signed up.

"They asked for volunteers and there was only one man who didn't go because he was sick."

When they finally were informed they were going to attempt a rescue of fellow Americans, Shearer said, "Everyone felt good about it.

"You just hoped that you got it done safely. You didn't know what was in store."

As it turned out, the mission "went off without a hitch. We were really surprised."

Basing their operations in the village of Guimba, "We were behind the Japanese lines for two and a half days," marching about 30 miles to reach the camp.

The Rangers took every precaution in planning their raid. But there was a sense of urgency.

With the occupying Japanese feeling pressured and beginning to withdraw, "We figured they might execute all the prisoners."

The prison was not as heavily manned as it might have been. "The Japanese were going to the mountains to make a stand. We were supposed to make the raid on (Jan. 29), but they put it off one day when a Japanese division passed by."

Shearer, a private first class, said the Rangers took steps to avoid detection.

Each soldier was armed with a rifle, a .45 pistol, hand grenades and a couple of belts of ammunition.

But other metal, including helmets, was left behind. "Something might hit against them and make a sound," Shearer pointed out.

The Rangers approached the camp on foot and, for a time, on their bellies.

"We went across the Pampanga River before dark, wading across." Its flow at a wintertime low, "The water was only up to your knee, but it was really swift."

Then, "We crawled across an open rice field. No one saw us."

The raid was timed to occur during a brief period of nearly impenetrable darkness--after the sun set but before a bright moon rose to illuminate the countryside.

"As soon as it was dusk, we broke the prison camp open," Shearer said.

He estimated it took only about 45 minutes to quell the resistance, round up the prisoners and evacuate them. Then, "As soon as we got back, the moon came out over the mountains and it was bright as day."

The element of surprise and the fact that Filipino guerrillas neutralized a nearby force of Japanese aided the mission.

Japanese soldiers and guards were quickly silenced in pillboxes and towers around the camp.

"We lost two of our guys," one of them hit by a stray bullet.

The other, the unit's surgeon, Captain Jimmy Fisher, "got hit with a mortar at the main gate," and died later, Shearer said.

To clear the way for the mission, a group known as the "Alamo Scouts" had disguised themselves as Filipinos and made use of a nearby observation post.

"A lot of us also had regular Filipino garb on," Shearer said, adding to the confusion of the POWs when the Rangers burst into camp.

Shearer said, "We told them, 'You're free now.' But a lot of them thought it was a Filipino raid," and were reluctant to be liberated. "It was so dark they couldn't tell what we had on anyway."

Some POWs also suffered from night blindness.

"We didn't have any stretchers," Shearer noted. To evacuate the more frail or ill POWs, "We put our fatigue jackets across our rifles and carried them."

Once the freed prisoners were back over the river, Filipinos loaded many of them aboard carts drawn by carabao, water buffalo. "You could get about six people in each cart," Shearer said.

Once the rescue was completed, it took a while for the mission to sink in.

"We didn't realize until a few days later how many we got out," Shearer said.

One soldier who was deaf and in the latrine, suffering from an intestinal malady, didn't realize the rescue was under way. He later made it out on his own.

Back at headquarters, the POWs mingled with their liberators and pose for photos. Shearer posed with a fellow Pennsylvanian--Leon Tice Jr. from Ogdenburg.

"Tice wrote a letter to my mother one time, but that was the last I heard of him," he said.

Lichtenfels has lost track of other members from his unit and is hoping to hear from them at 814-446-5801.

He was a husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, great-great-grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. His greatest joy was a meal or party with all his family and friends present. For his 80th birthday his family and friends held a surprise party for him. Family and friends attended from all over the country and this day was a celebration of his life. He is survived by his wife, Helen Lichtenfels, whom he married July 30, 1987; mother-in-law, Margaret Thurston; daughters, Linda Lydic, and husband, Roger; Lois Zack, and husband, Ken; Bobbie St. Clair, and husband, Ralph; Betty Cochran, and husband, Randy; and Cindy Gearhard; sons, Neil Lichtenfels, and Jeff Gearhard, and wife, Julie; grandchildren, Sheila Wilson, and husband, Denny; Ken Zack, and wife, Cindy; Dean St. Clair; Tammie Mack; Deanna Wooldridge-Smith; Lisa Wooldridge; Luren, Kelsey and Jacob Gearhard; and Zachary Zilke; great-grandchildren, Jamie Arone, and husband, Tony; Matthew Wilson, and wife, Misty; Mason Zack; Marc Zack; Meghan Mack; Karen Mack; Robert Sawyer; Marissa Smith; and Jacob Smith; great-great-grandson, Jaxson Anthony Arone; and a great-great-granddaughter, Savanna Snow Wilson; and many nieces and nephews of whom he was the last remaining uncle. He was a part of all their lives and they also knew he was there for them. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Bertha Dies Lichtenfels; seven brothers; and four sisters. His family and friends will be celebrating his life again from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at Shoemaker Funeral Home Inc., 49 N. Walnut St., Blairsville.
