[Janice Dias]

Found the marriage in the book of marriages PA. She went by Sally, name spelling was Dias or Dyas

Notes for William Butler:
In 1830, William took a boat load of supplies down the Allegheny, Ohio and Mississippi rivers to New Orleans and was murdered there. His brother James went to look for him three years later and found out about his death.

Mrs. Davis describes William as follows: "William was rather tall, very strong, had shiny black hair and dark sparkling eyes. He was handsome, bright and smart. He was full of jokes and fun, always laughing and making others laugh with his jokes and funny stories. He was generous and kind. He was not a Catholic but a Protestant and attended Protestant services. She had often seen him laugh and have fun with Martha, his brother James' wife." The writer copied these statements at the time Mrs. Davis dictated them. She was the only person the writer ever met and talked with who knew in his youth William Butler's , the writer's father.

William worked for a time with his brother, James, at the Ross Furnace. Early in the year 1815, he married Sally Dias, whose father was Thomas Dias, a soldier in the Revolution, and who's mother was a Dillon, of an old aristocratic family in Ireland.

William Butler lived on part of his father's farm and there his children were born. B y his second marriage, he had two sons and two daughters. William D. Butler, the writer, is the only one of the four children now living.

She died on Nov 01, 1866 in Brush Valley Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania[7].

Notes for Thomas W. Dias Jr.:
[Janice Dias]

Thomas was born on the family farm in Brush Valley, Indiana Co. PA.

Thomas & his father Thomas Sr. were often in debt and borrowed money or bought on credit from Simon Truby at Brush Valley. He did business in Mechanicsburg (Brush Valley) until around 1850 when he seemed to have moved this business dealing to Elliot in Armagh.

He sold his farm to George Washington Dias before his death. He also had a coal mine in 1874. The farm was only a short distance from the Buena Vista iron furnace.

Notes for Moses Dias:
Hello Melissa,

My name is Bob Dias and I am originally from Monongahela, Pennsylvania. I have been researching the Dias family and have some information that might be helpful to you.

Elizabeth Dias was the daughter of Moses Dias and Felicia Beadling. She was born on 1 November (I think 1866, but I am not completely sure) and died on 16 December 1956 in Monongahela. She was married to Hiram Marshall Gregg, Sr. on 11 January 1888. He was born on 17 May 1863 at Shaner, Pennsylvania and died on 26 February 1950 at Dravosburg, PA. They had the following children:

1) Bella May was born about Sept. 1886 and was married to Curtis Miller. This is the line that you seem to have the most information on.

2) Phillis J. Gregg was born about Jan. 1889 and was married to a man named Huemme.

3) Olea Gregg was born about Aug. 1891 and was married to a man named Payne. They lived in Michigan.

4) Hiram Marshall Gregg, Jr. was born on 11 Sept. 1892 at Forward Twp., Allegheny Co. and died on 21 June 1963 at Monongahela. He was married to Bessie McCleary. She was born on 19 Jan 1882 and died 30 Nov. 1960 at Monongahela.

5) Ida May Gregg was born about Jan. 1895 and was married to John Hudspeth.

6) Charles A. Gregg was born about Jan. 1897 and died 16 Oct. 1902.

7) William M. Gregg was born about 1904.

I have some additional information on this family including copies of obituaries and funeral records. I hope that this helps. If you need anything else, please feel free to send me a message at this address.

Notes for Samuel Butler:
William David Butler, the writer of, "The Butler Family IN America" wrote,
After his father's death, Samuel was raised up by his mother's parents and as of 1897 at the age of 79, he was still living. He is a lifelong, practical, prudent, and well-to-do-farmer.

While quite a lad, he entered the employ of Alexander Elliott in a general store at Armagh, then a principal stopping place for the Philadelphia-Pittsburgh stage on the old State turnpike. He remained three years with Elliott and saved all of his earnings. At this time, he joined the State militia with which he was for years connected. With his savings he bought timber land and started saw-mills in a modest way. He prospered in this business and steadily increased his holdings, enlarged his saw-mills and became a leader in the lumber business. As the lands were cleared of their timbers, he engaged in farming and stock raising, all the time in Indiana Co. PA.

In May,1845, Samuel Butler was married to Elizabeth, daughter of George Faulkner (Falcomer) and Catherine Cline. daughter of Henry Cline, who served in the Rangers on the frontier during the Revolution (see PA. archives, Third Series, Vol. 23, pg. 209, 265)

Samuel was a model husband, a kind father, a Christian gentleman and a respected and honorable citizen. He ever displayed, as the grandson of a Revolutionary hero, the deepest interest in the affairs of his state and country. In politics, he was first a Whig and then a Republican and he never hesitated to let his public convictions be known, he however refused to allow his name to be used in connection with candidacy for a political office.

Samuel Butler, after his marriage, joined the Evangelical Lutheran Church, to which his wife already belonged. He was for many years treasurer and deacon in the church at New Florence. He practiced Christianity in his daily life, being ever ready to succor, serve and care for any whom he might find distress.

He passed away full of years and reverential respect, April 29, 1899, and was mourned sincerely and deeply by hundreds of his fellows. His mortal remains repose in the old family burial grounds one mile from where he spent so many generously fruitful years. The funeral was the largest ever seen in the section, people coming from far and near to pay their laast respects to a good citizen, faithful friend and revered patriarch.

According to the 1850 census, Samuel and his family were living in Wheatfield Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for George Washington Dias:
George purchased the family farm from his father. Worked over a hundred acres, raised stock, had two large orchards and a grove of black walnuts. He kept a flock of sheep and sold wool.

He was a Democrat and a great fan to William Jennings Bryan. He saw Bryan at a Chicago Exhibition and talked about it for years. George's youngest son, Allen Bryan was named after him.

George was too young for the Civil War. He would sit on the house steps and seeing his brother, James, and his Brother-in-law Daniel Conrad all dressed up in uniform, and wished he could go. Thomas C. Dias and Underwood, neighbors also went. They were mustered into the Army at Armagh 1866 in the 41st Pennsylvania Volunteers.

George said the school was located across the road from the Dias burial ground, and also that there was grounds set aside by the Dias for a Church. There is also a grave in this area that is marked with a flag on Memorial Day.

Norma Dias Kelly, granddaughter to George, has receipts for notes given for equipment or seed. One year the creditors threatened to take the furniture from the house, and the knives and forks from the table. It is recorded in one ledger of his that the family worked off their tax liability by working on the roads.

George built a house in 1870's that still stands today on the road from Rt. 56 to Dilltown on the hill above the Oneda Mining Co. The whole valley above Buena Vista furnace to the present Oneda operation was once Dias grounds.

Notes for Thomas Dillon Dias:
[Janice Dias]

At a young age he and a friend started off to Pittsburgh to enlist, but his father either got word or was suspicious and showed up before they could join. A few months later, in 1863, he slipped off again to Greenburg and enlisted when not quite seventeen. He got into the thick of the fight very soon; first as a guard at Washington, where he saw President Lincoln every day going to the hospitals for his regular visits.

Under the command of Col. Dick Coulter, he was ordered to take care of the Weldon Railroad. This command was part of the big effort to take Richmond. He was in the four day battle of the Wilderness and later Spotsyvania and Cold Harbor. He was shot through both legs, but not with the same bullet or at the same time, he attempted to crawl out of harm's way and was shot in the other leg.

He was a large man, more than six feet tall and built in proportion, and over the years he had sympathy and good-will to men.

Operated a boarding house for McMinnie & Simms when they built the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad from Pittsburgh to Altoona. Also ran the Central Hotel at Seward, PA.

According to his military pension file, marriage of Thomas & Edith didn't last, even though they did not divorce. It appears as though Edith brought with her a son from her previous marriage to live with her & Thomas. Thomas apparently considered him to be a deadbeat who did not want to work and maybe threw him out. Edith got mad and moved out, then filed a claim with the government for half of his military pension on the grounds that he abandoned her. She lost.

Thomas was in car wreck and had a heart attack and then pneumonia at son's home in Seward while recuperating. This led to his death.

According to the 1870 census, Thomas and his family lived in West Wheatfield Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. He was on the farm of John Barton.

According to the 1880 census, Thomas and his family were living in Brushvalley Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Source: Louisiana: Comprising Sketches of Parishes, Towns, Events, Institutions, and Persons, Arranged in Cyclopedic Form, volume 3, pp. 429-430. Edited by Alcée Fortier, Lit. D. Published in 1914, by Century Historical Association.

Thomas, Albert G., coal dealer and contractor, and one of the promising young business men of New Orleans, is a son of George Washington and Mary Ella (Dias) Thomas, and was born in Pittsburg, June 6, 1881. George W. Thomas was born in Pittsburg, March 21, 1857, and is still living there, a dealer in bituminous coal. He is a son of George Thomas, who was born in Wales and when quite a young man came to America with his father, who settled in the Monongahela valley. George Thomas and his father were both in the coal business, so that G. W. Thomas is the third and A. G. Thomas is the fourth generation of the family to follow this calling. Mary Ella Dias was born near Pittsburg in the Monongahela valley, in 1858. She was the daughter of Joseph and Mary J. (Duncan) Dias. Joseph Dias was a farmer who later engaged in the iron business. The Duncans were farmers. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thomas were the parents of the following children: Charles Fremont, Albert G., Minerva Griffith, Iva Jane and Anna Mary. Albert G. Thomas his father, and grandfather, all sent coal from Pittsburg to New Orleans. George Thomas floated coal down the river on barges before there were any steamers, and sold the coal with the barge. There are some men in New Orleans who made a large amount of money buying barges after they were unloaded some selling for as low a price as $20. A. G. Thomas spent his youth in Pittsburg, where he attended public school until 16 years of age. He then went to the Western University of Pennsylvania, at Pittsburg, and took civil and mechanical engineering, graduating in the civil engineering course with a degree of B. C. E., in 1900. He followed engineering (principally mining engineering) for about 2 years, and then engaged in the coal trade with his father in Pittsburg. In 1904 he was sent to New Orleans to take charge of the operations here and continued this line until 1906, when the business was absorbed by a trust, the Monongahela River Coal Co. In 1907 Mr. Thomas engaged in the coal and dredging business for himself. The dealing in coal consists of buying and selling that product at wholesale, the trade extending throughout the South and Southwest as far as Houston, Tex. Much of this coal comes from Pittsburg by river and some from Kentucky, by both river and rail. There is also a large amount which comes from Alabama and is shipped mostly by rail. The dredging operations consist of contract work for the reclamation of meadow land, and also for channels to make some streams navigable. He now has 5 dredges at work, and has contracts for reclaiming a considerable tract of land on the west bank of the Mississippi south of New Orleans, and also some on Lake Pontchartrain for the New Orleans Land Co.

He was born on Oct 30, 1872[1]. He died on Jun 27, 1928 in Santa Monica, Los Angeles County, California.

Notes for Anna LuLu Diaz:
[Janice Dias]

Anna and Frances moved to Santa Monica, California around 1910 and 1918. Frank became a very prominent doctor there and was also involved in many local business and civic projects. Lula was founding member, and the first president, of the Santa Monica Bay Women's Club. This club is still in existance today and has a very impressive hearquarters in downtown Santa Monica. In addition to his medical practice, Frank Wagner was involved in several business ventures in the 1920's. In 1927, he headed up the group that purchased the (now world famous) Santa Monica Pier. He planned to greatly expand the pier. He was going to put in a yacht club and also use part of the pier for various tourist activities, such as charter fishing boats and sightseeing cruises. He also planned to build an orchestra pit at the end of the pier and have concerts. He went to the city council and had all of these projects approved. Work had actually begun when he had a heart attack in his office on the pier and died. Ownership of the pier went to Lulu, but so far (Bob Dias) hasn't been able to find out anything about when or whom she sold it.

Shortly after their marriage, they moved to southern California. The story Robert Dias (doing the family history also) heard is that Frances and Lulu acquired lots of land there and at one time owned much of what is now Santa Monica. Robert (Bob) Dias will check out this story.

Notes for Archibald A. Bennett:
FROM THE HISTORY OF INDIANA CO. PA. Mr. Bennett was commissioned a notary public and is now serving his second term, his reliability and conscientiousness makes him appreciate the responsibilities of that office. In politics he is a Republican. He is a consistent member of the Methodist Church in Strongstown, and is serving it as member of the board of trustees and secretary of that board. The Bennett family is well known, and its representative stand high in public opinion, for they are citizens of steadfast purpose and untiring zeal in promoting the general welfare.

Attended public school in Cambria Co. and summer school taught by Professor Garaway, and worked with his father, with whom he is still associated in business intereast. Until he was forty years old Mr. Bennett continued farming, in 1904 coming to Strongstown, where he was in general mercantile business for six years, also acting as agent for agricultural implements and repairs on same, and dealing in corn, oats, chop flour and mill feeds. He had the store at the corner of Main and Buffington street. His sons were partnership with him for some time, the firm being known as A.A. Bennett & Sons. Mr Bennett has since been engaged in the hotel business, as proprietor of the "Bennett House", which he conducted for the accommodation of travelers who appreciate the fact that he carries no license for the sale of intoxicants.

Indiana Progress (May 5, 1937)
Frank A. Stewart, Father of Eight Children, Victim of Distressing Accident
Funeral rites were conducted on Sunday afternoon at his late residence, followed by interment in the Armagh cemetery, for Frank A. Stewart, aged 58, a life-long and esteemed resident of the Dilltown community, who died in the Memorial hospital, Johnstown, Thursday evening from injuries sustained the same day in a distressing accident near his home.
While hauling logs to a sawmill he fell from his wagon as it went into a rut and one of the wheels passed over his body, crushing his shoulder and hip. He was rushed to the hospital, where he died from internal injuries a few hours later.
The deceased, who was a son of William G. Stewart, of the Dilltown community, was a farmer and was one of the substantial citizens, and his tragic death came as a great shock to that section. He held membership with the Blacklick M. E. church, and his pastor conducted the funeral rites.
Surviving is his widow and these children: Elzie Stewart, of Dilltown; William Stewart, of Robinson, and Ethel, Mary, Helen, Matilda, Grace, and James Stewart, all residing at home. He also leaves his father, a brother, Harry J. Stewart, of Dilltown, and two sisters, Mrs. Webster Duncan, of Dilltown, and Mrs. Gordon Frances, of Sagamore.

George Murr Dias was born on the home farm in Brush Valley, Indiana Co. PA. He attended the Dias-Underwood school and at one time a "Christy" Campbell was paid for schooling him in 1905.

In 1909 while hopping a freight train, he was thrown underneath it at Torrence Station near Blairsville. He had his leg amputated below the knee and was not expected to live, his sister Catherine was a nurse and cared for him until his recovery. She financed his education at Cambria Rowe Business College in Johnstown, PA. He attended school for eight months and was hired as a bookkeeper by Johnstown Auto Co., worked for them from 1915 to late 1930's 1910 census, he boarded with the Harry Given family in Johnstown. Could read and write, was a labor worker. He was twenty years old.

Story told by Norma Dias Kelly. Either George or his father, George, came in from out of the cold with a coonskin cap on and leaned over the crib of his young child. This caused the child to become frightened and go into convulsions thereby dying.[v45t0803.ftw]

Mabel: According to info from Norma Dias Kelly, Mabel was told by George Dias (do not know if it was her husband or father-in-law George) that one of the very young children of Thomas Dias died when his father came in from outside and leaned over the crib wearing his coonskin cap. This caused the child to become frightened and to go into convulsions, thereby dying.

Relationship Notes for William Franklin Dias and Lorena Mae Lambes:
[v45t0803.ftw]

The marriage date seems questionable because Tillie died in 1903 and there are children born in 1904 and onward. Either Tillie's death date is wrong, the marriage date is wrong or William and Lorena just delayed in getting married after having children. It could be all dates are correct and that explains a live-in relationship. We are assuming that the 1904 and thereafter births are to the new wife.

173. FRANCIS VERNON[6] DIAS (McCandless Shields[5], Alfred[4], Richard Gerry[3], Richard[2], Thomas[1])[1] was born on Aug 19, 1896 in Monongahela, Washington County, Pennsylvania[1]. He died on Oct 20, 1973 in Lancaster, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania[1]. He married (1) ANNABELLE WATSON on Dec 07, 1925 in Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania[1]. She died on Aug 07, 1942[1]. He married (2) ELLEN M. GREENE after 1942. She was born on Oct 28, 1902[1]. She died about Feb 1987[1].

Notes for Francis Vernon Dias:
[Janice Dias]

After the death of his wife, Annabelle, Francis allegedly re-married a wealthy lady.

Francis Vernon Dias and Annabelle Watson had the following child:

i. WILLIAM MCCANDLESS[7] DIAS[1] was born on Oct 22, 1935 in Indiana County, Pennsylvania[1]. He died on Oct 16, 1961 in Tampa, Hillsborough County, Florida[1]. He married Sandra Fay Long, daughter of Jack Ellsworth Long and Jeannett Irene Dowden, in 1958 in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania[1]. She was born on Jul 22, 1937 in Greensburg, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania[1].

Notes for William McCandless Dias:
[Janice Dias]

William and Sandra didn't enjoy a good relationship, even though they were married.

After their marriage in Westmoreland County, PA, they moved to Pittsburgh where their first child was born February 1959 and not long after Jan's birth, Sandy left Bill and took a train to Tampa, Florida where her parents just moved to. Sometime later Bill arrived in Tampa with two of their friends (husband and wife). Sandy eventually moved back in with Bill who was, shortly thereafter, diagnosed with terminal cancer. During this period, Sandy became pregnant with her second child, Marc, who was born June 11, 1961. Bill died October the same year. It was necessary for Sandy to find a job and go to work two weeks after Marc's birth, as they had no income otherwise.

Sandy only remembers Bill's dad, Francis Vernon Dias, as he never came to their house (or apartment) and when Bill died. He never made any effort to help the grandchildren, even though they were quite destitute. Francis came to the funeral and then immediately left and went back to Pennsylvania. Sandy recalls that Bill felt rather close to his grandmother (the mother of Annabelle Watson) but Sandy never met her and knows nothing of the rest of Bill's family. Sandy was abandoned by her own mother when she was about six years old, and then her in -laws.

Notes for Sandra Fay Long:
[Janice Dias]

After Sandra's husband, William died, she met Julian Anderson while attending school in Jacksonville, Florida February, 1963 and was married the same year. She was married two months when Julian accepted a promotion and they moved to Tampa where Julian adopted both of Sandra's children and changed there names to Jan Lynn Anderson and Marc William Anderson.

Just before Christmas of 1964, Jan (age 5) and Marc (not yet 3) received a Christmas card from their grandfather Francis Vernon Dias. It contained a $5.00 check for both their Christmas presents and a short note saying if their mother ever remarried and changed their names that they would be cut out of his will. Sandra put the card and the $5.00 check in an envelope and mailed it back to him. Neither one of them ever heard from him again.

Julian, now the father, is searching the Dias family for his two children who know nothing about their ancestors.

Notes for Gertrude Pittman:
The Indiana Gazette, Indiana, Pennsylvania (September 2, 1898)

Mr. M. A. Miller, of Bolivar, and Miss Gertrude Pittman, of Brushvalley township, were united in marriage last Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed at the M. E. parsonage in Mechanicsburg by Rev. J. M. Cogley.

According to the 1920 Census, Gertrude and her family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

This write-up was believed to be written by Ruth (Warfel) Robertson:

Andrew and Hannah Pittman were parents of three children, Alphorettam, a baby girl who died at the age of four months and seventeen days. Harry contacted pneumonia and died at the age of nineteen. The four of them are buried in a small cemetary located on Cemetary Road, off route 259N, near the town of Brush Valley, Pa.

Gertrude Pittman, the surviving child of Andrew and Hannah (Pittman) Pittman, Hannah no relation to Andrew, lived on a farm outside of Brush Valley with her parents. The farm was large and today route 259N goes through the "cow pasture" that belonged to the farm. The farm house is still standing with a few changes and the barn is also there in fair condition, When Andrew and Hannah sold their farm they moved into the town of Brush Valley. The house is located along the main highway and directly across from a small gas station-grocery store. After Hannah died in 1928, Andrew sold the house and went to Homewood, Pa. to live with his daughter Gertrude.

Matthew Anderson Miller, son of Michael and Susan (Lapool) Miller, lived about two miles past the Pittman's farm. Michael Miller ran a grist mill on his farm, his other children were John Shields, Golden, Gladys, and Annie.

When Gertrude Pittman married Matthew Miller they moved to Bolivar, Pa., where Matthew worked at Hammonds grist mill and lived in the house beside it. The grist mill was located across the creek from the old Bolivar ball field, near the railroad arch, where the creek flows into the Conemaugh River. His brother John Shields also worked with him. Florence (1899) and Cora (1902) Miller were born in this house. From here the family moved to the corner of Second and Shaffer Street, this house was later known as the Moose Lodge Home.

Andrew Pittman bought a parcel of land on Shaffer Street in Bolivar for his daughter Gertrude, and Matthew built the family home and his own flour mill. Edna (1904) and Gladys (1910) Miller were born here. The local farmers brought their corn and other grains to the mill to be ground and Matthew also made flour and sold to other customers in town.

At the beginning of every summer the Pittman Grandparent's would arrive at the home of Gertrude and Matthew in their horse and buggy, which had a seat in back of the driver's seat, and take Florence and Cora to the farm to spend the summer. This was about a four hour trip which started after lunch. Edna was not well enough to stay and Gladys was too young, but they did visit the farm with their mother at other times. Florence and Cora did small house jobs for their grand mother and would ride in the horse and buggy with their grandpap to take milk, butter and cheese into Indiana (Pa.) to sell on Saturdays.

When work was slow at the grist mill Matthew started working for Ridgeview Coal Company. While working outside doing heavy lifting he was injured and died within two days at the age of 50. He is buried in West View Cemetary, Bolivar, Pa. One of Cora's fond memories of her dad was his taking Florence and her on Sunday visits to the Modesto (Mose) Bernabo farm, who sold milk to the local town people. The farm was located half way up the ridge above the West Bolivar bridge. Also after the girls grandmother Miller died, their grandfather Michael Miller came to live with them until his death in 1912. He always sat in a chair beside the coal stove and slept a lot. About eight years after Matthew died Gertrude married a former boyfriend who had lived in Brush Valley, Daniel Donahey, and they moved to Homewood, Pa. Daniel worked for the post office. Florence, Cora and Edna were married but Gladys was not and was living with her mother and step-father. Gertrude had asthma most of her life and was ill a lot of the time. She contacted pneumonia and died in 1930. Against the girls wishes, she was buried in Homewood Cemetary. Her daughter Edna Mae Miller Wunschell is also buried there. Four years after Gertrude's death Daniel committed suicide using a small hand revolver and is buried beside Gertrude in Homewood (Pa.) Cemetary.

The following is from a clipping found at the Historical Society files in Indiana, Pa.

Harry Pittman, a son of Andrew Pittman, of Brushvalley township died on Saturday of pneumonia after an illness of a week. He was aged 19 yrs-6mo. The funeral was held on Saturday. (4-14-1900)

From the 1850 census the following was recorded:

Benjamin Pittman,	farmer	age 30
Mary Pittman,	wife	age 32
Jane Pittman		age 11
Miriam Pittman		age 10
Mary Pittman		age 5
Andrew Pittman	age 3

This Andrew Pittman should be the husband of Hannah Pittman and the father of Gertrude Pittman.

The Congressional Medal of Honor citation is as follows: For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty, while serving as a Rifleman with Company D, First Battalion, Seventh Marines, First Marine Division in the Republic of Vietnam on 12 November 1969. As a member of a reaction force which was pinned down by enemy fire while assisting a platoon in the same circumstance, Private First Class Dias, observing that both units were sustaining casualties, initiated an aggressive assault against an enemy machine gun bunker which was the principal source of hostile fire. Severely wounded by enemy snipers while charging across the open area, he pulled himself to the shelter of a nearby rock. raving enemy fire for a second time, Private First Class Dias was again wounded. Unable to walk, he crawled fifteen meters to the protection of a rock located near his objective and, repeatedly exposing himself to intense hostile fire, unsuccessfully threw several hand grenades at the machine gun emplacement. Still determined to destroy the emplacement, Private First Class Dias again moved into the open and was wounded a third time by sniper fire. As he threw a last grenade which destroyed the enemy position, he was mortally wounded by another enemy round. Private First Cass Dias' indomitable courage, dynamic initiative, and selfless devotion to duty upheld the highest traditions of the Marine Corps and the United States Naval Service. He gallantly gave his life in service to his country."

Notes for Dean R. Lichtenfels:
Johnstown Tribune-Democrat (June 16, 2006)

LICHTENFELS - Dean

LICHTENFELS - Dean R., 84, a beloved husband of Helen A. Thurston Lichtenfels of Daytona Beach, Fla., and Black Lick, went to be with the Lord at 1 a.m. Wednesday, June 14, 2006, at St. Andrew's Village, Indiana, with all his family around him. A son of the late William F. and Mabel Campbell Lichtenfels. He was born Oct. 22, 1921, in Heshon, Indiana County. Dean was the founder and proud owner of Lichtenfels Trucking in Black Lick, for over 50 years. He had so many important parts of his life. Since moving to Florida during the winter months, Dean was proud of the fact that he had a meaningful position driving bus and van transportation for Bethune-Cookman College of Daytona Beach. Dean had in his life been a coal miner, Burrell Township supervisor, contracted work for LICMA and Pennsylvania state road work. He ran race cars in his youth and continued to drive that way throughout his entire life. Work ethic was instilled in his family seven days a week. He would hire kids all his life to give them a start in a productive life. Whether you called him Dean, D.R., Dad, Pap, Big Pap or Pappy Dean, once you were a part of his extended family you were treated as part of his family and held to his standards. He was a husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, great-great-grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. His greatest joy was a meal or party with all his family and friends present. For his 80th birthday his family and friends held a surprise party for him. Family and friends attended from all over the country and this day was a celebration of his life. He is survived by his wife, Helen Lichtenfels, whom he married July 30, 1987; mother-in-law, Margaret Thurston; daughters, Linda Lydic, and husband, Roger; Lois Zack, and husband, Ken; Bobbie St. Clair, and husband, Ralph; Betty Cochran, and husband, Randy; and Cindy Gearhard; sons, Neil Lichtenfels, and Jeff Gearhard, and wife, Julie; grandchildren, Sheila Wilson, and husband, Denny; Ken Zack, and wife, Cindy; Dean St. Clair; Tammie Mack; Deanna Wooldridge-Smith; Lisa Wooldridge; Luren, Kelsey and Jacob Gearhard; and Zachary Zilke; great-grandchildren, Jamie Arone, and husband, Tony; Matthew Wilson, and wife, Misty; Mason Zack; Marc Zack; Meghan Mack; Karen Mack; Robert Sawyer; Marissa Smith; and Jacob Smith; great-great-grandson, Jaxson Anthony Arone; and a great-great-granddaughter, Savanna Snow Wilson; and many nieces and nephews of whom he was the last remaining uncle. He was a part of all their lives and they also knew he was there for them. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Bertha Dies Lichtenfels; seven brothers; and four sisters. His family and friends will be celebrating his life again from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at Shoemaker Funeral Home Inc., 49 N. Walnut St., Blairsville. Service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday in the funeral home, with the Rev. Jason L. McQueen officiating. Interment will be in Blairsville Cemetery, Blairsville. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Andrew's Village Outdoor Furniture Fund, 1155 Indian Springs Road, Indiana, Pa. 15701, in appreciation for the staff's loving kindness during Dean's last moments. There can never be enough thanks expressed to his wife, Helen. It was due to her care and love that made it possible for all his family and friends to continue to enjoy him until his latest illness. Notes for Janice Faye Sanders:

[Janice Dias]

Janice married Donald Dias in 1954 in Wichita Falls, Texas. They met while skating at the same rink in Wichita . They were married ten days before Donald left for Okinawa. He was overseas one and a half years and returned in 1956. His next assignment was at Whiteman AFB which we stayed there three years when he got out of the service. He was out three months and at that time you had three months to make up your mind whether to stay or get out. Jobs were hard to find then so he re-enlisted for four more years and was sent to my home town, Wichita Falls, Texas where he taught Air Craft engine repairs. In 1958, our first child was born and when he was three months old we were sent to Anchorage, Alaska. The second child was born there in 1960. In 1961, we came back to USA and were stationed in Plattsburgh NY for the rest of his time in the service. Our third child was born in Plattsburg, December 1962. Donald got a job with General Dynamics, in Groton, Connecticut and worked with them till 1976 when he excepted a job in Charleston, South Carolina. We were there one year and wanted back in Connecticut so he was hired again by General Dynamic 1977. From there, Donald worked for Raytheon Co. in Newport, R.I. He taught the Polaris Missile for the Army. He wrote the work manual on the Missile and was recognized for his work. In 1979 he took a job with the Space Shuttle in Huntsville, Alabama and worked for Morton Thycol as a scientist till he retired. He now lives in Daphne, Alabama

Don and Janice were divorced 1980 after twenty seven years of marriage. They remained friends and occasionally talked by phone.

Janice manages an Anesthesia office and works part time for Edward Jones Investment Company.

Janice also does family history and is doing the Dias line for my children.
