Dorsey Hollis was killed by a hit and run accident. Dad used to tell the story in such a way that it happened during prohibition. By his version Dorsey had gone to a neighbors to sample some bathtub gin that they were making. On the way back, drunk as a skunk, he was struck by a hit and run driver who was also supposed to be drunk. It was a good story that illustrates how the law was flaunted during our dry period, but it is far from the truth. In the two accounts from the Saginaw News the first thing to note is that the year is 1939--Prohibition ended in 1933!

2 CRITICALLY HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Two Saginaw men were hurt critically early Wednesday in automobile accidents, one apparently involved a hit-run motorist, who is sought by Saginaw sheriff's officers.

The victims are Dorsey D. Hollis, 55, of 2900 Williamson street, a Chevrolet foundry foreman, and Edward W. Waterstradt, 28, of 2926 Thayer street. Both are in grave condition at St. Mary's hospital, suffering possible skull fractures. Hollis, believed to have lain unconscious in the road about 6 hours, suffered greatly from exposure, his hands and feet being frozen.

Waterstradt.....

Sheriff Muehlenbeck said Hollis left home shortly after midnight to visit a neighbor. He was found Wednesday morning by a motorist. Although the victim's body shows no marked bursises, the sheriff believed him the victim of a hit-runner because of broken glass found nearby. Garages are being checked for the wanted car. The accident occurred about half a mile from the Hollis residence, near the city limits.

That article was followed by:

Saginaw News, Thursday, March 2, 1939, page 1

HIT-RUN VICTIM DEAD OF INJURY

An autopsy Thursday indicated Dorsey H. (sic) Hollis, 55 of 2900 Williamson street, died of injuries inflicted by an automobile, Coroner William E. Honey reported. Hollis, hands and feet frozen, was found laying in the road about half a mile from his home Wednesday morning and died last night at St. Mary's hospital, apparently of exposure and a skull fracture.

Sheriff Muehlenbeck said fragments of glass believed to be from an automobile headlight, found near the scene, were sent via air mail to Washington yesterday afternoon for identification by Federal Bureau of Investigation experts.

No trace has been found of the hit-run motorist believed responsible for Hollis' death.

Assistant Prosecutor Montgomery is investigating.

And the plott thickens:

Saginaw News, Saturday, March 4, 1939, page 1

FLINT MAN TAKEN IN HIT-RUN CASE

A three-day search for a hit-run motorist whose automobile early Wednesday struck and fatally injured Dorsey H.(sic) Hollis, 55, of 2900 Williamson street, was believed ended Friday night with the arrest of a Flint man, now held at Saginaw county jail pending formal complaint, likely to be made Monday.

The suspect, Paul Higgins, 27 of 45515 Carlton street, Flint, was arrested by Sheriff Muehlenbeck and Supt. Dale Austin of the Saginaw county identification bureau, after it was established that he had taken his vehicle to a Flint garage for repair of a broken headlight and a dented fender. Authorities say there is other incriminating evidence. Higgins has refused to make any statement.

Then came his obituary:

DORSEY H. HOLLIS

Dorsey H.(sic) Hollis, 52, Williamson road, died Wednesday at St. Mary's hospital. Mr. Hollis was born Nov. 11, 1886, at Blairsville, Pa. In 1905 he married Mill Leontine Casten at Blairsville. He came to Saginaw ten years ago and has been employed as a foreman at the Chevrolet foundry. Mr. Hollis was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church at New Kensington, Pa. He leaves his wife; three sons and a daughter, Paul, Arthemus, Robert Edward and Dorothy; a brother, Benjamin Hollis of Blairsville and three sisters, Mrs. Ernest Ripence of Saginaw, Mrs. H. L. Reid and Miss Charlotte Hollis of Blairsville. The funeral will take place at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Wallace & Honey funeral home. Rev. Wilbur D. Grose will officiate and burial will be in Forest Lawn.

Some words on the trial of Paul Higgins for hit-and-run

It was in front of the Joseph Swarty farm that Dorsey was struck. The call came to the police on the morning of March 1, 1939 about 7am.

Dorsey was found lying on ice covered ground and was completely covered with snow. He had lain there long enough that he had melted down one inch into the ice. In his pocket was found an envelope with his address and no other identification at all. I speculate at this time that the envelope was his notification of divorce filed by his wife.

He was supposed to have left home around 2:15 am to see a neighbor named Buckner(s), yet he was found about a mile from home.

As to the trial itself it was a joke. The lawyers were the real trial with their objections, lack of interest at reaching truth, and not being serious about justice. Many of the witnesses took the Fifth. The testimony was contradictory without being challenged. It was interesting that the judge did find Higgins guilty of not giving aid!

Ellantine Castin was buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Saginaw, Saginaw County, Michigan.

Notes for Ellantine Castin:

One of the stories dad related was that grandmother Ellantine's brothers were glassblowers. Supposedly the partial set of cut glass shot glasses were made by one of her brothers.

Obituary for Leontine Hollis

Surviving are three sons and one daughter, Paul, Artemus, and Robert Hollis, and Mrs. Dorothy Allore, all of Saginaw; five grandchildren [I question this number]; two brothers, Louis Castin, Scotdale, Pa.; Alphonse Castin, New Orleans, La.; also Jerome Scharlaken, Saginaw. Note: The several question marks are because of the poor quality of the microfilm for that date. There should have been more grandchildren alive on this date.

Dear Niece and Family,

I received your lovely gift, you couldn't have gotten one anything I needed or appreciated more. Thanks so very much.

I am very sick and have been very [sick] now for a year. I doubt if I weigh 75 lbs. I have been bedfast since June. I am almost helpless. I am with Jerry. He takes very good care of me-my eyes [are] so bad I can hardly see so I have to have someone to write for me.

Do you remember Jewels' wife? She has been to see me quite often. They live in Detroit.

I hope all the family is fine and thanks again.

Love,
Aunt Ellantine

On the backside of the same letter:

Dear Madeline,

I am Jewels' wife Caroline. It's such a pity here. Aunt Ellantine has gone to a shadow. She has cancer all through her. It started in the bladder. She has a big lump the size of a small football between her legs. She can't eat. Uncle Jerry fixes her breakfast early in the morning before he goes to work. She eats two slices of French bread, cup of coffee, and that's all she eats 'till next day.

Don't mention cancer to her-she doesn't know it. I try to come up as often as I can. I love her dearly, so if I could only do something to help her. Dr. keeps her under dope most of the time the pain is so bad. I am having doctor out today. I will be with her 'till Sunday.

Lots of Love to All,
Your Cousin Caroline

Notes for Gertrude Pittman:

The Indiana Gazette, Indiana, Pennsylvania (September 2, 1898)

Mr. M. A. Miller, of Bolivar, and Miss Gertrude Pittman, of Brushvalley township, were united in marriage last Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed at the M. E. parsonage in Mechanicsburg by Rev. J. M. Cogley.

According to the 1920 Census, Gertrude and her family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

This write-up was believed to be written by Ruth (Warfel) Robertson:

Andrew and Hannah Pittman were parents of three children, Alphoretta, a baby girl who died at the age of four months and seventeen days. Harry contracted pneumonia and died at the age of nineteen. The four of them are buried in a small cemetery located on Cemetery Road, off route 259N, near the town of Brush Valley, Pa.

Gertrude Pittman, the surviving child of Andrew and Hannah (Pittman) Pittman, Hannah no relation to Andrew, lived on a farm outside of Brush Valley with her parents. The farm was large and today route 259N goes through the "cow pasture" that belonged to the farm. The farm house is still standing with a few changes and the barn is also there in fair condition. When Andrew and Hannah sold their farm they moved into the town of Brush Valley. The house is located along the main highway and directly across from a small gas station-grocery store. After Hannah died in 1928, Andrew sold the house and went to Homewood, Pa. to live with his daughter Gertrude.

Matthew Anderson Miller, son of Michael and Susan (Lapool) Miller, lived about two miles past the Pittman's farm. Michael Miller ran a grist mill on his farm, his other children were John Shields, Golden, Gladys, and Annie.

When Gertrude Pittman married Matthew Miller they moved to Bolivar, Pa., where Matthew worked at Hammonds grist mill and lived in the house beside it. The grist mill was located across the creek from the old Bolivar ball field, near the railroad arch, where the creek flows into the Conemaugh River. His brother John Shields also worked with him. Florence (1899) and Cora (1902) Miller were born in this house. From here the family moved to the corner of Second and Shaffer Street, this house was later known as the Moose Lodge Home.

Andrew Pittman bought a parcel of land on Shaffer Street in Bolivar for his daughter Gertrude, and Matthew built the family home and his own flour mill. Edna (1904) and Gladys (1910) Miller were born here. The local farmers brought their corn and other grains to the mill to be ground and Matthew also made flour and sold to other customers in town.

At the beginning of every summer the Pittman Grandparent's would arrive at the home of Gertrude and Matthew in their horse and buggy, which had a seat in back of the driver's seat, and take Florence and Cora to the farm to spend the summer. This was about a four hour trip which started after lunch. Edna was not well enough to stay and Gladys was too young, but they did visit the farm with their mother at other times. Florence and Cora did small house jobs for their grand mother and would ride in the horse and buggy with their grandpap to take milk, butter and cheese into Indiana (Pa.) to sell on Saturdays.

When work was slow at the grist mill Matthew started working for Ridgeview Coal Company. While working outside doing heavy lifting he was injured and died within two days at the age of 50. He is buried in West View Cemetary, Bolivar, Pa. One of Cora's fond memories of her dad was his taking Florence and her on Sunday visits to the Modesto (Mose) Bernabo farm, who sold milk to the local town people. The farm was located half way up the ridge above the West Bolivar bridge. Also after the girls grandmother Miller died, their grandfather Michael Miller came to live with them until his death in 1912. He always sat in a chair beside the coal stove and slept a lot. About eight years after Matthew died Gertrude married a former boyfriend who had lived in Brush Valley, Daniel Donahey, and they moved to Homewood, Pa. Daniel worked for the post office. Florence, Cora and Edna were married but Gladys was not and was living with her mother and step-father. Gertrude had asthma most of her life and was ill a lot of the time. She contacted pneumonia and died in 1930. Against the girls wishes, she was buried in Homewood Cemetary. Her daughter Edna Mae Miller Wunschell is also buried there. Four years after Gertrude's death Daniel committed suicide using a small hand revolver and is buried beside Gertrude in Homewood (Pa.) Cemetary.

The following is from a clipping found at the Historical Society files in Indiana, Pa.

Harry Pittman, a son of Andrew Pittman, of Brushvalley township died on Saturday of pneumonia after an illness of a week. He was aged 19 yrs-6mo. The funeral was held on Saturday. (4-14-1900)

From the 1850 census the following was recorded:

LICHTENFELS - Dean

LICHTENFELS - Dean R., 84, a beloved husband of Helen A. Thurston Lichtenfels of Daytona Beach, Fla., and Black Lick, went to be with the Lord at 1 a.m. Wednesday, June 14, 2006, at St. Andrew's Village, Indiana, with all his family around him. A son of the late William F. and Mabel Campbell Lichtenfels. He was born Oct. 22, 1921, in Heshon, Indiana County. Dean was the founder and proud owner of Lichtenfels Trucking in Black Lick, for over 50 years. He had so many important parts of his life. Since moving to Florida during the winter months, Dean was proud of the fact that he had a meaningful position driving bus and van transportation for Bethune-Cookman College of Daytona Beach. Dean had in his life been a coal miner, Burrell Township supervisor, contracted work for LICMA and Pennsylvania state road work. He ran race cars in his youth and continued to drive that way throughout his entire life. Work ethic was instilled in his family seven days a week. He would hire kids all his life to give them a start in a productive life. Whether you called him Dean, D.R., Dad, Pap, Big Pap or Pappy Dean, once you were a part of his extended family you were treated as part of his family and held to his standards. He was a husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, great-great-grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. His greatest joy was a meal or party with all his family and friends present. For his 80th birthday his family and friends held a surprise party for him. Family and friends attended from all over the country and this day was a celebration of his life. He is survived by his wife, Helen Lichtenfels, whom he married July 30, 1987; mother-in-law, Margaret Thurston; daughters, Linda Lydic, and husband, Roger; Lois Zack, and husband, Ken; Bobbie St. Clair, and husband, Ralph; Betty Cochran, and husband, Randy; and Cindy Gearhard; sons, Neil Lichtenfels, and Jeff Gearhard, and wife, Julie; grandchildren, Sheila Wilson, and husband, Denny; Ken Zack, and wife, Cindy; Dean St. Clair; Tammie Mack; Deanna Wooldridge-Smith; Lisa Wooldridge; Luren, Kelsey and Jacob Gearhard; and Zachary Zilke; great-grandchildren, Jamie Arone, and husband, Tony; Matthew Wilson, and wife, Misty; Mason Zack; Marc Zack; Meghan Mack; Karen Mack; Robert Sawyer; Marissa Smith; and Jacob Smith; great-great-grandson, Jaxson Anthony Arone; and a great-great-granddaughter, Savanna Snow Wilson; and many nieces and nephews of whom he was the last remaining uncle. He was a part of all their lives and they also knew he was there for them. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Bertha Dies Lichtenfels; seven brothers; and four sisters. His family and friends will be celebrating his life again from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at Shoemaker Funeral Home Inc., 49 N. Walnut St., Blairsville. Service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday in the funeral home, with the Rev. Jason L. McQueen officiating. Interment will be in Blairsville Cemetery, Blairsville. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Andrew's Village Outdoor Furniture Fund, 1155 Indian Springs Road, Indiana, Pa. 15701, in appreciation for the staff's loving kindness during Dean's last moments. There can never be enough thanks expressed to his wife, Helen. It was due to her care and love that made it possible for all his family and friends to continue to enjoy him until his latest illness. Alfred Bruce Clawson was buried in Armagh Cemetery, Armagh, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Alfred Bruce Clawson:

The one story that I like to use about my grandpap Clawson is that he was disabled by two different work related accidents. In one, he lost three fingers on his right hand in 1915 (occurred before 1918 according to a draft registration card) and he had only his thumb and pointer finger. He had the other arm amputated above the elbow in another work related accident when his shirt sleeve got caught in some machinery in 1938. When he was in his sixties and seventies, he was the manager at a Western Auto store in Seward, Pennsylvania. One day, a young guy came in and pulled a gun on him and tried to rob him. I guess he figured he would be an easy prey since he was old and disabled. My grandfather reached under the counter and pulled out the gun (A 38, I believe) that he always had at the store with him and told the guy that if he didn't leave the store in five seconds that he was going to shoot him. This guy didn't expect this and he hightailed out the store without ever trying to take my grandfather on. They caught this guy later on. My grandfather could be downright stern when he needed to be but he was still a fun person to be around. Also with his disabilities, he drove a standard shift automobile most of his life. (Told by Keith Clawson)

As told by Bruce A. Clawson, when A. Bruce Clawson was growing up, he lived with his parents near the Pennsylvania Railroad main tracks near Bolivar. When walking the tracks such as to go into Bolivar, he would carry a loaded pistol. This was due to number of hobos who would ride the freight trains that passed through. The hobos were known to attack and sometimes kill people that they would encounter along the tracks.

Another story told by Bruce A. was that A. Bruce and his brother Bobby (Ralph Davis Clawson) were going through Oak Grove (north of Ligonier) in an automobile one time. A. Bruce was driving the automobile. Someone ran from the side of the road and hopped on the running boards of the automobile. A. Bruce told his brother to get the man off the car and Bobby pushed him off the car. Bobby then proceeded to fire a few shots from a pistol at this person's feet to make sure he ran away and left them alone.

According to the 1930 census, Bruce and his family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Florence Hannah Miller was buried in Armagh Cemetery, Armagh, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Florence Hannah Miller:

Florence was called Nana by all of her grandchildren. She did not want to be called grandmother. She thought being called grandmother would make her feel old.

Indiana Gazette (April 14, 2006)

BLAIRSVILLE - Blairsville dentist John Yelenic was found dead Thursday afternoon with injuries that he apparently suffered in a violent struggle inside his residence at 223 S. Spring St., Indiana County Coroner Michael Baker said this morning.

Yelenic, 39, a partner in the Reilly & Yelenic Dental office at 135 E. Market St., died several hours before his body was discovered about 3:30 p.m.

A child noticed a broken window and some blood on the area of the front door at Yelenic's house and summoned two other people who opened the door and found Yelenic's body, Baker said.

There are multiple wounds on the body, but we do not know what they were made with yet, Baker said. He described the area surrounding Yelenic's body as one of disarray.

Yelenic's body was taken first to the morgue at Indiana Regional Medical Center, then was sent to the Cyril Wecht Pathology Associates in Pittsburgh for an autopsy that was to begin at 9 this morning.

No findings were available at press time.

Blairsville Borough police and state police crime-scene analysts investigated at Yelenic's residence Thursday afternoon but released no information and did not respond to calls requesting comment this morning.

Yelenic led a private life, by the accounts of his former wife, an aunt and a neighbor.

His estranged wife, Michele Yelenic of White Township, said they separated five years ago following a brief marriage, and their divorce case had proceeded quietly for the past year but was not final.

In October 2003, however, Yelenic was arrested by Blairsville Borough police for violating a protection-from-abuse order that Michele had obtained against him, according to a report published in The Gazette.

The couple had a 7-year-old son, who longtime neighbor David Gilmore said was adopted.

He went to Sunday school at our church, Christian Missionary & Alliance Church in Blairsville, with his boy on weekends, said Gilmore, of 143 S. Spring St.

Gilmore, 50, said Yelenic's mother often asked him to baby-sit her son when he was a child, after his father died.

I'm 10 years older than he was.

she asked me to baby-sit him so he could have some male influence. Gilmore said Yelenic's mother, Mary Lois Yelenic, died in 1997.

Yelenic's father, John, died from a heart attack while driving on Route 22 in 1967, according to his aunt, Betty Yelenic of East Chestnut Street.

My youngest son, Michael, and John used to play together at the playground when they were children, but then John's mother became overprotective.

and the families drifted apart, Betty Yelenic said.

Yelenic had no brothers or sisters. Officials went to Michele Yelenic's residence just before midnight Thursday, considering her John Yelenic's closest relative, to officially give notice of his death.

A message left with Yelenic's dental office was not returned.

Indiana Gazette (April 15, 2006)

BLAIRSVILLE - Indiana County Coroner Michael Baker ruled Friday that dentist John Yelenic was a victim of homicide, and local police put a clamp on information related to Yelenic's death.

Yelenic bled to death in his residence at 223 S. Spring St., Baker reported following an autopsy performed at the Cyril Wecht pathology laboratory in Pittsburgh.

But Baker withheld details such as the time officials believe Yelenic died and the nature of his injuries, although he said Yelenic apparently had been involved in a violent struggle less than 24 hours before his body was found.

Neighbors discovered Yelenic's body at about 3:30 p.m. Thursday and Baker pronounced him dead at 4:10 p.m.

The autopsy showed Yelenic suffered "severe blood loss," according to Baker, who listed exsanguination as the cause of death.

State police and Blairsville Borough officers investigated Yelenic's death, and troopers at the Indiana station said the Blairsville department was in charge of the investigation.

Messages left for Blairsville Chief Donald Hess and investigator Cpl. Janelle Lydic were not returned. Late Friday afternoon, an officer at the station said Hess decided to schedule a news conference for 1 p.m. Monday.

Yelenic was 39 and in the process of a divorce, according to his wife, Michele Yelenic of White Township.

Yelenic was a partner with Dr. Thomas Reilly in the Reilly & Yelenic Dental office along East Market Street, Blairsville.

Reilly did not return calls left at his office and home.

An employee at the dental office late Friday afternoon said workers were shocked about Yelenic's death and seemed "to be working on automatic pilot."

She said Reilly's semi-retired brother, Dr. Richard Reilly, came in to help treat patients on a full schedule of appointments.

Pennsylvania cop on trial for allegedly murdering girlfriend's estranged husband

Prosecutor: Trooper prayed for dentist's death

Tells jury he even asked another trooper to help him kill the victim

Murder Trial Begins: Lawyer Says Pa. Trooper 'Loathed' Slain Dentist Jury Almost Complete; Pa. Trooper's Homicide Trial Stays Local

INDIANA, Pa. - A western Pennsylvania state trooper hated his girlfriend's estranged husband, prayed that he would die and made up claims that he molested his adopted son, a state prosecutor told a jury as the trooper's trial began Monday.

Kevin Foley was living with Dr. John Yelenic's wife at the time the dentist's throat was slit on April 13, 2006. Yelenic, 39, was found dead in his Blairsville home the day before he was to sign his final divorce papers.

"This was in no way an amicable divorce," Deputy Attorney General Anthony Krastek told the Indiana County jury.

Foley "loathed Dr. Yelenic" and even asked another trooper to help him kill the dentist, Krastek said. Claims that Yelenic molested his son - also perpetuated by the dentist's wife - were unfounded, he said.

John and Michele Yelenic separated in 2002 and their divorce was so contentious the dentist's attorney asked a judge to issue a divorce decree a month after he died, saying the dentist would have wanted it that way. The judge ultimately rejected the request, finding Yelenic's death made the matter moot.

Krastek told the jury that DNA found under Yelenic's fingerprints link Foley to his death. Bloody footprints that match athletic shoes Foley was known to wear at the time will also link him to the crime, Krastek said.

"You will see Kevin Foley has the motive, the opportunity and the ability to commit this crime, almost to the exclusion of anybody else," he said.

'Jumping to a conclusion'

But Foley's defense attorney, Jeffrey Monzo, disagreed. He said the DNA evidence showed that Foley "could be" a match only because he "may not be able to be excluded."

Monzo acknowledged the two men didn't get along but said prosecutors were "leaping and jumping to a conclusion" in a "desperate attempt" to pin the crime on Foley, who remains on unpaid suspension from the state police.

"You should not confuse a dislike with a motive," Monzo said.

Monzo contends authorities failed to investigate at least three other suspects, including a neighbor to whom Yelenic loaned $15,000 so his wife could start a business. Monzo suggested Yelenic was friendly with the neighbor's wife, which might have given him a motive to kill the dentist.

Foley, 43, is charged with criminal homicide, a catchall charge that gives the jury the option of convicting him of first-degree murder or a lesser degree charge, including manslaughter. If convicted of first-degree murder, Foley would spend life in prison without parole.

A state grand jury presentment said that Yelenic's estranged wife and their adopted son stood to collect on the dentist's estate, including a $1 million life insurance policy. Foley had moved in with Michele Yelenic, the adopted son and her two other children in late 2004.

The grand jury also determined that Michele Yelenic stood to lose about $2,500 a month in support under the couple's divorce settlement, which was days from being approved when the dentist was found murdered.

The trial is expected to last about two weeks.

final stages of finalizing a divorce from his wife, Michele. According to prosecutors, Foley "loathed Dr. Yelenic" so much that he asked another fellow trooper to help him commit the alleged murder, which occurred in Yelenic's Blairsville home.

Deputy Attorney General Anthony Krastek told an Indiana County jury that Foley also prayed Yelenic would die, and spread false rumors that Yelenic molested his adopted son.

"You will see Kevin Foley has the motive, the opportunity and the ability to commit this crime, almost to the exclusion of anybody else," Krastek said.

Foley's defense attorney, Jeffrey Monzo, said during opening statements that DNA evidence was not conclusive. Monzo admitted to the jury that Foley did not like Yelenic, but said that does not mean he murdered him.

"Kevin Foley is innocent," he said.

Prosecutors said they could call as many as 70 witnesses to try and prove Foley wanted Yelenic to die. The trial, at the Indiana County Courthouse, is expected to last about three weeks.

Foley, who is on unpaid suspension from the Pennsylvania State Police, is charged with criminal homicide. The jury has the option of convicting him of first-degree murder, which could put Foley in prison for life without parole, or of a lesser degree charge, like manslaughter.

John Yelnic was found dead in his home on April 13, 2006, one day before he was planning on signing his divorce papers. Prosecutors said Foley killed Yelenic after going to the dentist's house to confront him over the terms of the divorce. Prosecutors claim Foley slashed Yelenic several times with a knife and pushed his head through a small window, causing a further gash on his neck. Yelenic bled to death.

Foley had been living with Michele Yelenic for two years at the time of the alleged homicide. Krastek said Michele also helped perpetuate rumors that Dr. Yelenic molested their son. John and Michele Yelnic had been separated in 2002. Michele Yelenic stood to collect Dr. Yelenic's estate and a $1 million life insurance policy, and could lose about $2,500 a month in support if the divorce was finalized, a Pennsylvania grand jury previously determined.

Michele Yelenic is expected to testify that Foley was home with her when the alleged murder occurred. Krastek told the jury DNA under Yelenic's fingerprints will ultimately link him to the murder, as will bloody shoe prints found at the crime scene that match athletic shoes Foley is known to wear.

Monzo also said authorities have failed to investigate several other suspects, including Yelenic's neighbor. Monzo said Yelenic was on very friendly terms with the neighbor's wife, which could have given him a motive to commit the murder.

Prior to the trial, Foley's defense attorneys unsuccessfully sought a change of venue because an overwhelming majority of the jury pool was familiar with the allegations. The change was denied when jurors insisted they had not formed an opinion about the charges.

Dentist's Grisly Injuries Described At Pa. Trooper's Trial
Kevin Foley Accused Of Killing Girlfriend's Rich Husband In Indiana County

INDIANA, Pa. -- A well-known forensic pathologist described the brutal injuries suffered by Dr. John Yelenic, as the murder trial for Pennsylvania state police Trooper Kevin Foley entered its second day at the Indiana County Courthouse.

"In my opinion, the assailant was not very happy with Dr. Yelenic," said Dr. Cyril Wecht, a former medical examiner for Allegheny County.

Wecht told the jury on Tuesday morning that Yelenic's throat was slashed from ear to ear and his head was nearly severed inside his Blairsville home in April 2006.

"I think that once you are surprised, wounds are inflicted and you have no weapon of defense other than your arm, and we have a significant defensive wound on the right hand down the back of the right forearm. You're trying to flee and get out of there," Wecht said.

According to his testimony, Wecht believes that Yelenic tried to run out the front door to get away from an attacker, who then smashed the doctor's head through a window pane in the door and the impact sliced Yelenic's jugular. Yelenic was probably alive for another nine minutes before he bled out, Wecht said.

"What kind of emotion is evidenced by the assailant in this case? The multiplicity, the severity of the wounds all denote a passionate scenario. The assailant is someone who is very angry at Dr. Yelenic," Wecht said.

Foley, who was living with Yelenic's soon-to-be ex-wife, Michele, is charged with homicide and remains on unpaid suspension from his job.

Afternoon witnesses included Blairsville police Officer Jill Gaston, who was the first to arrive at Yelenic's home after the death. She testified that Foley had a gash on his face when she interviewed him.

Gaston said Foley told her that he suffered the facial wound playing hockey. His defense lawyers said the mark above his left eyebrow was first described as a "scratch" by Gaston, and only now at the trial did she call it a gash.

Wednesday's witnesses are expected to include some of Foley's co-workers from the state police barracks in Indiana.

Prosecutors allege that Foley got into a violent struggle with Yelenic after going to the doctor's house to confront him over terms of his divorce, which was to be finalized the next day.

In his opening statement, Deputy Attorney General Anthony Krastek said Foley "had a loathing" for Yelenic and tried to have him arrested and talked with other troopers about how he wished for the man's death.

Defense attorney Jeffrey Monzo said his client's personal feelings about Yelenic don't prove that Foley is guilty, and Foley maintains he had nothing to do with the doctor's death.

Foley guilty of 1st-degree murder
By Paul Peirce
TRIBUNE-REVIEW
Thursday, March 19, 2009

An Indiana County jury found a state trooper guilty of first-degree murder for the slaying of Blairsville dentist John Yelenic in 2006.

The seven-man, five-woman jury deliberated just more than five hours, reaching the verdict just after 10 p.m. Wednesday.

Kevin James Foley, 43, of White, who was suspended following his arrest in September 2007, showed no reaction as the guilty verdict was read.

Several family members and friends of Yelenic who attended all eight days of the trial broke down and cried as the verdict was read.

The verdict carries a mandatory penalty of life in prison. Judge William J. Martin scheduled a sentencing hearing for 8:30 a.m. June 1.

Earlier yesterday, Foley repeatedly testified that he did not kill Yelenic.

Foley calmly told the jury, "No, I did not," when his attorney, Richard Galloway, asked whether he killed Yelenic, 39, on April 13, 2006.

Foley was living with the dentist's estranged wife, Michele Yelenic, at the time Yelenic was slashed and stabbed to death in his Blairsville home. The Yelenics were embroiled in a bitter divorce at the time of his death, including allegations of child molestation.

Foley was on the stand for several hours. Just before noon, Senior Deputy Attorney General Anthony Krastek began cross-examining him.

More than 100 people crowded into the spectator gallery to hear Foley's testimony. About 50 people were kept out outside Judge William J. Martin's courtroom because there were not enough seats.

Krastek accused Foley of taking a detour on his way home from a Fraternal Order of Police hockey game in Delmont, stopping in Blairsville and slashing and stabbing Yelenic, then pushing the dentist's head through a window.

Krastek alleges the 13-year trooper was bitter over the Yelenics' pending divorce settlement.

One of the most dramatic moments yesterday occurred when Galloway retrieved an evidence bag and produced Foley's white F.O.P. hockey sweater as evidence.

Numerous state police investigators have testified that they could not find the white sweater during two searches of Foley's home after the slaying.

On cross-examination, Krastek questioned Foley about the numerous times he told fellow state troopers and friends that he wished Yelenic were dead.

"Help me. Is it funny when you asked Trooper Dan Zenisek that you wanted help killing John Yelenic? What's so funny about that? Tell me the joke," Krastek said.

Foley replied, "There isn't any joke. It's just my personality, my behavior (with co-workers)."

Krastek asked "whether they were all jokes" in each instance that he told co-workers and strangers he wanted the dentist dead.

"Yes, sir. I never made a threat with the intention of carrying it out," Foley said.

Alfred Bruce Clawson was buried in Armagh Cemetery, Armagh, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Alfred Bruce Clawson:

The one story that I like to use about my grandpap Clawson is that he was disabled by two different work related accidents. In one, he lost three fingers on his right hand in 1915 (occurred before 1918 according to a draft registration card) and he had only his thumb and pointer finger. He had the other arm amputated above the elbow in another work related accident when his shirt sleeve got caught in some machinery in 1938. When he was in his sixties and seventies, he was the manager at a Western Auto store in Seward, Pennsylvania. One day, a young guy came in and pulled a gun on him and tried to rob him. I guess he figured he would be an easy prey since he was old and disabled. My grandfather reached under the counter and pulled out the gun (A 38, I believe) that he always had at the store with him and told the guy that if he didn't leave the store in five seconds that he was going to shoot him. This guy didn't expect this and he hightailed out the store without ever trying to take my grandfather on. They caught this guy later on. My grandfather could be downright stern when he needed to be but he was still a fun person to be around. Also with his disabilities, he drove a standard shift automobile most of his life. (Told by Keith Clawson)

As told by Bruce A. Clawson, when A. Bruce Clawson was growing up, he lived with his parents near the Pennsylvania Railroad main tracks near Bolivar. When walking the tracks such as to go into Bolivar, he would carry a loaded pistol. This was due to number of hobos who would ride the freight trains that passed through. The hobos were known to attack and sometimes kill people that they would encounter along the tracks.

Another story told by Bruce A. was that A. Bruce and his brother Bobby (Ralph Davis Clawson) were going through Oak Grove (north of Ligonier) in an automobile one time. A. Bruce was driving the automobile. Someone ran from the side of the road and hopped on the running boards of the automobile. A. Bruce told his brother to get the man off the car and Bobby pushed him off the car. Bobby then proceeded to fire a few shots from a pistol at this person's feet to make sure he ran away and left them alone.

According to the 1930 census, Bruce and his family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Florence Hannah Miller was buried in Armagh Cemetery, Armagh, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Florence Hannah Miller:

Florence was called Nana by all of her grandchildren. She did not want to be called grandmother. She thought being called grandmother would make her feel old.

July 25, 1924 - April 9, 2020

95, formerly of Bolivar, died Thursday, April 9, 2020 at Newhaven Court at Linwood, Greensburg. She was born July 25, 1924 in Robinson, a daughter of the late Joseph and Mary Donahue Hall. She resided in Bolivar most of her life and was highly respected and known beyond the boundaries of the town. Carrie Deane was "famous" for her scrumptious home-made bread, rolls, cinnamon buns, cakes, pies, and more. All of her grandchildren and great grandchildren as well as many others are proud owners of her crocheted blankets. For many years, her Bolivar neighbors and friends canned beets, made garden special, and more in her well suited basement. She provided, over the years, donated baked goods to churches and elder care homes. Perhaps, though, she is best remembered as an extremely gracious, loving, kind, mother, and grandmother. Nothing was more important to Carrie Deane than her family, neighbors, and friends. In addition to her parents she was predeceased by her loving husband, William Z. Clawson who died in 2002 and these siblings: Isabell, Grace, Joseph, Patty, and Charlotte. She is survived by two sons, William (Betty) Clawson, Dennis (Carol) Clawson, a sister, Betty Graymus, a brother, Paul Hall, five grandchildren: Billie Sue (Dave) Early, Kimberly Clawson, Adam (Carolyn) Clawson, Stephanie (Mike) Zezzo and Suzanne (John) Dzvonick who all loved her and spent many days and nights learning how to cook and bake. She is also survived by these great-grandchildren: Daniel and Matthew Early, Ashley Victoriana, Breanna, Danielle, and Evan Clawson, Cole and Sophia Zezzo and Lydia and Lucas Dzvonick, and numerous nieces and nephews. The family wishes to acknowledge the love and care provided by the Bolivar "family." Super special thanks goes to Pat Skavang and Katthy Griffith as well as Michael Robertson who were there every step of the way. Many, many other relatives, neighbors, and friends are also thanked for friendly visits, occasional personal care, and the delivery of delicious food. A huge thank you is to be given to Newhaven Court's highly skilled and caring staff and the nurses and staff from Bridges Hospice. A private graveside burial will take place at the Bolivar Westview Cemetery at the convenience of the family. A well deserved memorial service will be held at a later time and date to be announced.
