Notes for Ralph Miller Stewart:
Indiana Gazette, July 11, 2020

At 100 years old and with nearly 70 years of auctioneering under his belt, Pete Stewart still hasn't retired, not officially. His last sale was in October when he sold some real estate in Indiana Borough. The only thing stopping him at the moment is - what else? - the pandemic.

Stewart's auctioning career began in 1952 and he estimates that the number of auctions he has presided over number close to 10,000. However, over the years his fondest memories have been working with his family in the business.

"I enjoy the auction world very much," Stewart said.

His granddaughter Erin is now following in his footsteps and has begun auctioneering herself.

The items Stewart has sold are many. But one big ticket item he'll never forget is a Soap Hollow chest of drawers made in Somerset.

"It went for over $12,000," Stewart said. "And after I sold it, I couldn't find anyone who wanted to lift it because they were so afraid of breaking it."

In the end, the chest of drawers situation got figured out as did other items has Stewart sold.

"There were lots of hard items to sell, but we always tried our hardest to get them sold how we could," he said.

Over the years, Stewart - born on July 11, 1920 - has also seen the auction world change drastically.

"Everything used to be done by hand," he said. All of the tallying of prices and the fliers, everything was done by hand. As it progressed, calculators and eventually posting photos over the internet entered the mix.

"The internet has really changed everything," he said. "The auctioning method isn't as popular. Now everything is done on the computer. It's too bad, because auctioneering was the best way to sell things fairly and it employed people. I'm sorry to see it not doing as well as it used to be."

Auctions are always great community events that bring people together, Stewart said.

"I learned how to handle crowds and people by working auctions," he said. "It was a great community thing."

Stewart is having a few celebrations to mark the occasion. There will be a private family party as well as an invitation-only party held Sunday at the Armagh & East Wheatfield Township fire company where Stewart is the last surviving charter member.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Ann (Hutchison) Stewart; two brothers: William Roy Stewart and Robert E. Stewart; a sister, Edna (Stewart) Deyarmin; and a son-in-law, Roger Lenhardt.

Thurston Lichtenfels of Daytona Beach, Fla., and Black Lick, went to be with the Lord at 1 a.m. Wednesday, June 14, 2006, at St. Andrew's Village, Indiana, with all his family around him. A son of the late William F. and Mabel Campbell Lichtenfels. He was born Oct. 22, 1921, in Heshon, Indiana County. Dean was the founder and proud owner of Lichtenfels Trucking in Black Lick, for over 50 years. He had so many important parts of his life. Since moving to Florida during the winter months, Dean was proud of the fact that he had a meaningful position driving bus and van transportation for Bethune-Cookman College of Daytona Beach. Dean had in his life been a coal miner, Burrell Township supervisor, contracted work for LICMA and Pennsylvania state road work. He ran race cars in his youth and continued to drive that way throughout his entire life. Work ethic was instilled in his family seven days a week. He would hire kids all his life to give them a start in a productive life. Whether you called him Dean, D.R., Dad, Pap, Big Pap or Pappy Dean, once you were a part of his extended family you were treated as part of his family and held to his standards. He was a husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, great-great-grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. His greatest joy was a meal or party with all his family and friends present. For his 80th birthday his family and friends held a surprise party for him. Family and friends attended from all over the country and this day was a celebration of his life. He is survived by his wife, Helen Lichtenfels, whom he married July 30, 1987; mother-in-law, Margaret Thurston; daughters, Linda Lydic, and husband, Roger; Lois Zack, and husband, Ken; Bobbie St. Clair, and husband, Ralph; Betty Cochran, and husband, Randy; and Cindy Gearhard; sons, Neil Lichtenfels, and Jeff Gearhard, and wife,

He was a part of all their lives and they also knew he was there for them. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Bertha Dies Lichtenfels; seven brothers; and four sisters. His family and friends will be celebrating his life again from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at Shoemaker Funeral Home Inc., 49 N. Walnut St., Blairsville. Notes for Emily Marie St. Clair:
Obituary of Emily Marie McKinney

Emily Marie McKinney took her last breath on this earth on January 8, 2024, at The Communities of Indian Haven. She went peacefully as she went home to be with Jesus, and we know she was joyfully embraced by her husband and many others. Pieces of her loved one's hearts went with her. And as life teaches us, it is only when the sweetest thing ceases to exist that we truly know the treachery of its absence.

Emily was born May 13, 1939, in West Wheatfield Township, the daughter of the late Henry and Mary Ellen (Campion) St. Clair. Also preceded in death by husband Harold E. McKinney, twin sons William and Henry McKinney, sisters Olive Penrose and Marion Garland, and furry best friend Brutus.

Survived by son Harold McKinney and wife Bambi (Johns), Mechanicsburg, Ann Yeager and husband Chuck, Pittsburgh. Grandsons Patrick McKinney and wife Kara, Mechanicsburg; Brandon McKinney, Mountlake Terrace, WA; John Rougeaux and wife Megan, New Florence; Jake Rougeaux and wife Shannon, Courtland, OH. Step grandsons Mark Crummett and wife Briana, Harrisburg; Jason Yeager, Oakmont; and Greg Yeager, Pittsburgh. Great-grandchildren Nathaniel, Elijah, Isabel McKinney; Jack, Ryan, and J.T. Rougeaux. Sisters Peg Clevenger, Indiana; and Claudia Shoenfelt and special friend Rodger Evans, Indiana.

There is not a word that adequately describes Emily. Those who knew her would tell you she had a big heart and a frisky personality. She would always have some comment to make you laugh or smile. One of her proudest moments was January 20, 2003, when she was recognized for her outstanding bowling with a high game of 166 by The Rainbow League at Bolivar Lanes. In addition to bowling, you could find her out somewhere dancing, stopping at yard sales or shopping at Boscov's.

Friends received 2-4 and 6-8 pm Wednesday at Kenneth A. Stuart Funeral Home, 139 Ligonier St., New Florence where service will be held 11 am Thursday. Bishop Joseph McGauley officiating. Private interment Isabelle Cemetery.

Notes for Robert C. Pender:

After 1964 Robert and Carole were living in Anchorage, Anchorage County, Alaska.

Notes for Carole Jean Smith:

Obituary from the Fairbanks, Alaska "Daily News-Miner" newspaper, dated Wednesday, May 16, 2012, page B-2:

Carole Pender passed away in Fairbanks May 11, 2012, from lung cancer. Carole was born to George and Elizabeth Smith in 1932, in what is now the ghost town of Heaton, N.D.

She was reading Uncle Tom's Cabin when she began first grade at the town's one-room schoolhouse so the teacher simply moved her to the next row with the second graders. The family later moved to Grand Forks.

Carole put herself through college at the University of North Dakota, spending her summers working at the Tetons and Yellowstone. After she graduated from UND as the first woman ever to earn a B.S. in geology, she went to work for Shell Oil in Denver. It did not take her long to decide that while she loved geology, she hated working for oil companies, so she quit her job in 1955 to drive to Alaska by herself.

Carole had never driven a car before, so she bought a used Jeep with three blue hub caps and one red hub cap and practiced a bit with the clutch. She needed a driver's license to get through Canada, but never (to this day) managed to learn how to parallel park, so she promised the examiner she would leave town for the Alaska Highway as soon as the paperwork was done and he let her go.

Carole got a job at the Geophysical Institute when she arrived in Fairbanks and soon met the love of her life, Bob Pender, who was finishing a physics degree at the time. Carole and Bob were married in 1957. After graduation, Bob got work with Federal Electric which took him and Carole to Anchorage, where daughter Jenny was born; to Fort Yukon, where son John was born, and to Germany and New York, rounding out the family with sons, Bob and Bill.

Shortly after the 1964 earthquake, Carole and Bob were back in Alaska, settling in Anchorage for the long haul. When Bob died suddenly in 1972, Carole faced down the challenge of raising four children as a single mother, working a variety of jobs to pay the bills. Once her children were grown, she started working as a nurse's aide and always said this was the most satisfying job she ever had.

Carole retired in 1992, and moved back to Fairbanks with her daughter to be close to her first grandchild, Johnny, who was, soon followed by granddaughter, Julia. Carole was an avid reader and was talented with her hands, making countless beautiful sewn, embroidered and knit garments over the years.

As her health faded, she was cared for in the most loving possible way by her daughter, Jenny, who was always her angel.

Carole is survived by her daughter, Jenny; sons, John, Bob and Bill; grandchildren, Johnny, Kozmo, Julia, and Malachi, and siblings, Diz, Cindy, and John.

There will be no service at Carole's request.

Carole was a wonderful old lady, loved by all who knew her, and she will be missed.

Notes for Emily Marie St. Clair:
Obituary of Emily Marie McKinney

Emily Marie McKinney took her last breath on this earth on January 8, 2024, at The Communities of Indian Haven. She went peacefully as she went home to be with Jesus, and we know she was joyfully embraced by her husband and many others. Pieces of her loved one's hearts went with her. And as life teaches us, it is only when the sweetest thing ceases to exist that we truly know the treachery of its absence.

Emily was born May 13, 1939, in West Wheatfield Township, the daughter of the late Henry and Mary Ellen (Campion) St. Clair. Also preceded in death by husband Harold E. McKinney, twin sons William and Henry McKinney, sisters Olive Penrose and Marion Garland, and furry best friend Brutus.

Survived by son Harold McKinney and wife Bambi (Johns), Mechanicsburg, Ann Yeager and husband Chuck, Pittsburgh. Grandsons Patrick McKinney and wife Kara, Mechanicsburg; Brandon McKinney, Mountlake Terrace, WA; John Rougeaux and wife Megan, New Florence; Jake Rougeaux and wife Shannon, Courtland, OH. Step grandsons Mark Crummett and wife Briana, Harrisburg; Jason Yeager, Oakmont; and Greg Yeager, Pittsburgh. Great-grandchildren Nathaniel, Elijah, Isabel McKinney; Jack, Ryan, and J.T. Rougeaux. Sisters Peg Clevenger, Indiana; and Claudia Shoenfelt and special friend Rodger Evans, Indiana.

There is not a word that adequately describes Emily. Those who knew her would tell you she had a big heart and a frisky personality. She would always have some comment to make you laugh or smile. One of her proudest moments was January 20, 2003, when she was recognized for her outstanding bowling with a high game of 166 by The Rainbow League at Bolivar Lanes. In addition to bowling, you could find her out somewhere dancing, stopping at yard sales or shopping at Boscov's.

Friends received 2-4 and 6-8 pm Wednesday at Kenneth A. Stuart Funeral Home, 139 Ligonier St., New Florence where service will be held 11 am Thursday. Bishop Joseph McGauley officiating. Private interment Isabelle Cemetery.

Emily family would like to express their sincere gratitude to the staff of The Communities at Indian Haven and 360 Hospice for the care and compassion Emily received in her latter stages. Emily requested no flowers and memorial contributions may be made to Armagh-Seward Presbyterian Church, PO Box 301, Seward, PA 15954, or Faith Lutheran Church, 6810 US Rt 22, New Florence, PA 15944.

Thurston Lichtenfels of Daytona Beach, Fla., and Black Lick, went to be with the Lord at 1 a.m. Wednesday, June 14, 2006, at St. Andrew's Village, Indiana, with all his family around him. A son of the late William F. and Mabel Campbell Lichtenfels. He was born Oct. 22, 1921, in Heshon, Indiana County. Dean was the founder and proud owner of Lichtenfels Trucking in Black Lick, for over 50 years. He had so many important parts of his life. Since moving to Florida during the winter months, Dean was proud of the fact that he had a meaningful position driving bus and van transportation for Bethune-Cookman College of Daytona Beach. Dean had in his life been a coal miner, Burrell Township supervisor, contracted work for LICMA and Pennsylvania state road work. He ran race cars in his youth and continued to drive that way throughout his entire life. Work ethic was instilled in his family seven days a week. He would hire kids all his life to give them a start in a productive life. Whether you called him Dean, D.R., Dad, Pap, Big Pap or Pappy Dean, once you were a part of his extended family you were treated as part of his family and held to his standards. He was a husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, great-great-grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. His greatest joy was a meal or party with all his family and friends present. For his 80th birthday his family and friends held a surprise party for him. Family and friends attended from all over the country and this day was a celebration of his life. He is survived by his wife, Helen Lichtenfels, whom he married July 30, 1987; mother-in-law, Margaret Thurston; daughters, Linda

Obituary of Evelyn M. Boychuck BOYCHUCK

Evelyn Marie (Penrose) Boychuck, born January 11, 1935, was the daughter of Joseph and Ethel (Black) Penrose. She was the last surviving of her 7 siblings. As she would have said, her fat and sassy self was surrounded by her family when she went home to be with the Lord on June 12, 2022.

You (We) have known her by a few names, Evelyn Penrose, Condron, Wakefield, Boychuck. Evie, Ma, Mom, Mama, Other Mother, Grandma Teatime, Nanny, your favorite Avon Lady, Legs, Elvis enthusiast and Sister in Christ. She created a vast family of children (10), grandchildren (22) and great grandchildren (63) and 1 great great-grandchild.

Your smile would light up a room. You always had a kind word, a prayer, a good meal and hugs. You welcomed everyone you met as though you knew them your whole life. You loved music, dancing and hard work and showed us what true unconditional love really means.

Thank you for always reminding us there is kindness and true love of people still in this world. Through your life you have lived out your faith and boldly proclaimed your love and faith in Jesus. Your example will live on in us. We love you a bushel and a peck and a hug around the neck.

We would like to give a special thank you to:

All the prayers warriors who have prayed so hard for mom and the family
For the special blessing of the Hampton Roads Church Group
The Staff of Sentara Virginia Beach Hospital, East CCU and Dr. Leech.

A special thanks for David and Patty for opening their home and showing us such wonderful hospitality and love. And thank you to all the friends and family for bringing us food and love and encouragement to us during this time. It means more than we can ever truly express.

Carrie Deane Clawson

July 25, 1924 - April 9, 2020

95, formerly of Bolivar, died Thursday, April 9, 2020 at Newhaven Court at Linwood, Greensburg. She was born July 25, 1924 in Robinson, a daughter of the late Joseph and Mary Donahue Hall. She resided in Bolivar most of her life and was highly respected and known beyond the boundaries of the town.

Carrie Deane was "famous" for her scrumptious home-made bread, rolls, cinnamon buns, cakes, pies, and more. All of her grandchildren and great grandchildren as well as many others are proud owners of her crocheted blankets. For many years, her Bolivar neighbors and friends canned beets, made garden special, and more in her well suited basement. She provided, over the years, donated baked goods to churches and elder care homes. Perhaps, though, she is best remembered as an extremely gracious, loving, kind, mother, and grandmother. Nothing was more important to Carrie Deane than her family, neighbors, and friends. In addition to her parents she was predeceased by her loving husband, William Z. Clawson who died in 2002 and these siblings: Isabell, Grace, Joseph, Patty, and Charlotte. She is survived by two sons, William (Betty) Clawson, Dennis (Carol) Clawson, a sister, Betty Graymus, a brother, Paul Hall, five grandchildren: Billie Sue (Dave) Early, Kimberly Clawson, Adam (Carolyn) Clawson, Stephanie (Mike) Zezzo and Suzanne (John) Dzvonick who all loved her and spent many days and nights learning how to cook and bake. She is also survived by these great-grandchildren: Daniel and Matthew Early, Ashley Victoriana, Breanna, Danielle, and Evan Clawson, Cole and Sophia Zezzo and Lydia and Lucas Dzvoncik, and numerous nieces and nephews. The family wishes to acknowledge the love and care provided by the Bolivar "family." Super special thanks goes to Pat Skavang and Katthy Griffith as well as Michael Robertson who were there every step of the way. Many, many other relatives, neighbors, and friends are also thanked for friendly visits, occasional personal care, and the delivery of delicious food. A huge thank you is to be given to Newhaven Court's highly skilled and caring staff and the nurses and staff from Bridges Hospice. A private graveside burial will take place at the Bolivar Westview Cemetery at the convenience of the family. A well deserved memorial service will be held at a later time and date to be announced. Memorial contributions, if desired, may be made to the Bolivar Vol. Fire Co., P. O. Box 3, Bolivar, PA 15923. To leave a condolence or tribute for

Notes for Ralph Miller Stewart:
Indiana Gazette, July 11, 2020

At 100 years old and with nearly 70 years of auctioneering under his belt, Pete Stewart still hasn't retired, not officially. His last sale was in October when he sold some real estate in Indiana Borough. The only thing stopping him at the moment is - what else? - the pandemic.

Stewart's auctioning career began in 1952 and he estimates that the number of auctions he has presided over number close to 10,000. However, over the years his fondest memories have been working with his family in the business.

"I enjoy the auction world very much," Stewart said.

His granddaughter Erin is now following in his footsteps and has begun auctioneering herself.

The items Stewart has sold are many. But one big ticket item he'll never forget is a Soap Hollow chest of drawers made in Somerset.

"It went for over $12,000," Stewart said. "And after I sold it, I couldn't find anyone who wanted to lift it because they were so afraid of breaking it."

In the end, the chest of drawers situation got figured out as did other items has Stewart sold.

"There were lots of hard items to sell, but we always tried our hardest to get them sold how we could," he said.

Over the years, Stewart - born on July 11, 1920 - has also seen the auction world change drastically.

"Everything used to be done by hand," he said. All of the tallying of prices and the fliers, everything was done by hand. As it progressed, calculators and eventually posting photos over the internet entered the mix.

"The internet has really changed everything," he said. "The auctioning method isn't as popular. Now everything is done on the computer. It's too bad, because auctioneering was the best way to sell things fairly and it employed people. I'm sorry to see it not doing as well as it used to be."

Auctions are always great community events that bring people together, Stewart said.

"I learned how to handle crowds and people by working auctions," he said. "It was a great community thing."

Stewart is having a few celebrations to mark the occasion. There will be a private family party as well as an invitation-only party held Sunday at the Armagh & East Wheatfield Township fire company where Stewart is the last surviving charter member.

Notes for Emily Marie St. Clair:

Obituary of Emily Marie McKinney

Emily Marie McKinney took her last breath on this earth on January 8, 2024, at The Communities of Indian Haven. She went peacefully as she went home to be with Jesus, and we know she was joyfully embraced by her husband and many others. Pieces of her loved one's hearts went with her. And as life teaches us, it is only when the sweetest thing ceases to exist that we truly know the treachery of its absence.

Emily was born May 13, 1939, in West Wheatfield Township, the daughter of the late Henry and Mary Ellen (Campion) St. Clair. Also preceded in death by husband Harold E. McKinney, twin sons William and Henry McKinney, sisters Olive Penrose and Marion Garland, and furry best friend Brutus.

Survived by son Harold McKinney and wife Bambi (Johns), Mechanicsburg, Ann Yeager and husband Chuck, Pittsburgh. Grandsons Patrick McKinney and wife Kara, Mechanicsburg; Brandon McKinney, Mountlake Terrace, WA; John Rougeaux and wife Megan, New Florence; Jake Rougeaux and wife Shannon, Courtland, OH. Step grandsons Mark Crummett and wife Briana, Harrisburg; Jason Yeager, Oakmont; and Greg Yeager, Pittsburgh. Great-grandchildren Nathaniel, Elijah, Isabel McKinney; Jack, Ryan, and J.T. Rougeaux. Sisters Peg Clevenger, Indiana; and Claudia Shoenfelt and special friend Rodger Evans, Indiana.

There is not a word that adequately describes Emily. Those who knew her would tell you she had a big heart and a frisky personality. She would always have some comment to make you laugh or smile. One of her proudest moments was January 20, 2003, when she was recognized for her outstanding bowling with a high game of 166 by The Rainbow League at Bolivar Lanes. In addition to bowling, you could find her out somewhere dancing, stopping at yard sales or shopping at Boscov's.

Friends received 2-4 and 6-8 pm Wednesday at Kenneth A. Stuart Funeral Home, 139 Ligonier St., New Florence where service will be held 11 am Thursday. Bishop Joseph McGauley officiating. Private interment Isabelle Cemetery.

Emily family would like to express their sincere gratitude to the staff of The Communities at Indian Haven and 360 Hospice for the care and compassion Emily received in her latter stages. As a retired Pennsylvania State Trooper, he had many stories of his career he would discuss with enthusiasm.

Wayne also faced challenges and had his struggles. Life was not always easy for him or those around him, and he made his share of mistakes. Despite these, he taught us the importance of learning from our mistakes and the ability to apologize.

He leaves behind a family and countless friends that will remember his strength, his complexity, and his love. We choose to honor both his good and bad moments, recognizing that they shaped the person he was.

Notes for Emily Marie St. Clair:

Obituary of Emily Marie McKinney

Emily Marie McKinney took her last breath on this earth on January 8, 2024, at The Communities of Indian Haven. She went peacefully as she went home to be with Jesus, and we know she was joyfully embraced by her husband and many others. Pieces of her loved one's hearts went with her. And as life teaches us, it is only when the sweetest thing ceases to exist that we truly know the treachery of its absence.

Emily was born May 13, 1939, in West Wheatfield Township, the daughter of the late Henry and Mary Ellen (Campion) St. Clair. Also preceded in death by husband Harold E. McKinney, twin sons William and Henry McKinney, sisters Olive Penrose and Marion Garland, and furry best friend Brutus.

Survived by son Harold McKinney and wife Bambi (Johns), Mechanicsburg, Ann Yeager and husband Chuck, Pittsburgh. Grandsons Patrick McKinney and wife Kara, Mechanicsburg; Brandon McKinney, Mountlake Terrace, WA; John Rougeaux and wife Megan, New Florence; Jake Rougeaux and wife Shannon, Courtland, OH. Step grandsons Mark Crummett and wife Briana, Harrisburg; Jason Yeager, Oakmont; and Greg Yeager, Pittsburgh. Great-grandchildren Nathaniel, Elijah, Isabel McKinney; Jack, Ryan, and J.T. Rougeaux. Sisters Peg Clevenger, Indiana; and Claudia Shoenfelt and special friend Rodger Evans, Indiana.

There is not a word that adequately describes Emily. Those who knew her would tell you she had a big heart and a frisky personality. She would always have some comment to make you laugh or smile. One of her proudest moments was January 20, 2003, when she was recognized for her outstanding bowling with a high game of 166 by The Rainbow League at Bolivar Lanes. In addition to bowling, you could find her out somewhere dancing, stopping at yard sales or shopping at Boscov's.

Friends received 2-4 and 6-8 pm Wednesday at Kenneth A. Stuart Funeral Home, 139 Ligonier St., New Florence where service will be held 11 am Thursday. Bishop Joseph McGauley officiating. Private interment Isabelle Cemetery.

Emily family would like to express their sincere gratitude to the staff of The Communities at Indian Haven and 360 Hospice for the care and compassion Emily received in her latter stages. Emily requested no flowers and memorial contributions may be made to Armagh-Seward Presbyterian Church, PO Box 301, Seward, PA 15954, or Faith Lutheran Church, 6810 US Rt 22, New Florence, PA 15944.

Notes for Emily Marie St. Clair:

Obituary of Emily Marie McKinney

Emily Marie McKinney took her last breath on this earth on January 8, 2024, at The Communities of Indian Haven. She went peacefully as she went home to be with Jesus, and we know she was joyfully embraced by her husband and many others. Pieces of her loved one's hearts went with her. And as life teaches us, it is only when the sweetest thing ceases to exist that we truly know the treachery of its absence.

Emily was born May 13, 1939, in West Wheatfield Township, the daughter of the late Henry and Mary Ellen (Campion) St. Clair. Also preceded in death by husband Harold E. McKinney, twin sons William and Henry McKinney, sisters Olive Penrose and Marion Garland, and furry best friend Brutus.

Survived by son Harold McKinney and wife Bambi (Johns), Mechanicsburg, Ann Yeager and husband Chuck, Pittsburgh. Grandsons Patrick McKinney and wife Kara, Mechanicsburg; Brandon McKinney, Mountlake Terrace, WA; John Rougeaux and wife Megan, New Florence; Jake Rougeaux and wife Shannon, Courtland, OH. Step grandsons Mark Crummett and wife Briana, Harrisburg; Jason Yeager, Oakmont; and Greg Yeager, Pittsburgh. Great-grandchildren Nathaniel, Elijah, Isabel McKinney; Jack, Ryan, and J.T. Rougeaux. Sisters Peg Clevenger, Indiana; and Claudia Shoenfelt and special friend Rodger Evans, Indiana.

There is not a word that adequately describes Emily. Those who knew her would tell you she had a big heart and a frisky personality. She would always have some comment to make you laugh or smile. One of her proudest moments was January 20, 2003, when she was recognized for her outstanding bowling with a high game of 166 by The Rainbow League at Bolivar Lanes. In addition to bowling, you could find her out somewhere dancing, stopping at yard sales or shopping at Boscov's.

Friends received 2-4 and 6-8 pm Wednesday at Kenneth A. Stuart Funeral Home, 139 Ligonier St., New Florence where service will be held 11 am Thursday. Bishop Joseph McGauley officiating. Private interment Isabelle Cemetery.

Emily family would like to express their sincere gratitude to the staff of The Communities at

Notes for Emily Marie St. Clair:

Obituary of Emily Marie McKinney

Emily Marie McKinney took her last breath on this earth on January 8, 2024, at The Communities of Indian Haven. She went peacefully as she went home to be with Jesus, and we know she was joyfully embraced by her husband and many others. Pieces of her loved one's hearts went with her. And as life teaches us, it is only when the sweetest thing ceases to exist that we truly know the treachery of its absence.

Emily was born May 13, 1939, in West Wheatfield Township, the daughter of the late Henry and Mary Ellen (Campion) St. Clair. Also preceded in death by husband Harold E. McKinney, twin sons William and Henry McKinney, sisters Olive Penrose and Marion Garland, and furry best friend Brutus.

Survived by son Harold McKinney and wife Bambi (Johns), Mechanicsburg, Ann Yeager and husband Chuck, Pittsburgh. Grandsons Patrick McKinney and wife Kara, Mechanicsburg; Brandon McKinney, Mountlake Terrace, WA; John Rougeaux and wife Megan, New Florence; Jake Rougeaux and wife Shannon, Courtland, OH. Step grandsons Mark Crummett and wife Briana, Harrisburg; Jason Yeager, Oakmont; and Greg Yeager, Pittsburgh. Great-grandchildren Nathaniel, Elijah, Isabel McKinney; Jack, Ryan, and J.T. Rougeaux. Sisters Peg Clevenger, Indiana; and Claudia Shoenfelt and special friend Rodger Evans, Indiana.

There is not a word that adequately describes Emily. Those who knew her would tell you she had a big heart and a frisky personality. She would always have some comment to make you laugh or smile. One of her proudest moments was January 20, 2003, when she was recognized for her outstanding bowling with a high game of 166 by The Rainbow League at Bolivar Lanes. In addition to bowling, you could find her out somewhere dancing, stopping at yard sales or shopping at Boscov's.

Friends received 2-4 and 6-8 pm Wednesday at Kenneth A. Stuart Funeral Home, 139 Ligonier St., New Florence where service will be held 11 am Thursday. Bishop Joseph McGauley officiating. Private interment Isabelle Cemetery.

Emily family would like to express their sincere gratitude to the staff of The Communities at Indian Haven and 360 Hospice for the care and compassion Emily received in her latter stages. Emily requested no flowers and memorial contributions may be made to Armagh-Seward Presbyterian Church, PO Box 301, Seward, PA 15954, or Faith Lutheran Church, 6810 US Rt 22, New Florence, PA 15944.
